Yo. 30.981

PARIS, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1982

West Germany at Crossroads

Hesse Election Blurs Future Course of National Politics

By James M. Markham New York Times Service

BONN - Voters in the state of Besse, in one of the most awaited and closely scrutinized elections in long time, have east a pall of unertainty over the future course of cation for Chancellor Helmut Schmidt and a disconcerting set-back for the new alliance of Christian Democrats and Free Democrats that hopes to remove him in a

At one level, the election Sunday

p the state legislature in Wiesbaen was a sturning personal state.

Opposition Resumes Bonn Coalition Talks

BONN - West Germany's three center-right opposition parties resimed negotiations Monday night on a new coalition to remove the had seen concern, despute their severe state name of talks be-Mr. Kohl said that the negotia-tions were running on schedule and could last all night before the tween the conservative opposition side to said the liberal Free Democrats, who quit Mr. Schmidt's left-liberal government on Sept. 17, did not dispet the political uncertainty in Bonn.

Hans-Dietrich Genscher, the Hans-Dietrich Genscher, the Line and the Hans-Dietrich Genscher, the Line and the Hans-Dietrich Genscher, whose the Line and the Hans-Dietrich Genscher, whose have trained the Line and Hans-Dietrich Genscher, whose have trained the Line and Hans-Dietrich Genscher, whose have trained the Line and Li the least we saw thancellor on Friday.

Rebel Deputies

Six Free Democratic deputies called in separate statements for his resignation, saying that they and others would not vote in the Bundestag, the lower house, to reblace Mr. Scannag was Demis the service Union.

The Christian Social Union, the course in the party. Inc Christian Democrats' Bavarianhased sister party, whose 52 votes power, demanded that Mr. Genscher guarantee that at least

YOUNG IR WITH A

NE Wale

TOUGHT IN

[O# (057]]

HEN THE PAR

×236

SIFIED AD

THE PARTY SHE

parliamentary vote Friday. But, at a deeper level, the Hesse

But if all Christian Democratic and Christian Social Union members support Mr. Kohl on Friday, then only 23 Free Democratic votes will be needed for a majority.

parties decided at separate meetings Tuesday whether to endorse

"As the person immediately concerned, I will not go into the vote on Friday unless I can confidently expect to be elected," he election to resolve the Bonn gov-sent to Bonn in 1980 had "no mandate for a midterm switch."

He said in a television interview

ferendum on national politics, the Hesse vote had been expected to confirm the Christian Democrats' commanding countrywide lead over the chancellor's Social Democrats, whose popularity has been sapped during 13 years in power. Polls had put the Christian Democrats tantalizingly close to an absolute majority of seats in the 110-40 of the 53 Free Democrat deputies would vote for the new coalimember state legislature. Instead, in a high turnout, the

NEWS ANALYSIS

tion, the so-called Greens, holds the power balance between the country's two major parties. Germans have a big, frightening word for this realignment that evokes the Weimar Republic: Unregier-

Polls Proved Wrong Converted by the collapse of Mr. Schmidt's coalition into a re-barkeit, or ungovernability.

Christian Democrats took only 45.6 percent of the vote and 52 seats, while Mr. Schmidt's Social Democrats — leaping almost 10 percentage points over opinion-poll forecasts — cornered 42.8 percent and 49 seats. Ratifying its claim to be the country's third political force, the radical-populist Green protest movement won 8 percent of the vote, and 9 seats; the party the Greens have dis-placed, the Free Democrats, sank to an all-time low of 3.1 percent, and no seats.

Mr. Schmidt renewed his appeal Monday night for an all-party ac-cord to call an immediate general Mr. Schmidt, who had sum-moned the people of Hesse to pun-ish the Free Democrats for quitting his government on Sept. 17, was reaffirmed Sunday as the most that the Hesse vote had showed that the Free Democratic deputies popular politician in the nation. He carried the discredited Hesse Social Democrat machine to something resembling a triumph.

Free Democrat sources said that By the same token, his oppo-ents — Helmut Kohl, the Christhe catastrophic outcome of the Hesse election had further weak-ened support for Mr. Genscher's tian Democratic candidate for chancellor, and Hans-Dietrich Genscher, head of the the Free Democrats — were denied a man-Hildegard Hamm-Brücher, who until Sept. 17 was Mr. Genscher's date for their proposed new coalileading deputy at the Foreign Min-istry, said that the Free Democrats tion in Boon. The conservative Frankfurter Allgemeine, no friend of Mr. Schmidt, called the vote a catastrophe" for the Christian Democrais and "devastating" for the Free Democrats.

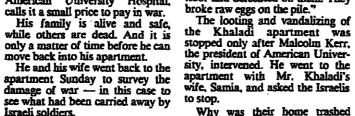

Party Survival in Doubt

The severest judgment was meted out to the Free Democrais, whose survival as a party is now open to question. Mr. Genscher says the Free Democrats are "condemned" to go forward with their plans to help vote Mr. Kohl into office on Friday. The party's left wing, which heatedly opposes this move, has no realistic alternative that will guarantee the organization's existence. Acceptance of Mr. Schmidt's call for an all-party pact to dissolve parliament now and to hold elections could mean the extinction of the Free Democrats as a national political organization if, as in Hesse, they skidded below the 5-percent barrier needed for parliamentary representation. Ironically, however, the Hesse vote was also a reversal for Mr. Genscher's arch political foe, Franz Josef Strauss, the leader of the Christian Democrats' independent Bavarian sister party. Mr. Strauss has argued that the Bonn alliance with the Free Democrats is unnecessary, since the Christian Democrats are now capable of winning a nationwide majority.

The Christian Democrats' 45.6percent showing in Hesse under-cuts Mr. Strauss's thesis, suggest-ing strongly that coalition-building is still imperative to govern in West Germany. Meetings Monday and Tuesday will show whether Mr. Strauss limits his demands on the humbled Free Democrats, permitting them to contemplate a per-

Israeli soldiers. They looted art books. They and looted? As far as the Khaladis took a shotgun and a rifle, which can tell, only because it is in the same building that housed the Palestine Research Center, an or-

By J. Michael Kennedy

Los Angeles Times Service

BEIRUT — Osma Khaladi, a professor of biochemistry at the American University Hospital, calls it a small price to pay in war.

was to be expected," Mr. Khaladi said. "They looted a number of ancient pots. We had a plumber in the house doing repairs and they took a lot of pipes.

Liberation Organization. The Khaladis said the research "They took a lot of stainless center was not damaged nearly as steel cooking pots and my electric drills. They took a lot of my wife's badly as his apartment. And his story of looting and vandalism is An Italian soldier was watched by three Palestinian children on Monday as he took over patrol duty in the rubble of the Sabra refugee camp in West Beirut, the scene of a massacre this month.

Israeli Soldiers Looted, Vandalized ganization funded by the Palestine curler, hair brushes.

Homes and Shops in West Beirut clothes, perfumes, toiletries, a hot but one of meny coming to light in

They took my lecture notes, The Israelis said they were conbooks and clothes, put them on the ducting searches for weapons as they moved from house to house floor and defecated on them. They before leaving West Beirut on Sun-

> Throughout the week, however, Israeli trucks loaded with household appliances and furniture were seen driving south toward Israel. And the looting has not been re-stricted to home furnishings. Cars, for example, have been loaded onto flatbed trucks and taken off, > presumably to Israel. No one knows the extent of the looting since the Israelis entered the predominantly Moslem sector of Beirut on Sept. 15, the day after Bashir Gemayel, the president-elect, was assassinated. The Riviera Hotel, where the Israelis set up their command post, has not been

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Peace Force Moves Into Beirut Camps

By David B. Ottaway

Washington Post Service
BEIRUT — French and Italian troops of the multinational peacekeeping force began to deploy Monday inside the Palestinian refugee camps on the southern outskirts of West Beirut despite the continued token presence of Israeli troops at the port and airport, which has kept U.S. marines from landing.

Palestinian residents gave the French and Italians a warm welcome, some with tears in their eyes, as the first patrols spread out in the filthy, twisting streets of Sabra and Chanla camps where hundreds of civilians were massacred

The last troops of the French and Italian contingents arrived Monday, bringing the total pres-ence in West Beirut to roughly 2,200. The State Department announced Monday that 1,200 U.S. marines would take up positions at Beirut's international airport, probably beginning Wednesday. Israeli military spokesmen said Sunday that the army would offi-cially complete its withdrawal from the western sector by Wednesday and from "all of Beirut," including the Christian eastern sector, by the end of the Italy's ambassador, Franco Lucioli Ottieri, said that the French and Italians had decided to go ahead with the deployment of their forces at the urging of Lebanon's new president, Amin Gemayel, who was anxious for a demonstration of the peacekeeping force's presence in the camps.

The ambassador said that the decision was made "on the spot" Monday morning after a meeting of the three Western ambassadors and representatives of the Lebanese Army under the chairmanship of President Gemayel.

A French Army spokesmen said. that two companies of paratroopers, or roughly 240 men, established themselves inside the camps early Monday afternoon and that the rest of the French contingent would deploy there on Tuesday. Another 100 to 200 Italian parathe camp Monday.

Meanwhile, the fate of residents in the camps appeared to be in question as local press reports said that the Lebanese government hoped to reduce the number of Palestinian civilians in Lebanon from its present estimated 500,000 to as few as 50,000.

The first meeting of the Leba Israel's commander in Lebanor says he had no "specific informa-tion" on a massacre. Page 2.

nese government-appointed committee looking into the massacres was held Monday. The army pro-secutor, Assad Jamanos, appealed to the Lebanese and international relief workers to provide evidence. He said that he would begin taking witnesses' testimony Tuesday.

The government investigation was ordered by President Gemayel, who has promised a thorough inquiry into the massacres despite the almost certain involvement of members of militiamen belonging to his own Christian forces. ■ 1,200 U.S. Marines Due

The State Department said. Monday that 1,200 U.S. marines would be deployed at Beirut airport as part of the peacekeeping force, Reuters reported from Washington. A spokesman said that he expected the marines to take up their positions Wednesday. Late last week, the Pentagon said that it expected only about 800 marines to go into Beirut, but the State Department spokesman, Alan Romberg, said Monday that 400 more would be landed because of the size of the airport area the U.S. force is to guard.

"I would not attach any huge significance" to the increase in the size of the force, he added. He said the United States did not expect an Israeli presence "of any signifi-cance" to remain anywhere in Beirut as the U.S. force moved in. ■ Yom Kippur Observed

Israel observed Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, on Monday. Reuters reported from Tel Aviv. Radios and television sets were silenced until sundown, and newspapers did not appear.

Hehmit Kohl, leader of the West German Christian Democrat-155 MESSAGE Union, inviting Alfred Dregger, the party's national vice west German Christian Democrat-(Continued on Page 2, Col. 1) Frankfurt Share Prices Plummet;

Mark Plunges to a 13-Month Low

By John Tagliabue New York Times Service

BONN - Prices on the Frankfurt stock exchange took what tankers said was the sharpest turnble on record and the Deutsche mark plummeted to a 13-month ow against the dollar after the section in Hesse state Sunday owed political uncertainty.
Only 10 days ago Frankfurt re-orded one of the strongest stock market rallies in recent years, fol-owing news of the collapse of the locial Democratic-led coalition hat had held power for 13 years. That surge reflected hopes by avestors that a new conservative overnment would effect meaures, such as support for Bonn's rain, tax relief for industry and ats in social welfare programs, can would offer some respite from

AC COURTIV'S recession. Frankfurt-based bank officials s stock market market the electoral defeat in Hesse of the luristian Democrats and the February state of the luristian Democrats the state of the luristian Democrats and the February state of the luristian Democrats and the February state of the luristian Democrats and the February state of the luristic sta form a new government in form, was a harbinger of further collitical uncertainty that might de-

A Highlighting those fears, bank
despite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York, gold for dedespite intervention by the Bunchange in New York of the Indian intervention by the Bunchange in New York of the Indian intervention by the Bunchange in New York of the Indian intervention by the Bunchange in New York of the Indian intervention by the Bunchange in New York of the Indian intervention intervention by the Bunchange in New York of the Indian intervention y an upswing.

utility shares. The shares prices of vention in nearly a year, to support Hochtief, a large construction the mark. company, and Rheinelektra, a major utility, dropped about 20 Deutsche marks ($7.90) each. Shares of Philipp Holzmann, another construction company, and the bond market. Heidelberger Zement, a building materials supplier, dropped 12

Wen and French Franc Fall The dollar also surged as

The Commerzbank share index sank 25.2 points to 684.9, a drop described by the bank's analysts as the sharpest since World War II.

"Total insecurity reigns," an of-ficial at a major commercial bank observed. He said the uncertainty was fed by what investors interpreted as a strengthening of the Social Democratic Party's left wing in Sunday's elections. The party's left wing favors socialist economic policies, including government control of in-dustrial investment. That insecuriry, he said, was further nurtured by the strong performance of the Greens, a party of ecologists and pacifists that favors a no-growth economic policy.

In heavy trading on Frankfurt's currency exchange the value of the dollar. dollar climbed to 2.5320 marks, its highest level since August 1981. from 2.5145 Friday. The rise came

The Bundesbank also intervened to support bond prices, purchasing paper totaling about 137 million DM, to ease similar pressure on

The dollar also surged against other major currencies, setting highs against the yen and the French franc, Reuters reported.

In Tokyo, the dollar rose to its highest level in more than five years, closing at 268.40 yen, up from 266.15 in New York late Friday. Traders ascribed the dollar's strength partly to lingering jitters from Friday's report by Dai-Ichi Kangyo Bank, Japan's largest commercial bank, that it had lost about $37 million in foreign exchange trading conducted without permission by an employee in Sin-gapore. Another factor was the approach of Japan's Sept. 30 settlement date.

In Paris, the dollar surged to a record 7.1775 francs, compared with about 7,10 Friday. Dealers cited the general strong demand

Partly reflecting the strength of the dollar, gold prices continued to slump. On the Commodity Ex-

VISITOR — Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher of Britain acknowledged well-wishers Monday following consulta-tions with Hong Kong's political leaders. Story, Page 4.

Moscow Has Arrested 4 Scientists As Spies for CIA, Paper Discloses

By Dusko Doder

Washington Past Service MOSCOW — Four Soviet scientists have been arrested on charges of having spied for the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, the newspaper Moskovskaya Pravda disclosed Monday.

The disclosure came in a long attack on alleged U.S. intelligencegathering activities in the Soviet Union that the paper said focused on military-related technology and especially on the quality, quantity and deployment of the Soviet strategic nuclear forces.

The article, reflecting the current state of Soviet-American relations, appeared designed to discourage Soviet citizens from mingling with Americans. It sin-gled out Soviet scientists and experts, who were warned that the CIA was using visiting American scholars and experts to collect information in the Soviet Union. The paper did not reveal when the four alleged spies were arrest-ed. They were identified only as Aganyants and Kazachkov, both formerly employed at unnamed research institutes, an economic specialist by the name of Bumeister, and a physicist and engineer called A man whose name is B. Nilov was recently convicted on espionage charges and was said to have been recruited by the CIA while he worked in Algeria in 1974. The sentence was not Mr. Aganyants was said to have been seized by Soviet security agents in Moscow while attempting to hand "secret materials" from his institute to an unnamed diplomat. The phrasing suggested that he may have been employed at a secret research institute outside the capital.

Earlier this year, the Russians reported they had captured another CIA agent in Moscow along with "espionage assignments, codes and instructions on the maintenance of secret communication equipment." He was identified as Y.A. Kapustin. Mr. Kapustin, whose profession was not given, was said to have maintained contacts with "CIA representatives who operate under the guise of staff members of the U.S. Embassy in Moscow."

Clandestine Operations

Monday's article also cata-logued a long list of U.S. diplo-mats and military attachés who were allegedly caught in their clanquently expelled from the Soviet

The Moskovskaya Pravda article appeared to be a part of of cam-paign to tighten internal discipline. It coupled what it described as the U.S. "psychological warfare" conducted via Western radio stations with alleged intensified CIA attempts to recruit spies among what were called "gullible" or "unbalThe paper said that the situation in Poland illustrated the CIA's recruitment policy. Following the introduction of martial law, it said, it has become known that Western attempts to recruit Polish citizens during 1980 nearly doubled in comparison with the previous year. ■ Sheharansky Begins Fast

Anatoli Shcharansky's mother said Monday that the imprisoned Jewish activist had begun a hunger strike to protest his lack of communication with the outside world, United Press International reported from Moscow. "A long fast means inevitable death," said Ida Milgrom, whose son was sentenced in 1978 to three years and prison and 10 years in a labor camp on charges of spying for the United States. The prison term was extended three years. "I don't think he will survive," she told Western correspondents, saying he had been weakened by months on a starvation diet in punishment cells. She said she had not seen him since Jan. 4 and no letters had arrived since Decem-Mrs. Milgrom declined to say how word reached her of her son's protest action, which began Sunday night, the eve of the Jewish fast of Yom Kippur.

"It's a lie that Anatoli would not write," she said, suggesting that his letters are being confiscated be-cause they describe the harsh conditions of his imprisonment.

INSIDE

Britain's Labor Party approved, after a turnultuous debate in Blackpool, a measure designed to purge key mem-bers of its extreme left wing in the hope of improving its chances to win the next general elections.

Page 4.

■ Chinese-Soviet relations, said Prime Minister Zhao Ziyang, may improve, but he added that Moscow is the main threat to peace and improved ties are far off. Page 5.

The highly sophisticated, multimillion-dollar satellites launched by the Pentagon to gather weather data critical for U.S. military and intelligence operations have been virtually inoperable for at least the last 17 months, U.S. military and civilian officials say. Page 4.

New York City Rediscovers Melting Pot Role

Old Dream Attracts New Wave of Immigrants From Asia and Americas

By Dena Kleiman

New York Times Service NEW YORK - More so today than at any time since the early part of this century, when boat-loads of Irish, Italians and East Europeans spilled onto the city's shores, New York is a city of im-nigrants.

Deginning 17 years ago with a cosening in the federal immigration law, the latest surge of foreigners from virtually every nation since the last great wave of immi-gration ended in the 1920s, federal ingness to struggle.

immigration records show.

More than one million immi-

Naturalization Service, there are long lost — that despite the fiscal more than 650,000 immigrants here legally, and the city estimates there are 750,000 others here illegally.

The heaviest influxes are from Central and South America, the Caribbean, Italy, the Soviet Union, India, China and Korea, a complex mix that includes wealthy newcomers whose high visibility often obscures the traditional immigrant force, those who come here with only a dream and a will-city's ethnic texture, revitalizing many of its neighborhoods and reaffirming something about the city many may have thought was crisis, crime statistics and other drawbacks, the rags-to-riches promise of New York that attracted generations of immigrants is still very much alive.

"The word has leaked out," said Frank Vardy, who analyzes immigration for the city's Planning Commission. "You can make a living in this city, and you might even

All over New York, immigrants ngness to struggle. are making their mark. And This new surge is altering the nowhere is this presence more apparent than in the new ethnic outposts that have sprouted in recent years, taking over where Little Ita-ly, Chinatown, the Lower East ing grounds of the past left off.

Of these, perhaps none is more an epitome of the whole city's new ethnic landscape than Einhurst, Queens. It is the city's most ethni-cally diverse neighborhood, a true melting pot where 20,000 immigrants from more than 110 countries live in the shadow of the elevated Flushing subway line, and where every day a trip to the cleaners, a stop at the post office or a wait for the bus becomes an important step in that complicated osmosis involved in becoming an

Side and other immigrant nurtur-

Elmhurst is the kind of place where the local grocer is Korean, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

cy or t t

Hans-Dietrich Genscher, second from right, leader of the Free Democrats, discussing the outcome of the Hesse election Monday in Bonn with party officals Günter Verhengen, left, secretary-general; Gerhart Baum, right; and Horst-Jürgen Lahmann, Free Democratic leader in Bremen.

Petra Kelly, left, the chairwoman of the Greens, at a news conference Monday in Bonn after the environmental party won nine seats and 8 percent of the vote in elections in the state of Hesse.

West Germans Are at Crossroads

(Continued from Page 1)

haps diminished, but face-saving, place in a Kohl government.

But the emergence of the Greens, who have grown out of the so-called peace movement, ecologi-cal campaigns and local catizen-initiative groups, has added a new building block to the coalition possibilities in West Germany.

The Greens' professed disdain have persuaded many Germans that they are not fit parmers for anything. But Willy Brandt, the Social Democratic Party leader, be and in clear to remain point an indiscape after Hesse is suddenly unfamiliar and uncharted.

Even if he is chosen chancellor on Friday, Mr. Kohl's promised their countercultural lifestyles has made it clear he envisions possible understandings with Greens.

With parliamentary elections on

West German Industry Seems Certain To Defy U.S. Ban on Pipeline Parts

BONN - West German industry plans to defy a U.S. ban this week and ship compressor stations for the Siberian natural gas pipe-line. West German officials and Western diplomats said Monday.

1e

her i

nne c ed Es

meit rahi rah rei v p

y 7 ad in ives a set in ives a set in in its and it

07 Rispersion of the special strains of the spec

oni the and es.

The diplomats said Washington would immediately invoke sanctions against the turbine makers AEG-Kanis, a subsidiary of the troubled AEG electrical group, in line with steps taken earlier against French, British and Italian firms.

They said the sanctions would probably involve a temporary or-der that would ban AEG-Kanis from access to U.S. gas technolo-

A spokesman for a publicly owned warehouse company in the North Sea port of Bremen said that two companies, AEG-Kanis

Hungarian Chief in Lisbon The Associated Press

LISBON - President Pal Losonczi of Hungary began a three-day state visit Monday to Portugal, the first by a Hungarian head and Mannesmann Anlagenbau, were due to ship the compressor stations to the Soviet Union from Bremen early Wednesday.

Abroad office.

An AEG spokeswoman said she could not confirm or deny the shipment, but reaffirmed her company's intention to deliver turbines for the pipeline. No comment was available from Mannesmann Anlagenbau, general contractors on the pipeline. The firm has said it is not subject to the U.S. ban.

■ Mitterrand Attacks U.S. Policy President Francis Mitterrand of France on Monday called efforts by the Reagan administration to stop European countries from participating in the Soviet gas pipeline project "unacceptable interference," Reuters reported from Par-

Mr. Mitterrand, speaking in the southern town of Figeac, also called on Western Europe to take a tougher line against U.S. economic penetration and to reject efforts by Washington to dictate trade poli-

The president's remarks were among his sharpest on record on relations between the European Community and the United States, their demands - not to mention 6 if he becomes chancellor - the mediate elections as suggested by

Bonn Parties

(Continued from Page 1)

"I am convinced it won't." Mr. Genscher, interviewed on television, said he still believed that a clear majority of Free Democratic deputies would endorse a center-right coalition in a secret wise, he said: "I assume we will get a sufficient majority for our pro-posal, so the question is hypothetithat Mr. Schmidt, who gathered an might make new moves to forestall a center-right pact. One report said the chancellor might ask the Bundestag for a vote of confidence this week. Another said he would present a new 13point policy program to the house.

The chancellor dodged ques-

"I came to New York so that I could learn English," said Jumoke Rhodes, a Nigerian whose native language is Yoruba and who comtions on his intentions, saying: "If plains that neither she nor her two I planned to take initiatives, I children can find anyone in would not leak them in advance on Elmhurst to speak English with. "Here is an English-speaking country. What I got in my life is something else. I don't know

RAWLESS MAIL OPDER DEPARTMENT FREE SAMPLES

operations until Saturday morn-

By Thomas L. Friedman New York Times Service

BEIRUT — The senior Israeli commander in Lebanon, Major General Amir Droni, says that he had no "specific information" that a massacre was taking place in the Chatila Palestinian refugee camp in West Beirut until Saturday morning, Sept. 18, after it was all

More than 300 Palestinian civilians from Chatila and the nearby Sabra camp were murdered, mostly in Chatila, by Lebanese Christian Phalangist forces who were sent in with General Drori's approval on Thursday, Sept. 16, and withdrawn on the morning of Sept.

In an interview on Sunday, General Drori said that he and his divisional commander for West Beirut, Brigadier General Amos Yaron, had an "uncomfortable feeling" that the Phalangists were doing something wrong on Friday morning, Sept. 17.

But he said that after he and the Israeli chief of staff, Lieutenant General Rafael Eitan, met with the Phalangists at 4:30 that afternoon, they were allowed to continue their

Asked to comment on a report by the Jerusalem Post military correspondent, Hirsh Goodman, that he had seen a cable sent at 11 P.M. Thursday by the head of the Phalangist units in Chatila to the Israeli command in East Beirut saying, "To this time we have killed 300 civilians and terrorists," General Drori said it was "an item that was being checked."

'Uncomfortable' Feelings He said neither he nor General Yaron knew of any such cable as of 11 A.M. on Friday, when he said they began to have "uncom-fortable" feelings about what was General Drori said that the Israeli command had been counting on President-elect Bashir Gemayel, once he assumed office, to use the Lebanese Army to clear out what the Israelis believed were 2,000 Palestine Liberation Organization querrillas left behind in West Beirut. When Mr. Gemayel was assassinated on Sept. 14, it was decided immediately that the Israeli Army should do the job itself, the

"After Bashir's assassination, there was a great doubt that any-one would do the job, since we knew the orientation of the army and the political people who prevented the army from going in. he

General Dron declined to respond to some questions in advance of an Israeli government in-

Also, he did not discuss his earlier meeting, on Thursday, with the Phalangist general staff, when he gave the go-ahead for the militiamen to enter the camps.

The Phalangists say that they ordered 1,500 men to the Berrut airport, and Lebanese Army soldiers say the militia force was composed largely of men coming from Damour, Saadiyat and Naameh -Christian villages that had been sacked by Palestinian forces during the Lebanese civil war.

Army's Reputation

Since Wednesday afternoon the Israelis had been asking the Lebanese Army to go into the camps, but it had refused under orders of Prime Minister Shafiq al-Wazzan, who feared the army's reputation would be tarnished by becoming li-inspired operation.

General Drori said that the sea-ior Lebanese Army officer he spoke with on Friday afternoon and urged to convince his superiors to move into Sabra and Chatila went to see Morris Draper, the U.S. senior diplomat in the region.

"He went to speak to Draper, said General Drori, "and all we know is that after speaking to him we got a final answer between 7 P.M. and 7:30 P.M. that the Lebanese Army would not be going in." General Dron said that it was not until 9:30 P.M. on Saturday that the Lebanese Army told him it would take over the camps Sunday morning, which it did. In the course of the interview, General Drori explained why the Israeli Army decided to enter West Beirut an hour after Mr. Gemayel's assassination was confirmed. The Israeli decision was reportedly made in a telephone conversation between Defense Minister Ariel Sharon and Prime Minister Menachem Begin

The decision, he said, must be seen in the context of Israeli Army intelligence reports that 2,000 PLO guerrillas in plain clothes were still involved in any way with an Israe hiding in West Bearnt and, as the Israelis found later, that guernilas had left behind arms and radio

"Everything was ready for their return," General Dron stid. The chair for the PLO was still there. All they had to do was come back and sit in it." Asked if the Israelis ever did find 2,000 PLO guerrillas in West Beirut, General Drori said it was impossible to say, since many of them melted into the local popula-tion or hid in the camps where the Israelis have not entered. He said. however, that the Lebanese Army has arrested "hundreds of men who should not be here."

Asked how the Israeli Army could set loose on a Palestinian refugee camp a Christian militia with a well-documented history of atrocities against Palestinian civilians, General Drori said, "This is one of the questions they will be checking on in the inquiry.

The general said the Israeli Army had cooperated with the Phalangists before, in other opera-tions in civilian areas south of Beirut, and had encountered nothing like this.

For Lebanese, Civil Strife and Invasions Are Nothing New who was assassinated nine days olic. Most of its Moslem members

BEIRUT — The explosion at the Phalangist Party headquarters that President-elect Bashir Gemayel and the massacre of hundreds of Palestinian and Lebanese civilians at the Sabra and Chatila camps are part of the long history of violence in this country.

Perhaps because of the nature of the Lebanese population, split be-tween Moslems and Christians, blood fends in this country are enduring and the occasional periods of truce are uneasy.

In 1860 Maronite Christians and Druze fought pitched battles in the Chouf mountains southeast of here, prompting intervention in Lebanon by France and other Western powers. Maronite Christians follow the Eastern rite but acknowledge the supremacy of the pope. The Druze faith is an amalgam of Christian and Moslem be-

In 1976, the Socialist and Druze leader, Kamal Jumblat, adamantly refused a request from Syria's president, Hafez al-Assad, that he order his leftist and Moslem forces out of the hills east of Beirut because they were threatening the Lebanese Christian heartland.

Death of Jumblat

When Mr. Assad asked Mr. Jumblat why he would not, Mr. Jumblat reportedly answered: They did it to us in 1860 and we want to do it to them now." The incident was reported by President Assad in a speech in July 1976, six weeks after he had ordered Syrian troops and tanks into Lebanon to help the Christians.
Mr. Jumblat was assassinated by unknown gunmen in March 1977. As soon as news of his murder spread, his Druze followers were out on the streets with guns, seeking vengeance. Dozens of Christians were said to have been gunned down. week, in his inaugural speech before parliament, Lebanon's president, Amin Gemayel, declared that his immediate priority was to end what he described as ry foreign embassy in Beirut.

the butcher comes from Argentina and the baker is Colombian, where it is harder to find a decent hamburger than Pakistani lemon pick-fashion is saris, and others where it is mandarin collars, and still others with garments that look plucked

Modest Row Houses

community of modest row houses and low-rise apartment buildings that has been transformed over the haven to an international metropo-

Indian, Greek, Korean, Thai,

Chinese, Argentine, Colombian,

Italian, Ecuadoran restaurants dot

the commercial terrain. An Indian ashram sits across from the local high school. The Dutch Reformed

Church now conducts services in

It is a place, in fact, where the pale-skinned look out of place and unaccented English sounds odd.

lis in miniature.

past decade from a working-class

Ethnic surprises abound in this from the streets of Guatemala.

There are blocks where the

"the victous circle of violence" in the country.

As he spoke, Lebanon's military prosecutor went to the Palestinian camps of Sabra and Chatila to begin an investigation into the mas-

Israeli-backed rightist Christian militias have been blamed for the massacre. According to the Israelis, the militiamen are members of the Phalangist-led Lebanese The Lebanese Forces had been organized and headed by Bashir Gemayel, Amin's younger brother, before he was to take over as president of Lebanon.

The massacre of the Palestinians was seen here as a retaliation for the shedding of Bashir's Gemayel blood, although there was no evidence to link the Palestinians to the powerful blast that destroyed the Phalangist Party headquarters and killed Mr. Gemayel and 21 party and militia officials.

The Phalange organization was founded by Pierre Gemayel in 1936. It is overwhelmingly Christian — Maronite and Greek Cath-are Shiite.

Bashir Gemayel's assassination immediately turned attention to his rivals in his own Christian Maronite community.
In addition to the Christian infighting, Moslem and leftist militiamen as well as Palestinian guerrillas have fought each other in the mainly Moslem sections of the country.

In February 1976, a force of Palestinians and leftist Moslems destroyed the Christian town of Damour, five miles south of veal trends and directions.

"We have no political ideology," says Mr. Mishlawi, who formerly worked for newspapers in Libya, Cyprus and Bearut. "You can't read any one issue and say we favor the left or the right - we report the events, and the events

hemselves force you to be objec-lawi, 44, the editors and owners, start each workday at 5:30 A.M., poring over a dozen newspapers that represent almost every ideology from communist to rightist

Christian. By 6 A.M. they are re-

Mr. Hijazi, 54, and Mr. Mish-inhabitants. A. Christian militia force drawn from former residents of Damour was formed as part of the Lebanese Forces of the Phalan-

A major event in the circle of violence occurred on April 13, 1975, when a busload of Palestinians was ambushed in a Benut Christian quarter. Twenty-nine unarmed passengers on the bis were killed. The PLO and Moslem leaders immediately accused the Phalange Party. That incident triggered the Lebanese civil war.

Newsletter Indispensable to Mideast Watchers looks for common threads that re-

By David Lamb Los Angeles Times Service

BEIRUT - On the morning Israeli forces invaded West Beirut, Ihsan Hijazi and Tewfic Mishlawi tried to get to their second-floor office near the so-called Green Line that divides this capital, but they were turned back by heavy fighting.

Mr. Hijazi went home and Mr. Mishlawi wandered into the Commodore Hotel, where an American reporter asked him, "Where's the MER?" Mr. Mishlawi nodded toward the thunder of Israeli tank fire two blocks away and replied, 'Are you joking? We couldn't even get to the office."

Thus, for the first time in five years and five months, the Middle East Reporter, the region's most influential English-language publi-cation, failed to publish. For many journalists and diplomats, that was akin to losing their eyes and ears on the Arab world.

The Middle East Reporter is a daily newsletter with clout far exceeding its daily circulation of 1,500. Its subscribers include memthe Library of Congress, the Brookings Institution, the United Nations, the Arab League and eve-

Rather than originating news, the Reporter publishes what vari-ous nations and factions are saying in their own newspapers and on their radio broadcasts and then

Israelis Loot Beirut Homes

(Continued from Page 1) looted, and damage was limited to windows broken in earlier bomb-

At the beginning of the war, Is-raeli authorities said their soldiers would be prosecuted if they brought stolen goods into Israel. Although there has been no official word of any prosecutions, there has been much evidence of looting.
Witnesses have reported that Israeli soldiers cleaned ont electrical appliance and television shops. Salim Salaam, the director of Middle East Airlines, said that even the airport's computer reservation system was stolen.

Embassies were also affected. Israch troops occupied almost every Arab embassy in Beirut, and several reported that confidential files were taken away.

cording state-run newscasts transmitted by shortwave from Syria, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Israel and other Middle East countries. From this babble of voices and self-serving newspaper stories, the Reporter, the only publication of its type in the Middle East, manages to piece together a picture of what governments are thinking Some diplomats from small nations are known to base their reports back to their governments exclusively on what they read in the Reporter. And many Western reporters in Benut have sought out Mr. Hijazi and Mr. Mishlawi during the war to ask for interpretation and information before wit-ing their own articles.

Mr. Mishlawi said that the Middie East Reporter could not oper-ate as it does in any other Arab capital, because Beirut is the only one where there is no censorship. Beirut is also ideally suited to monitor radio broadcasts from every Middle East capital, and the wide range of political allegiances represented here offers a unique insight into the divisions of the Middle East.

Mr. Mishlawi and Mr. Hijazi, who also works part-time for The New York Times, began the newsletter in 1977. Within three months the publication was making a profit. The five day-a-week newsletter costs $600 a year, and the Saturday week-in-review edition costs $700 annually.

Fa

WORLD BRIEFS

Senate Passes Military Funding Bill

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Senate passed a $7.1-billion money bill Monday to pay for military construction and maintenance projects in the fiscal year starting Oct. 1.

The bill, which funds about 1,500 projects in all 50 states and two dozen foreign countries, was sent to a congressional conference for a compromise measure to be worked out with the $7:1-billion version of the bill approved earlier by the House.

Among the many differences to be resolved is whether to spend $178.6 million to build standby facilities at Ras Banas, Egypt, on the Red Sea. for use by the U.S. Rapid Deployment Force in the event of a military crisis in the oil-rich Gulf and Indian Ocean region. Only two members were on the floor during the 15-minute consideration of the bill, and they provided the voice vote approval.

Iran Rejects Compromise With Iraq

LONDON — Iran rejected all compromise solutions for an end to the Gulf war Monday amid reports of a flare-up in fighting along its bouler The Iranian national news agency, IRNA, said Tehran would "never yield to an imposed peace" but would stick by its four-fold demand for in end to the two-year-old conflict... This included the withdrawal of Iraqi troops from Iranian territory, the identification and punishment of the aggressor, the payment of war reparations and the return of exiled Iraqis to their homeland. The condi-tions were restated in a commentary issued to coincided with ceremonies. marking the second anniversary of the war.

González Wants Talks on U.S. Bases

MADRID - Felipe González, the leader of the Spanish Socialist Workers Party, said Monday that the Socialists would seek a new accord on U.S. military bases in Spain if, as widely expected, they win next month's general elections. Mr. González, speaking to the Foreign Press Club in Madrid, said the Socialists would not be interested in the continued presence of U.S. troops in Spain if Washington were not prepared to reopen negotiations. The Socialist leader said that the latest five-year defense pact with the United States would have to be renegotiated because it was structure on the assumption of Spain's integration in the North Atlantic Treaty; Organization. Spain became the 16th member of NATO last May, but the Socialists have promised to put the issue to a national referendant:

Guerrillas Say Moroccan Jet Downed

ALGIERS — The Polisario guerrillas fighting Morocco for control of the Western Sahara claimed Monday to have shot down a Moroccan jet fighter near Houza in the northeast section of the territory.

The Polisario announcement, released in Algiers, said the plane was a French-built Mirage F-1 and that it had been brought down by antiaircraft fire. The pilot, identified as Lieutenant Mohammed Hadri, had been captured, the guerrillas said. No other details were released.

It was the first time the Polisario had claimed a victory over the Moroccan Air Force since the guerrillas announced a year ago that they had downed five planes around the Moroccan desert garrison of Guelta

U.S. and Angola Begin New Talks

LISBON - Angolan and U.S. officials opened a new round of talks Monday on a peace settlement for South-West Africa (Namibia), the official Angolan press agency ANGOP reported.

Frank Wisner, deputy assistant secretary of state for African affairs, is head of the U.S. negotiating team, and Foreign Minister Paulo Jorge leads the Angolan delegation, the agency said in a dispatch from the Angolan capital, Luanda. The continued presence of Cuban forces from Angola is the key problem holding up an agreement on the territory's independence from South

Compiled From Agency Dispatches

AMERICAN CITIZENS Have You Registered To Vote? Overseas votes in the Congressional elections can make the 4 or 5% difference in your home state. Help elect your candidates. Contact your nearest American Consul or Republicans

REPUBLICANS ABROAD:

Brussels Paris Frankfurt Athens Rome The Hague Hinna, Nerway Malaga	- Lynn Lipman - Judith Biogham - Gil Bray - Katey Angelis - Nichelas di Russo - Roger Dickenson - Miles Lovelace - Howard Streuth - Jani Melson	— 731-6302 — 267-3114 — 6113-66378 — 681-5747 — 376-6182 — 60-49-88 — 53-12-83 — 81-13-86 — 628-8181
London	— Joni Melson James Soos	628-0101 98-74-61

for parliamentary government and the horizon - Mr. Kohl is comtheir resort to the street to press mitted to holding a vote on March West German political landscape on Friday, Mr. Kohl's promised "new beginning" in West Germa-ny will take place as his junior coalition partner fights for its very existence. And if the Christian Democrat's bid for the chancellorship fails through defections from the demoralized Free Democrats, im-

Mr. Schmidt look likely. With the Greens lurking in the hills of this menacing landscape, there is little wonder that many Germans are edgy in the aftermath would remain split as long as Mr. Genscher was party leader.

Hold Talks

Asked if she expected the Bundestag to remove Mr. Schmidt, she told the Nürnberger Nachrichten:

vote Tuesday. Asked if he would resign other-

Speculation mounted in Bonn enormous sympathy vote for the Social Democratic Party in Hesse,

The C@shmere House foremost specialist

> New Collection Ladies-Men Exclusive Unusual Shades

Alexandre Savin - made in Scotland 2, rue d'Aguesseau (angle 60, Fg St-Honoré), Paris 8°. Open from 9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

New York Rediscovers Role as Melting Pot this foreign population has brought to the city as a whole.

> spoken by pupils in the local pub-lic school. Citywide, the Board of Education has hired 2,500 teachers at a yearly cost of $27 million to with youngsters unable to speak English. There are sweatshops in Elmhurst where workers are paid > by the piece and below the minimum wage. There are places, too, where forged Social Security cards are reported to go for $180.

>
> The city is changing, there's no question about that," said Charles B. Keely, a senior associate at the Population Council, which studies international population move-ment and trends. "Not since the so many foreigners here, and they are as diverse a group as ever." "It's amazing," said Detective Jerry Campbell of the 110th Precinct, which includes Elmhurst. "Anything God put on this earth, we've got at least two of them here in this precinct." No one quite knows why so many different foreigners flock to Elmhurst, which is about an 18-minute subway ride from Times Square. Housing is cheaper than in Manhattan, but no more so than in many other neighborhoods. There is nothing about the community's layout or services that would naturally attract the foreign-born. Still immigrants arrive every day, having been given the green light by relatives and friends or friends of friends, often oblivious to how international a center it re-

CASHMERE only available from us

Double-thread Cashmere

10 Sizes including Extra-Large

"Please, change, quarters," Lev Mines said in uncertain English the other day, handing over a dol-There are 34 different languages lar bill to a woman in a coffee shop in Elmhurst.

"Not enough," Maria Fernanda replied with equal linguistic difficulty, attempting to explain she had only dimes.

Reaching Out

There the two of them were. He, who moved to this country two years ago from Leningrad, and she, who arrived here two years ago from Colombia, reaching out to one another in a foreign tongue, ultimately arriving at some under-standing with neither quite aware

Elmhurst sits in the heart of the borough of Queens, adjoining such other increasingly immigrant com-munities as Rego Park, Jackson Heights, Corona and Woodside. turn of the century have there been Walk down Broadway, the area's principal commercial strip, and it resembles the main street of a small town. Look again, and the serpentine stretch that runs from osevelt Avenue, which separates Elmhurst from Jackson Heights, to Queens Boulevard is an exotic thoroughfare. "This place sure has changed," said the Rev. David Boyce, looking out at the huge electric rice cookers that now sit on the kitchen counter at the Dutch Reformed Church, whose congregation is predominantly Oriental Now, in-stead of coffee Sunday afternoons, the church serves oolong.

Few foreigners find life easy here. Elmhurst is a place where families are often crowded five to a room and work as many as 14 hours a day, seven days a week. Many hold two or three jobs. It is a place of extremes: A Yuwho cleans office buildings at night in Manhattan, saved up $90,000 to buy a new home, but a young Colombian busboy who came to the United States last year to seek his fortune paces the floor at night, torn between subsisting here or swallowing his pride and going home.

eoslav handyman and his wife,

Charming Garden Hotel Superb cuising

Lavenne de Cour - 1007 Lausann

Tel.: 021/263235. Telex 24 800.

HOTEL CARLTON

Lousanne - Switzerland*

Africa.

The Debate Goes On: Do U.S. Social Programs Really Help the Poor?

By Herbert H. Denton

Washington For Service

WASHINGTON — As Ronald Reagan prepared to run-for president four years ago, his chief domestic advisor stirred public controversy with the flat assertion that economic growth and the "explosive increase" in government social spending over the previous decade had "virtually eliminated poverty in the United States."

"The War on Poverty that began in 1964 has then won," Martin Anderson, who later became
Mr. Reagan's first White House assistant for poli-

Mr. Resgan's first White House assistant for poli-cy development, declared in 1978, responding to sperals seeking more federal dollars to combat what they argued were persisting problems of overty. This fall, as Mr. Reagan finds himself sharply criticized for being uncaring and unfair in his deep cuts in federal social programs, the presi-dent's counterattack is that government programs the special behavior of the last generation not only failed to reduce poverty but also brought to a "tragic bait" the economic progress the poor were making before president Johnson's "Great Society" programs.

Mr. Reagan's new thesis was expressed in detail in a speech this month to the National Black

Mr. Reagan's thesis.

Mr. Reagan's thesis.

Republican Council and repeated last week in re-marks to black college presidents. He contends that the "binge" in social spending, by "eating away at the underpinnings of the free enterprise system," was responsible for double-digit infla-

NEWS ANALYSIS tion and high unemployment that had the ironic result of locking the poor in poverty.

Few would argue with Mr. Reagan's contention that a healthy economy helps the poor more than social programs do. But whether the programs were failures or the sole cause for serious economic trouble, as he has suggested frequently, are issues about which disagreement has been

Mr. Reagan's thesis ignores any possible im-pact on the economy of the $141 billion spent for the Victnam War or skyrocketing oil prices over the last decade. A barrel of Saudi Arabian light crude, for example, cost $1.80 in 1970, $11.51 in 1976 and is $34 today.

"I don't think he was trying to give a complete economic discourse of the last generation," a White House aide retorted amid discussion of In attacking the Great Society before the black Republicans, Mr. Reagan cited only two pro-grams as examples of billions of dollars wasted. They were federal urban renewal and Model Cities, curious choices to defend his cuts since both have been dead at least eight years and urban renewal was created fully 15 years before the

The food stamp program has been one of Mr. Reagan's favorite targets because of its tremendous growth in cost. From about $33 million in when the pilot program served 633,000 persons in scattered communities, its cost grew to $65 billion by 1979 when, as a nationwide program, it served 19 million Americans.

Mr. Reagan never mentions, however, the conditions that led to such a huge national commit-

Who remembers, for example, the nation's shock at the finding of physicians sent by the Field Foundation to investigate hunger in Ameri-ia? In 1967, they testified in Congress:

"Wherever we went and wherever we looked, we saw children in significant numbers who were hungry and sick, children for whom hunger is a daily fact of life, and sickness in many forms, an inevitability. The children we saw were more than just malnourished. They were hungry, weak, apa-

"Their lives are being shortened. They are visi-bly and predictably losing their health, their ener-gy, their spirits. They are suffering from hunger and disease, and directly or indirectly, they are dying from them — which is exactly what starva-

A decade later, another Field team retraced steps taken in 1967 and found "far fewer grossly malnourished people in this country," substan-tially fewer children with the "swollen stomache and the dull eyes and poorly healing wounds characteristic of malnutrition." Food stamps and other federal nutrition programs made the differ-

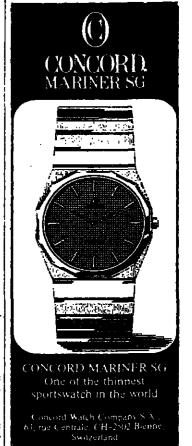

While some might disagree with Mr. Reagan's implicit argument that Washington should not have spent billions to solve social problems, his contention is accurate that the proportion of Americans with cash incomes below the poverty level dropped sharply just before the Great Society, tapered off during the Johnson administrayears before beginning to rise in the last couple of

The National Advisory Council on Economic Opportunity, in a report to Mr. Reagan last September, found dramatic differences, for example, in what happened to blacks in the North and South over the last generation.

"At the end of the 1950s, over two-thirds of the black population in the South was poor; by 1979, only one-third [was]," it reported, "But the rate of poverty among northern blacks, after nearly two decades of economic growth and civil rights legis-lation, has declined only marginally in 20 years. There are one million more blacks poor in the northern and western states today than in 1959."

Waste, sloth and outright thievery in government-funded programs have been demonstrated and, as Mr. Reagan suggests, many well-inten-tioned programs did not produce intended re-

But the murky picture of those efforts does not lead to Mr. Reagan's stark conclusion of failure, that the nation would have been better off if the War on Poverty had never been waged.

U.S. Blacks Expected To Gain in Congress

By Herbert H. Denton and Art Harris

Bernard Market Washington Pan Service
WASHINGTON — In Missistempor, the Democratic Party nominated a black state legislator as its mated a black state legislator as its candidate for Congress in a Delta district where nearly half the electronate is black.

In Alabama, Democrats are blacks to help defeat a

In Alabama Democrats are illooking to blacks to help defeat a first-term Republican congressment in the steel-making suburbs man in ma

In the Northeast and remaining the theory not too many months ago was that population loss and In the Northeast and Midwest, reapportionment would hart the blacks in Congress, perhaps foreing some to run against each other.

Now it seems likely that blacks will gain seats in the next Con-

Report will gam seats in the near carriers and gress, almost certainly one and perhaps three or four.

The black vote is one of the The black vote is one of the the arms, breat question marks in the Nov. 2 elections. It is not so much which Way blacks will vote — most are expected to vote Democratic — as how many will turn out to cast

25 11 Cas no. their ballots. The voting rate for blacks has fended to be about 10 percentage points lower than that of whites, according to the Joint Center for based research organization. But that rate is subject to wide fluctuations; it increases substantially when a black candidate is running or when there is a white candidate who is perceived to be anti-black. The question now is whether it is in a place opposition to President Mi Ronald Reagan will rub off on Republican candidates or lead blacks Republican strategists are hoping that Mr. Reagan's recent overmres to blacks will at least take some of the edge off the oppositurnout at its normal low level for off-year elections. Democrats beeve that heavy black turnouts candeliver large gains for their party.

London Plans Parade to Mark Falklands War

aus 22582 25 🚾 !

2 3 2 2 2 2 B

romise With

LONDON — The City of London Corp., which administers the financial district, plans a large military parade in honor of Britain's victory over Argen-tina in the Falkland Islands, Lord Mayor Sir Christopher Leaver announced Monday.

More than 1,250 of the 25,000 soldiers, sailors, airmen and civilians who took part in the 74-day campaign will pa-rade Oct. 12 through streets decorated with banners to celebrate the June 14 recapture of

The parade will be led by a navy detachment, including contingents from some of the six ships sunk off the Falklands

The navy will be followed by marine commandos and the army detachments from the two parachute battalions that fought the Argentines.

WALLY FINDLAY Galleries International

MICHÈLE

recent paintings

2, avenue matignon Tel. 225.70.74 non, thru, set. 10 a.m. - 7 p.m.

Wally Findlay George V Hotel George V - 723.54.00 From PICASSO to RENOIR

31, av. George V - Paris 8* daily - 10 a.m. - 9 p.m. iunday - 7 p.m. - 9 p.m.

AUTHORS WANTED

"What we would like is just no greater turnout," said one Republi-

Blacks comprise 20 percent or more of the population in 86 of the 435 U.S. House districts, according to an analysis by the joint center. More than two-thirds of those districts are in the South, where Democratic strategists hope there will be large enough turnouts to knock off several freshman Repub-

They include Albert Lee Smith Jr. of Alabama, Eugene Johnston of North Carolina, Thomas Hartnett and John L. Napier of South Carolina and Thomas J. Bliley Jr. of Virginia, who were elected on Mr. Reagan's coattails in 1980.

Emphasis on Unemployment Tacticians for two Democrats, former Governor Michael S. Dukakis of Massachuseus and Lieutenant Governor Mario M. Cuomo of New York, say they believe that their emphasis on jobs and unem-ployment and ability to tie their opponents to Mr. Reagan were responsible for the substantial black turnouts that were critical in their victories in gubernatorial primaries this year.

Two years ago blacks were in despair over their political clout. Although the rate of black turnout was slightly higher than normal and the ballots they cast were overwhelmingly for President Jim-my Carter, they had failed to make a difference in the general election. A half-dozen of the black incombents in the House also had to worry that their seats would be among the 17 in the Northeast and Midwest given to Sun Belt states in reapportionment after the 1980 up one new seat in Congress, the heavily black and Hispanic Brooklyn district formerly represented by Frederick W. Richmond, a Democrat who resigned from the House last month after pleading guilty to criminal charges.

But the incumbents, aided by blacks in the state legislatures, were able to make deals with Republicans and use the courts to challenge congressional redistricting plans that threatened them.

A strong race also is being mounted in Kansas City, Missouri, by Alan Wheat, a Democratic state representative.

In Mississippi, State Representative Robert Clark is the Democratic nominee in a newly carved Delta district where he must win a substantial number of white votes

The Republican National Committee has declared a goal of electing at least one black member to Congress this November and has contributed $28,000, the maximum permitted by law, to three candi-dates: Lucy Patterson, a three-term Dallas City Council member who is attempting to unseat Repre-sentative Martin Frost; Milton Street, a Pennsylvania state senator who is attempting to upset Representative William H. Gray in Philadelphia; and Shirley Gissen-danner, a bus driver competing for a new district in San Diego.

Historic N.Y. Newspaper Morgues To End Up as Landfill in Missouri The Associated Press

COLUMBIA, Missourá — About 60 million newspaper clippings from the New York World-Telegram and other defunct newspapers are heading to a landfill this week, to the dismay of the man who collected them.

The clippings are preserved in 256 file cabinets and 500 boxes in the University of Missouri's record center inside limestone caves in Kansas City, Missouri. School officials said they take up too much room and, at about $1,000 a month, cost too much to store. Earl F. English, dean emeritus of the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri, acquired the files when the World Journal Tribune folded in 1967.

That paper was formed in 1966 with the merger of the New York Herald Tribune, the World-Telegram & Sun and the Journal-American.

"I had visions of people coming here and using the materials for books and dissertations," said Mr. English, who retired in 1970. "The material will never be brought together again ... it's just But LeRoy Morrison, director of record management for the university, said: "You just can't keep everything. Sooner or later you'll throw something out that sometime down the road you'll wish you'd kept. That's just the way it goes." School officials have been unsuccessful in attempts to find a new home for the files. The cost of putting the files on microfilm is estimated at nearly $500,000.

One Killed in Blasts In Central Frankfurt

FRANKFURT - A time bomb, left in front of a Pan American World Airways office but moved by two passers-by who abandoned it and telephoned police, exploded early Monday at the Iranian airline office, police said.

The bomb was one of three that went off in central Frankfurt, killing one person, injuring another and causing damage estimated at 500,000 Deutsche marks ($200,000).

Police said that the targets were the Pan Am office and two West German tourist agencies.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the blasts, but police said they suspected that anti-Israeli "terrorist circles" were responsible. All three offices tar-

Israel, according to a police About 30 minutes after mid-night, two men saw a plastic bag containing a battery and an alarm clock hanging on the door of the Pan Am office near the main train station, the spokesman said. Suspecting it was a bomb, they placed it in a street cleaner's wheelbarrow they found nearby, intending to take it to the police, the spokesmen said But while pushing the wheelbarrow, they realized they were in danger themselves, and they left the plastic bag outside the Iranian airline office and telephoned po-lice, the spokesman said. While police were condoming off the area the bomb went off at 1.15 A.M., breaking windows 200 yards (180 meters) away.

At about the same time a more

Reagan to Meet the Press

WASHINGTON - President Ronald Reagan will hold a news conference Thesday evening at the White House, it was announced train station heavily damaged a tourist office and adjacent shops and demolished four parked cars, police said.

The heaviest explosion took place at 5.10 A.M. near the main station at the office of the Giessler tourist agency, killing a pedestrian and injuring another, police said. The reasons for the bombings were

Firebomb in Berlin

A firebomb attack blew out windows early Monday in a West Berlin office building housing the West German subsidiary of the U.S. computer firm Sperry, The Associated Press reported. No one was injured in the blast. The firm had already been the target of an group this mouth, police said.

U.S. Man Admits Manila Bomb Plot

MANILA — A former U.S. Army sergeant under investigation for links to an alleged terrorist bomb plot has admitted planting incendiary devices in four tourist hotels, the Manila police chief said

The man, Elvin Laurel, 36, is a Philippine-born American who suffered minor burns on his hands when a device police said he was trying to plant went off in his lap. The incident occurred Sept. 19 at a Manila hotel cocktail lounge.

Police sources have said that the night before Mr. Lamel was injured, incendiary devices were found in three other hotels, all located in suburban Makati. Asked if Mr. Laurel was linked to those incidents, the police chief, Briga-dier General Narciso Cabrera, said. "Definitely. He has confessed

Reagan Rolls Out the Pork Barrel

By David Hoffman

Washington Past Service
WASHINGTON — When they were slugging it out in the 1976 North Carolina Republican primary, Ronald Reagan ridiculed Presi-dent Gerald R. Ford for dipping into the White House pork barrel to distribute federal grants before the election. On the Saturday before the primary Mr. Reagan said: "If he comes here with the same list of goodies as he did in Florida, the and won't know whether to play 'Hail to the Chief' or 'Santa Claus Is Coming 10 Town.' Mr. Reagan's campaign aides joked about sending someone dressed as

Santa Claus to a Ford rally to mock the presidential largess. Now that he's in the Oval Office, Mr. Reagan is playing Santa

In an effort to help capture more congressional seats this fall, White House officials have asked for lists from federal agencies of all upcoming grants for such things as housing projects and bridges, so Mr. Reagan or Republican candidates can make the election-year announcements.

This is standard procedure for White House campaigning. But in Mr. Reagan's case it has a particular irony, because the administration has sought to convince Congress over the last 21 months that Washington should provide less, not more, in the way of federal aid and grants.

"You might say there is certain contradiction there," one adminis-tration official acknowledged. This is the season for such contradictions. Some have come in Congress, where the White House. to avoid offending interest groups, has switched or softened its stance on several bills it had previously tion party favor is still the federal grant. An example came on Sept. 17, when Mr. Reagan made a campaign appearance in behalf of Representative Millicent Ferwick, Republican of New Jersey, at the San Gennaro Italian-American festival in Flemington. 'A Little Annous Catching Mrs. Fenwick by surprise, Mr. Reagan departed from his prepared text. "Right now I'm going to make a little announcement here." he said. "In spite of all our cuttings, there are things that government has to do and should do. "I am pleased to announce that the Department of Housing and Urban Development has advised me that they have agreed to ap-prove Section 8 funding for 125 units of elderly housing at Park Place in Ewing New Jersey." Mrs. Fenwick jumped up out of her chair and embraced Mr. Reagan, who cracked: "If you don't elect her senator, we will take it away." What the president did not mention was that his administration, in the budget proposals it sent to Congress earlier this year, pro-posed eliminating much of the Section 8 program for housing con-struction program. The New Jersey project would come from funds that the administration spared from the budget knife, however. Reagan advisers said the New Jersey announcement will not be the last of this kind.

The White House pork barrel was the subject of a legal fight in 1980 between President Jimmy Carter and liberals backing his rival for the Democratic nomination. Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Democrat of Massachusetts. Mr. Kennedy's forces filed a law-Democrat of Massachusetts. suit challenging Mr. Carter's ground, among other things, that he was making overtly political use of federal funds.

However, the legal challenge was thrown out of court on pro-

ilias LALAoUNIS

PARIS - 364, RUE ST-HONORE (PLACE VENDOME) GENEVA - BON GÉNIE", ZURICH - "CRIEDER" NEW YORK - 4 WEST 57TH STREET & FIFTH AVENUE ATHENS - 6, PANEPISTIMIOU AVENUE HOTEL GRANDE BRETAGNE & ATHENS HILTON MYCONOS, CORFU, RHODES, TOKYO, HONG-KONG

Whotakes a major step forward in international banking on Friday?

Feast your eyes on Boston. convenience of location complete the From every one of our contemporary picture: the Hotel Sonesta, on the bank of the Charles River only fifteen minutes and distinctively appointed guest rooms, you'll enjoy a magnificent view of Boston's skyfine. While you're here, treat yourself from Logan International Airport. Courtesy to a Boston tradition—a superb dinner in transportation provided to major historic.

our Rib Room. Superior service and. educational and financial centers.

Solution Hotel Sonesta Boston

Five Cambridge Parkway, Cambridge, MA 02142 617-491-3600 For reservations call Sonesta Instant Reservations in:

Amsterdam 020 25 65 42 Paris 06 079 1717 Frankfurt 0611 28 43 88 Zurich 01 302 08 57 Orcall your travel agent. London:01 628:3451 Sonesto Hotels in Hartford, Key Biscayne (Florida), New Orleans, Amsterdam, Bermuda, Egypt, Israel

By R.W. Apple Jr. New York Times Service
BLACKPOOL, England — The Labor Party, after a tumultuous debate, approved Monday a measure designed to purge key mem-bers of its left wing in the hope of improving its chances of winning the next general election.

By a margin of 3-to-1, the party's annual conference in this resort on the Irish Sea voted io establish a register of approved affiliated organizations — from which the party leadership plans to exclude the leaders of the Militant Tendency a Treatyletic recommits Tendency, a Trotskyite group with a staff of 60 organizers and several thousand active followers.

The vote was a victory for Michael Foot, the beleaguered party leader, and for the trade unions. who believe that Labor's chances of defeating Prime Minister Mar-garet Thatcher's Conservative Par-ty depend on the eradication of the party's reputation for internal squabbling and extremism.

But the supporters of Militant

Tendency said they intended to fight on. They have reorganized their staff with the hope of ensur-ing that only the six-man editorial board of their newspaper, called Militant, will face expulsion from the party. The eight Militant Tendency adherents so far chosen as Labor parliamentary candidates hope to emerge unscathed.

Exactly who is excluded will depend on the new National Executive Committee, which will be elected on Tuesday.

ADVERTISEMENT

International Restaurant Guide

FRANCE

PARIS - RIGHT BANK

LE B'OFUF 95, r. to Boltie. 225.37.19. Closed Sun. The friendly bietro of the Champs. Bysies, Menu F. 80. L'EUROPEEN Foring Gore de Lyon, 343,99.70. Doily from 13 a.m. to 2 u.m. SAUERKRAUT SPECIALTIES AND TRADITIONAL CUISINE. PETIT DIGHT 1880 Bistro. Closed Sun. Lunch, dinner 7 p.m. to 0:15 a.m. 25 LES TROIS LIMOUSINS B. r. de Berri, 562,35,97. Open daily. Open late. Grilled TROIS MOUTONS 63, ov. F. Roosevell. 225.26.95 daily, open offer show. Summer many F. 130 all incl. Air-conditioning.

Paris - Left Bank

ASSIETTE AU BEURRE 11 Rue St. Benoît/Pl. St. Germain-des Près. 260.87.41.
ASSIETTE AU BEURRE Marrus or fr. 35.80 & fr. 48.50 + serv. Dejly till midnight. PETITE CHAIGE 36 Rue de Grenolle. 222-13-35. Menus Fr. 62, refined cuisine historic setting. Open doily until 11 p.m. Open in August.

GREECE

ATHENS/PSYCHICO

DIOSCIPI 16, D. Vessiliou, Neo Prychico (4 km. north of Hilton). Greek food, charcos grills, fish. Taverna. Daily 8:15 p.m.-2 a.m. Closed Sun. Tel.: 6713997

If the right wing extends the tains it made last year, a fairly and "parasites." All agreed with bide-ranging purge is likely to engains it made last year, a fairly wide-ranging purge is likely to en-sue, and that would be likely to lead to a struggle that could last right up to the election, which is expected sometime next year. If, on the other hand, the left wing regains control of the committee, few expulsions are likely, and Monday's vote will seem a hollow

This week's conference is considered the most important in decades for Labor. It finds itself in difficulties despite the nation's economic crisis, which would normally be expected to boost the par-ty's fortunes. Mr. Foot's rating in the polls is the lowest of any opposition leader in history, the party has put up a series of feeble performances in recent by-elections, and membership has dropped from 600,000 to 275,000 in the last 10 vears. In addition, it has been preoccupied for three years with internal battles.

Jim Mortimer, the general secretary of the party, opened the debate with the assertion that it had "a trunk full of evidence" that the Militant Tendency was in violation of the party constitution's prohibition on organized caucuses. The group, he said, had its own policies, its own "disciplined struc-ture," its own full-time organizers. its own publishing house and its own fund-raisers.

Mr. Foot defended the constitution, arguing that it had always provided "the sheet anchor at moments of tempest and strain" that had prevented the party from fragmenting into sectarian movements." Taking no action against the Militant Tendency, he said, would "inflict appalling damage on the party at a most critical time." He denied advocating a

With Militant Tendency's supporters booing and shouting catcalls, speakers described the militants, who advocate among other things the abolition of the monarchy and worker control of didate, who asserted that "Militant and the electorate will never trust us unless we rid ourselves of this alien body."

Patrick Wall, one of the Militant

Tendency candidates for Parlia-ment, accused Mr. Foot of conducting a witch-hunt. He said the creation of the register constituted "an obscenity," and warned that the ideas of Marx, which he described as "the most humane and described as "the most humane and described as "the word humane and described as "the word humane and described as "the most humane and the mos democratic in the world," would live on in the party despite Mon-

Other backers of the Militan: Tendency used words such as "McCarthyism" and "inquisition" to denounce the leadership's proposals. They said that the register would result in a long series of dis-ruptive battles over the suitability of individual members of the or ganization to continue their memrship in the Labor Party.

If Mr. Foot is able to carry the day with the new executive committee, the local parties that selected nominees from Militant Tend-ency will presumably be forced to make new selections or risk having new selections imposed upon them by the national leadership. The process would take many months.

The conference rejected motions opposing the register and deferring the whole question for a year, then approved Mr. Foot's plan.

Reagan Plans to Meet Mexican President-Elect

Ronald Reagan will meet with President-elect Miguel de la Ma-drid Hurtado of Mexico, in Tijuana on Oct. 8, senior administration officials said Monday.

Mr. Reagan is certain to discuss Mexico's current economic difficulties as well as other issues af-

WASHINGTON - President

ately with the aim of preserving Hong Kong's prosperity and stability. At the same time, China said it would eventually reclaim Michael Foot, the leader of Britain's Labor Party, listened to the often stormy debate Monday at the party's conference.

Hong Kong Treaties Valid, Thatcher Says

HONG KONG - Prime Minis-ter Margaret Thatcher of Britain said Monday that the treaties made with China in the last century that gave possession of Hong Kong to Britain were valid and could not be abrogated by one

But Mrs. Thatcher, who dis-cussed the future of the colony with Chinese leaders last week, said at a press conference that the treaties could be altered.

Concern that the talks in Beijing had produced nothing concrete was followed by heavy selling on the Hong Kong stock market Monday. An index of leading shares fell 84 points to close at 1,012. The value of the Hong Kong dollar slipped from 6.15 to the U.S. dollar to 6.18.

Mrs. Thatcher agreed with Chinese leaders to start talks immedisovereignty over the whole of

Lease Expires in 1997

China does not recognize any of the three treaties under which Britain holds Hong Kong Island and Kewloon peninsula in perpetuity and the much larger New Territories on a 99-year lease expiring in the colony in its 140-year history, said at the news conference, "If countries try to abrogate treaties just like that, then it is very serious indeed, because if a country would not stand by one treaty, it would not stand by another."

She stressed what she called Britain's commitment to the people of Hong Kong and added that as leader of the British government, "what matters to me is that we discharge our moral duty to

She also said she believed the differences between London and Beijing on the issue of what will happen after the 1997 lease expires could be reconciled to the satisfaction of all sides.

The prime minister sidestepped several questions on details of her talks with the Chinese leadership and possible solutions to the Hong Kong issue that Britain might be prepared to accept.

Asked about the differences be-tween the two sides, she said: "You know the Chinese position on sovereignty. ... You also know Britain's position on the treaties. Treaties are meant to be kept."

Mrs. Thatcher, who arrived Sunday to a subdued welcome, earlier told Hong Kong businessmen that she shared with them "a justified pride in what has been achieved in Hong Kong under British adminis-Mrs. Thatcher, making the first reation."

U.S. Weather Satellites Inoperable; Pentagon Relies on Civilian Craft

By Robert C. Toth

Los Angeles Times Service
WASHINGTON — The highly sophisticated, multimillion-dollar satellites launched by the Pentagon to gather weather data critical for U.S. military and intelligence operations have been virtually inoperable for at least 17 months. U.S. military and civilian officials

As a result, the Defense Department has been forced into the em-barrassing position of depending on less complex civilian satellites using the same data that goes to local weathermen.
Officials say the civilian data have become so important that the air force has classified key aspects of its meteorological satellite pro-

And the Pentagon has strongly opposed a recent offer from private industry to take over the gov-ernment's weather satellites and land-sensing satellites. The National Environmental Satellite Service now runs the weather system and also will soon take over the Landsat system, which takes pic-tures used for such things as exploring for oil and studying crop

To pacify the Pentagon, the ommerce Department, of which the satellite service is a part, said this month that any private buyer of the weather satellite system would have to consider providing "selected priority service to de-fense needs when required."

An air force public affairs officer. Captain Ron Rand, said last week that the entire military weather satellite program is not classified, but he said "the number of defense meteorological satellites in orbit and the percentage of their design capacity at which they are now operating is classified."

Captain Rand said the new classification was imposed about 17 or 18 months ago. Other officials said it went into effect almost two years ago. The result is that the air force refuses to say whether any of its weather satellites are in space and how poorly they are working. Sources said, however, that of the two military weather satellites in polar orbit, one is spinning uselessly out of control. On the second satellite, the primary instru-ment — the imager, which in effect takes visible and infrared pictures — has failed, the sources said A third air force weather satellite was destroyed when its launching rocket failed. Reagan adminis-tration officials said. Two earlier military weather satellites went into orbit and worked successfully for longer than their designed life. The air force would offer no rea-son for the recent satellite failures and refused to discuss plans for future launchings. Sources said, how-ever, that a new weather satellite is expected to be launched in a few months, possibly during a space shuttle mission.

The two military weather satellites in polar orbit are almost identical in size — weighing about 1,600 pounds (727 kilograms) and in appearance as two civilian satellites also in north-to-south or-bits, but the military satellites were designed to take more detailed pictures and collect a greater variety of information. One measure of the importance of the two civilian weather satellites to the Pentagon was an official navy commendation last-month to the National Environmental Satellite Service for providing "the only high-quality satellite data available" on the Falkland Islands region during the British-Argentine war. Apparently, not even U.S. spy satellites could take pictures as well as the weather spacecraft, possibly because the reconnaissance satellites, whose primary focus is the Soviet Union, do not range so far south or are too high in space when passing over the far southern

The civilian service operates, in addition to the two satellites in polar orbits, two high altitude satellites that are in geosynchronous, or stationary, orbits 22,300 miles (35,680 kilometers) above the equator. One photographs the Western Hemisphere, and the other covers the Eastern Hemisphere, every half hour.

The civilian polar-orbiting satellites, which are "sun synchronous" so that they can return over the same spot on the equator with the son at the same angle, measure air temperatures at various altitudes, sea water temperature, cloud cover effort in the 1976 U.S. Senate primary.

The Workout Inc. — owner of

INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE OPPORTUNITIES

PLANT MANAGER

Candidate should be a Graduate Chemical or Mechanical Engineer with practical experience in operating and maintaining large air separation plants and gas supply schemes. A minimum of 8 years experience required for managing such plants. Candidate should be over 35 years, and must have general management skills to establish a new plant, manage an international team and to develop/train Saudi National Staff.

OPERATIONS MANAGER

Applicant should have the following qualifications or similar: Chemical Engineer with 5 years experience at same job level in large air separation plants; good theoretical and practical knowledge of process and in addition, must have design background for diagnosing faults without the aid of an external specialist. The successful applicant is required to manage the operation of a new air separation plant.

MAINTENANCE MANAGER

Candidate should be a Mechanical Engineer with a minimum of 5 years experience at same job level in large air separation plants and must be capable of issuing technical decisions without external specialist assistance. Good knowledge of H.T. electrical engineering and instrumentation is an additional advantage. The successful applicant will be in charge of all engineering matters relating to such plants plus responsibility for distribution systems and their maintenance.

Interested applicants should post their applications together with their qualifications to reach the following address not later than October 15, 1982.

Project Manager Air Separation Plant Saudi Basic Industries Corporation (SABIC) P.O. Box 5101 Riyadh Saudi Arabia.

Paris-based major North American stockbroker/invest banker offers challenging position in the field of North American securities.

Candidate should have sound educational background and be experienced in the crea of North American equity markets. He should have the ability to analyze research material and to relay it effectively to institutional clients in Europe.

Fluent English essential. Applications will be treated in the strictest confidence. Box D 1944, International Herald Tribune, 92521 Neuilly Cedex, France.

EXECUTIVES AVAILABLE

INTERNATIONAL FOOD EXECUTIVE Swiss, 25 years varied exposure, fluent 4 languages, establi Spain, own office, tel., telex, seeks activity: consultant, projet negotiator. Well introduced Spanish industry and ministries.

> INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE OPPORTUNITIES

loply: Box 241, International Herald Tribune, Pedro Teixeco E, Madrid 20, SPAE

ereru Tuesday, Tharsday & Saturday

Fonda's Gyms Give a Lift to Political Activism

By David Holley

Los Angeles Times Service LOS ANGELES - The air vibrates with disco music as two dozen women in leotards and a handful of men jog rhythmically in place and then stretch to instructions in a mirrored, wood-floored room at Jane Fonda's Workout in nearby Beverly Hills.

Responsable implantations than they are.

"Profits from The Workout," cy in its efforts to promote alternative sources of energy, stop envi-ronmental cancer [and] fight for women's rights, justice for tenants and other causes related to environmental protection, social jus-

International Executive Opportunities

MC DONALD's, leader mondial de l'industrie du FAST-FOOD avec plus de 7.000 restaurants, recherche dans le Cadre de son dévelopement en France un Responsable implantations. Basé à Parls et dépendant directement du Directeur du Département REAL ESTATE, il sera responsable de nouvelles implantations en Région Parisienne et en Province. Cette fonction polyvalente nécessite de bonnes connaissances dans le domaine immobilier, marketing, finaince, juridique (étude et définition des marchés prioritaires, recherche des emplacements, concrétisation). Ce poste ne peut donvenir qu'à un jeune diptômé type ESC, Droit, Sciences Eco... âgé de 28 ans minimum et pouvant justifier d'une expérience proberté de la négociation et des achaits dans l'immobilier commercial. La connaissance de l'anglais est nécessaire et celle de la restauration rapide constituerait un atout supplémentaire. La rémunération de départ de l'ordre de 180.000 francs sera assortie d'une voiture de fonction et d'excellentes perspectives de carrière pouvont être envisagées. Ecrire à H. MICHERON.

cun renseignement ne sere transmis sans l'accord préalable des candidats. Adresser C.V. en rappelant la rétérence à :

PA Conseiller de Direction S.A.

8, rue Bellini - 75782 PARIS Cedex 16- Tél. 505.14.30

Amerimiem - Bruxelles - Francion - Litle - Londres - Lyon Magrid - Milen - Nantes - Paris - Strasbourg

MC DONALD's, leader mondial de l'industrie du FAST-FOOD avec plus de 7.000 restrepreneur to support an organiza-tion founded by her husband, Tom Hayden, that critics claim is a radistates a lobby notice, "support the Campaign for Economic Democra-Few customers seem to care. They are there for the exercise.

Golden Goose The ability of Miss Fonda, 44, to bring in money - through direct contributions, fund-raising ef-three Fonda Workout studios and the rights to Miss Fonda's bestselling Workout book and record — will pass on $300,000 to the Campaign for Economic Democracy this year and put the rest of its profits into expansion. Owned by CED, with Miss Fonda retaining nearby Beverly Hills.

These are the beautiful people:

In professional women in their late 20s or 30s and liberated men who do not feel threatened by a money as a Beverly Hills en
These are the beautiful people:

Miss Fonda, the Academy of the Morkout — has provided financial stability for the Campaign for Economic Democratory (CED) since its founding in money as a Beverly Hills en 1977 out of Mr. Hayden's losing ready in the $2-million range, said. Mary Kushner, the chief operating officer of the exercise salon's board. Pretax 1982 profits from studios in Beverly Hills, San Francisco and Encino, California, should be about $1 million, she in-If Mr. Hayden, 42, the Demo-Legislature for a Los Angeles area district, wins the Nov. 2 election against Bill Hawkins, 34, the Republican candidate, there are CED members and CED-backed local officials across the state to support him politically - an asset for a freshman legislator.

CED claims 12,000 dues-paying members. It has 16 full-time paid staff members and employs about 15 canvassers in a door-to-door membership drive, according to a spokesman, Stephen Rivers. State headquarters are in Santa Monica, where the Haydens live. Membership dues combined with revenues from The Workout boost the 1982 annual budget of its general fund close to $500,000, Mr. Rivers said. It also has a separate tax-exempt education fund with a 1982 budget of about $85,000 to work on alternative energy and environmental causes of cancer, Mr.

vironmental causes of cancer, Mr. Rivers said. Its political action fund, which provides contributions to CED-backed candidates, will spend about $200,000 in 1982, he added. Mr. Hayden's campaign finances are separate from CED. He spent $497,071 during 1981 and the first half of this year, in-cluding a $33,254 contribution from the CED political action

Mr. Hayden says his legislative goals and the organization's pro-gram would overlap on issues such as solar energy, investment of pen-sion funds in housing and high-technology industries, support for working women's organizations, social services for senior citizens, offshore oil drilling and smog. Mr. Hawkins has called his bat-ile with Mr. Hayden "a campaign of support for the free enterprise system vs. the Campaign for Eco-nomic Democracy."

nomic Democracy." Critics' fears that economic democracy means socialism are fueled by statements like the defi-nition of economic democracy of-fered in the invitation to a 1977 conference in Santa Barbara, California, that led to the organiza-tion's founding:

tion's founding:

"Economic democracy means that a few hundred corporate leaders will no longer make basic economic decisions that affect all of our lives. It means that ownership and control will be spread among a wide variety of public bodies; city, state and federal governments, churches trade unions cooperachurches, trade unions, cooperatives, and community groups, small business people, workers and

SALES REPRESENTATIVE BASED IN MIDDLE EAST We are a market leader in the manufacturing and supply of downhole drilling equipment and services to the international oil and gas industry. Due to continued expansion we now seek a qualified sales specialist to further develop the growing demand for their services and products in the Eastern Based in the Middle East you will be responsible for the sales and marketing of 2 wide range of downhole tools and services. Your main objective will be to secure contracts for the latest range of drilling turbines, downhole motors and associated drilling equipment. To meet the demands of this challenging position it is essential that you are fully conversant with drilling technology and possess a minimum of 5 years experience in production drilling coupled with preferrably 2 years experience in drilling equipment sales. Additionally you must have the ability and personality to communicate with client companies at all levels and constantly promote and identify new business opportunities. This post carries an attractive salary package including full expatriate benefits, annual bonus, company car and a full range of insurance benefits. Interested candidates possessing the desired criteria should send resume and salary information to: Kevin Schmidt CHRISTENSEN, INC. D-3100 Celle West Germany

Peni Marcos to Leave U.S. Peni Dac Pental Marcos to Leave Vilia With New Trade Pacts With New And Promises of Aid And Promises of Aid And accord to review a for U.S. military in the formal in the

Mess Fork Times Service
WASHINGTON — When President Ferdinand E. Marcos returns

dent Ferdinand E. Marcos returns to the Philippines on Tuesday, he will carry with him a generous package of economic and trade agreements and promises of more

Mr. Marcos appears to have accomplished much of what he sought from his U.S. visit, which officially began 10 days ago with President Ronald Reagan's warm welcome at the White House Mr. Marcos and his wife, huelds, ended their visit Monday, leaving Ha-

The highlights of the trip, including the crowds of cheeting supporters recruited by the Philippines Embassy; were shown on prime-time television in Manila, there Mr. Marcos hopes to bolster

Few Discordant Notes

channel of the last of the las

ing human right ing human righ

Carter administration, it something are that this trip was a net plus for President Marcos."

President Marcos."

The critical area was his first here since 1966, shortly after he was elected president. Demonstrations against his authoritarian government contains in Manila during his visit here.
In Washington, Mr. Marcos thoritarian government continued in Manila during ins visit usive.

In Washington, Mr. Marcos met with Mr. Reagan, Secretary of State George P. Shultz, Defense

Secretary Caspar W. Weinberger and other administration officials, secenthling a package of agree-Lies carriera beset assembling a package of agree-ments that included: e dur des cares

Spadolini Invited to U.S. United Press International

ीटां, क्षांत्रते जर जिल्हे

CITE 500: 08 th ($1)

2000年 日本 2000年 日本

CONTRACTOR A TOTAL

المعمود استدا استد

nari De Nederland

and train Nation

これ のななの 医腫 et die Nerbertrieb

- will not a fill

والمقها تجوا حدود

Victor Australia de de la companya del la companya de la companya

المادة المادية

1 ::: 1 ::: 1 to 1

ニニン: - 2025原理

Carpaign for his ver eine b produkt toto opinenia (2) with Mas Faint

WASHINGTON - President Ronald Reagan has invited Prime Minister Giovanni Spadolini of Italy to make a two-day "official working visit" to Washington, starting Nov. 3, the White House announced Tuesday.

ments for U.S. military bases at Subic Bay and Clark Field in the Philippines in April.

Reagan administration sup-port for $204.5 million in financial guarantees for the Bataan nuclear power plant:

• U.S.-Philippines agreements on air transport, double taxation, agriculture and tourism.

· An investment mission U.S. businessmen in 1983 to the Philippines and other member countries of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations.

Although administration offi-cials also discussed human rights with Mr. Marcos, they did not make public the substance of those discussions, preferring what a sen-ior official termed "quiet diploma-

Questioned during an appearance before the House Foreign Affairs Committee about a report by Amnesty International, a Londonbased organization that monitors human rights around the world, Mr. Marcos denied any abuses.

The report had charged widespread torture, political arrests and even murders by agents of the Marcos government. Some congressmen said they remained un-convinced by Mr. Marcos's testi-mony, according to Representative Stephen J. Solarz, Democrat of New York, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

18 Killed in Ambush

The Associated Press reported from Manila that the Philippines News Agency carried a dispatch saying that armed men have am-bushed a passenger jeep carrying soldiers and civilians in Sorsogon province. Eighteen persons were killed and three wounded, the Philippine agency reported Monday.

Quoting a provincial military report, the agency said that about 40 gunmen opened fire on the vehicle and then attacked it with hand grenades Sunday in Abucay village of Pilar municipality, 215 miles (374 kilometers) southeast of Manila.
The attack occurred in the Bicol region, where communist guerrillas of the New People's Army are operating. The agency did not say whether the gunnen were rebels or Elsewhere in Bicol, government forces reported killing four communist rebels in an encounter Sat-

Seiko. Innovation is our tradition.

Elegant new dress watches created to be tomorrow's classics.

For ever a century. Seiko has defined and refined the realm of time

DALAI LAMA IN EUROPE - The Dalai Lama was welcomed Monday at the airport in Rome, where he is beginning a tour of four European nations. The Dalai Lama, the exiled Buddhist leader of Tibet, is scheduled to meet with several Italian leaders and Rome religious communities and possibly the pope before continuing to Spain, France and West Germany.

Death of a Bourgeois Revolutionary

Philippine Troops Kill a Former Student Leader

MANILA — Edgar Jopson was not everybody's idea of a revolu-tionary leader. He wore crisp, clean shirts and trousers and always looked well-fed. He spoke in English — seldom in his native tongue — with an American accent that betrayed his education as a student at the clite, Jesuit-run Ateneo de Manila Uni-

When he addressed crowds of students demonstrating against the government, he spoke in a quiet, moderate style that aroused more yawns than passion. He stood in stark contrast to other student leaders, who launched into violent, rabble-rousing denunciations of American "imperialists" and the government of President Ferdinand Marcos. As president of the five-million-strong National Union of Students of the Philippines in 1969, he spoke with the voice of reason rather than threat.

But there was apparently another side to Edgar Jopson. Last week, the government announced that he had been killed by soldiers in the southeastern city of Davao. urday in a village of Iriga City. He was, said the announcement. One policeman was killed in the the chairman of the outlawed the chairman of the outlawed Communist Party of the Philippines' southern region, with a price of 125,000 pesos ($15,000) on his

Mr. Jopson was the son of a rich family that owned a big supermarket in Manila. His commitment to the reformist cause was at times doubted even by non-Marxists. Rumors abounded that he was a spy for the government, even when he headed a student delegation to fore Mr. Marcos imposed martial Like many other student lead-

Beijing in 1972 a few months be-after the decree. Some still scoff at the idea that he went underground to join the Communists' military wing. Not with his bourgeois background, they say.

Ten years later — and 18 months after martial law was lifted — his body, with three bullet holes, lies in a Manila funeral home patronized by the rich. His obituary in a Manila newspaper Monday read: "He offered his only life for the people's free-dom. ... Edgar "Edjop" Jopson, murdered on September 20, 1982, ers, he disappeared from the scene in Davao City at the age of 34."

Chinese Attitude Toward Moscow Has Not Changed, Suzuki Is Told

because they had diplomatic relations. But the officials reiterated that China would still judge the Soviet Union by its deeds and not China's party chief. Hu Yao-bang, said in a major report at the 12th Party Congress early this month that Chinese-Soviet relations could move toward normalization if the Soviet side took "practical steps" to reduce its threat to China's security.

Four major impediments, as

China sees it, are the Soviet inter-vention in Afghanistan, Moscow's support for the Vietnamese occu-pation of Cambodia, the Soviet military buildup along the Chi-nese-Soviet frontier and the Soviet presence in Mongolia. It is ques-tionable whether the Kremlin would be willing to make conces-sions in any of these areas.

China has been moving toward a more rational adversary relationship with the Soviet Union, similar to what it has now with the United States, while stressing a more pro-nounced identification with the

Mr. Zhao was quoted as telling Mr. Suzuki that "for the sake of world peace, China allies itself with the Third World and deals with the Soviet Union jointly with

The Chinese government has re-frained so far from formal comment on Mr. Brezhnev's latest overture in Baku, but its reaction seems to be the same as when the Soviet leader made a similar speech earlier this year in Tashkent. At that time, the Chinese

Foreign Ministry issued a response saying that China attached importance to deeds rather than words.

Xinhua reported Mr. Brezhnev's

Third World,

the Third World."

By Christopher S. Wren New York Times Service

BELJING - Prime Minister Zhao Ziyang was quoted on Mon-day as saying that China's attimde toward the Soviet Union had not changed, despite expectations here of new contacts between the two Communist neighbors.

Mr. Zhao made the statement to the visiting Japanese prime minis-ter, Zenko Suzuki, in their second round of talks Monday, which dealt with international issues.

"Soviet hegemonism has not changed. Therefore, China's opposition to hegemonism remains un-changed," a Japanese official familiar with Monday's talks quoted

Mr. Zhao as saying.

The Chinese prime minister's comments prompted interest here since they followed a fresh over-ture Sunday by Leonid I. Brezhnev in a speech made by the Soviet leader in the Soviet city of Baku.

Exploratory Talks

Mr. Brezhnev said that the Soviet Union wanted to "achieve a normalization, a gradual improvement of relations" with China. Their reof relations, with China. Their re-lationship has remained chilly fol-lowing their ideological rift two decades ago.

There have been reports here that the Soviet Union would send a delegation for exploratory talks with the Chinese next month. Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher of Britain confirmed at a news conference last Friday following talks in Beijing that such discussions would take place.

According to another Japanese source, Mr. Zhao also told Mr. Suzuki that contacts between Beijing and Moscow might increase but said that this did not mean that the Chinese had allayed their suspicions. Mr. Zhao was quoted as saying that such meetings would help the Chinese monitor Soviet speech in Baku on Monday withed in recent conversations that it was natural for China and the Soviet Union to have official contacts

China and Angola have agreed on mutual recognition and were to start talks Monday in Paris on the establishment of diplomatic rela-tions, according to the official An-golan news agency ANGOP, Reuters reported from Lisbon. Tiger Kills Girl in Sumatra JAKARTA — A girl was killed by a tiger in a remote area of northern Sumatra, Antara news agency reported Monday. The girl, 8, was with her parents in a rice field at the village of Bebesan when the tiger leaped on her out of the undergrowth and bit off her

DIAMONDS

Single diamonds at wholesale prices by ordering direct from Antwerp diamond market. Give diamond to the ones you love, buy for nvestment, for your enjoyment Write airmail for free price list elgiam - Tel.: (32.3) 234.07.51. Teles: 71779 syl b. at the Diamond Club Bldg.

Joachim Goldenstein diamantexport Established 1928 street 62, B-2000 Antwe

Gold Medal

Unsurpassed luxury in the Middle East... that's the Sheraton style

The Sheraton style is providing today's traveller with the utmost in luxury throughout the Middle East. From state of the art business facilities and luxurious rooms, to exquisite cuisine and a tradition of fine service and hospitality. So on your next trip, come experience Sheraton's style in the Middle East.

Cairo Sheraton - Sheraton is your business and pleasure headquarters in the city of Cairo. Enjoy outstanding service, a variety of oriental and Middle Eastern cuisine, outdoor pool and top of the line business facilities.

Al-Badr Jeddah Sheraton—Luxury styled to today's businessman. Centrally located to diplomatic and commercial centers. Enjoy our glass domed pool, health club and the ambiance of our elegant restaurants.

Montazah Sheraton-Alexandria—The newest hotel in Montazah, situated on the clear blue waters of the Mediterranea Sheraton's luxury offers excellent meeting facilities and an outstanding choice of international cuisine.

the atmosphere in our variety of international restaurants, exciting lobby lounge and excellent business facilities

Sheraton Hotels Worldwide ($).

Make your reservation to stay in style

your reservation to stay in style, in any one of the more than 400 Sheraton Hotels worldwide.

We do it with our sophisticated on-line computer reservations system. So with one call, your questions are answered, your reservations and requests are confirmed, and you can even book a vear in advance. So call heraton's Reservatron III now.

VIENNA, AUSTRIA BRUSSELS, BELGIUM DENMARK 0222/54-21-32-02/219-45-96-0430/00201 LONDON ENGLAND 06/079-2800 DUBLIN IRELAND NETHERLANDS 020/43-48-74 02/41-69-951 SOUTH AFRICA 03/317-50-68 · 01/401-20-04 · 08/22-94-55 · MADRID, SPAIN STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN GENEVA, SWITZERLAND

0211/4989211 FRANKFURT. 0611/2953061

MUNICH, W GERMAN' STUTTGART, W. GERMANY 800-325-3636 (IN MISSOURI) HAWAII 800-392-3500 800-342-1541 926-4949 (ON OAHU)

800-268-9393 · 800-268-9330 · MELBOURNE AUSTRALIA 63-6741 NEW ZEALAND 60-373

WELLINGTON. NEW ZEALAND SINGAPORE

BEIRUT, LEBANON 361590

Sheraton Hotels Worldwide (S)

Call your local Sheraton Hotel or your travel agent.

Take Delta's Wide-Ride TriStar to Atlanta from London or Frankfurt and, without changing airlines, you can be on your way to cities coast to coast. Delta flies nonstop from London to Atlanta every day. We also have a nonstop from Frankfurt to Atlanta every day. Delta's nonstops to Atlanta are the Wide-Ride Lockheed L-1011 TriStars powered by Rolls-Royce engines. You enjoy superb international dining, in-flight entertainment.

Delta carries more passengers in the continental U.S. than any other airline. Yet for the past eight years we've had the fewest complaints - by far - of any major airline, according to the latest C.A.B. records. All thanks to the 35,000 Delta professionals.

For information and reservations, call your Travel Agent. Or call Delta in London on (01) 668-0935 or (01) 668-9135, Telex 87480. Or call Delta in Frankfurt at 0611 23 30 24, Telex 0416233. Delta Ticket Offices are at 140 Regent Street, London, W1R 6AT and Friedensstrasse 7, 6000 Frankfurt/Main. Schedules are subject to change n walarich igo ms reig ent ws.

sta ind Le d I inn Thi wi tru B eve eve

npi e d Voi idg

æ.

Ea log i ng.

ion amt ne
ise
ise he ise
y di se t

07

RIS spe as. in rt, i tly i rse

मार्थ ठाडू

anci

es.

3, S

notii

ALT ORE

ML

later

Scrimping on Aid

President Reagan's foreign and policy — what's good for Uncle Sugar is good for Upper Volta — is rooted in the belief that freemarket private enterprise is the road to economic development for rich and poor nations alike. For that reason, he has de-emphasized America's contribution to multilateral aid for the truly needy. That policy has now backfired in an unfortunate compromise at the International Development Association, the World Bank affiliate that makes interest-free, 50-year loans to the poorest countries.

In 1980, when the 33 countries supporting IDA pledged $12 billion more to raise the agency's resources to $30 billion, the United States promised $3.2 billion over three years. But the Reagan administration renounced this commitment, saying it would pay up only over four years. Because the United States contributes so much of the IDA's capital, the effect was devastating. Loan commitments had to be slashed by 35 percent last year. A.W. Clausen, the American banker who heads the World Bank and the IDA, said, "This is not trimming a program; this is amputating a program." The other contributors - most importantly Western Europe and Japan - are paying their three-year pledges on schedule. Most have also agreed to a fourth-year payment to make up for America's foot-dragging. However, six of the principal contributors -France, Canada, Italy, Norway, Sweden and Denmark - are each requiring that their fourth-year funds be used only to purchase their own goods and services. If Upper Volta borrows French francs for irrigation, it will have to spend them in France even if American equipment and Australian engineers could serve it better. This is known as "tied aid" — selfishness cloaked in generosity. It not only violates the spirit of unfettered multilateral aid, it is the antithesis of free markets. It is protectionism.

The Reagan administration refuses to ask Congress to speed up payments. Worse, Congress may not even appropriate as much as the administration has asked. Even assuming that the United States pays the pledged amount, the IDA will need replenishment after next year or be forced to reduce its leading to a trickle. The administration has set a discouraging precedent by its parsimony. May the counterproductive consequences prove enlightening.

-THE NEW YORK TIMES.

The Salvadoran Tunnel

Is that a fleck of light at the end of the tunnel in El Salvador? Through the Costa Ri-cans, a line has been opened between El Salvador's appointed president and the leader of the guerrillas' political allies. The Salvadoran government, having put on paper a "pact" signed by the parties that took part in parliamentary elections last March, now speaks of a "peace commission" to develop "a practical amnesty and disarmament program [covering the guerrillas], probably in conjunction with some form of security guarantees to persuade the political parties who refused to run candidates for election in March to join in the elec-toral process." Guerrilla groups hint that they may drop some of the demands the government found unacceptable in the past.

The picture is one of hesitation, skepticism and resistance at both extremes. But there is also a sense of possible movement toward consensus that has not existed since reformminded officers overthrew the old feudal apparatus in 1979 and the revolutionaries, thus pre-empted, moved to civil war.

The government's reform and military programs, flawed as they are, may have something to do with these tentative stirrings. Their principal source, however, appears to be the elections last March. These strengthened politics as the arena in which the masses of Salvadorans plainly wish to work out their country's destiny. This in turn gave a better purchase to those within the Salvadoran po-litical system who doubt that the country can endure a military struggle to the end, and who wish to try to split the left and draw in those parts of it that are open to political competition. The same strengthening of political tendencies may have touched the left. At the least, the high popular participation in the elections, despite a fierce guerrilla cam-paign to spoil the poll, undercut any guerrilla argument that the masses could be won over or intimidated by armed struggle.

If the elections and their delayed aftermath are the key elements, it cannot be irrelevant that the signals coming from Washington changed subtly during the summer. The United States continues to insist, along with the Salvadoran government, that it will not support a negotiation leading to guerrilla participation in the government, aithough it will support talks leading to the left's participation in the electoral process. Nonetheless, the tone of policy is different. Under Secretary of State Alexander Haig it was one of confrontation in the name of anti-communism; under Secretary of State George Shultz it has shifted more toward local and regional conciliation. Not much attention has been given to this shading in Washington. In Central America, where the stakes are much higher, it has been widely noted.

Central America is too torn and polarized to permit any easy optimism. Nor are the present hints of change equally acceptable in all quarters. The Salvadoran feudal right, for instance, like the extreme right in the United States, professes to see an ominous softening of Ronald Reagan's policy. We see something else, especially in El Salvador: a continuity with the latter-day Carter policy that makes it possible for the U.S. mainstream to support a policy of firmness and reform. In brief, El Salvador is still engaged in a desperate struggle, but it is becoming possible to ask whether the Reagan policy may not work.

-THE WASHINTON POST.

Other Opinion

"The New Imperialism"

aul can or : along without the guidance of the United States of America is harder to sell to Americans now than it has ever been. The bizarre terms that this friendly assistance can take have been illustrated strikingly by the Soviet pipeline issue it can be argued — I would certainly argue it — that the pipeline is on balance unwise. But, having failed to dissuade Europe, the American reaction is to impose sanctions on its closest friends.

An even more striking aspect of the new imperialism is U.S. policy toward Northern Ireland. William Clark, the president's securi-ty adviser, has explicitly said that the U.S. government would like a united Ireland.

The impudence of this policy, let alone its folly, is breathtaking. What would U.S. reac-tion be, one wonders, if Mrs. Thatcher were to declare that Britain favored a change in the status of Puerto Rico or Hawaii or Alaska or California? The scream that Britain had reverted to her imperialist past would be heard clear across the Atlantic.

President Reagan and his close colleagues represent the assertiveness factor raised to a new pitch in American foreign policy. It is, ironically, part of his domestic creed that the ordinary American should be left alone to work out his own salvation. But leaving non-Americans alone to work out their own salvation is apparently wrong, weak.

It would be hard to think of a better definition of an imperialist - or of a worse longterm threat to the trans-Atlantic alliance.

— The Mail on Sunday (London).

'Impervious to Criticism' Nothing can alter the facts. These are that the present Israeli government under Mr. Begin and Mr. Sharon is set upon attaining its military and political objectives at whatever cost to others, and without regard to the The idea that any corner of the world, any standing of Israel in world opinion.

strictures are dictated by anti-Semitism. The truth is that Mr. Begin and company stand branded as fanatics, impervious to criticism or reason. They have had support from the people of Israel in two narrowly contested neral elections, but - and this is the historic significance of the horrors of Beirut - that support is now being seriously reconsidered.

— The Sunday Times (London).

It is a painful thing for American Jewish leaders to have to differ openly with the government of Israel. Israel, they argue, has enough unremitting enemies and habitual critics as it is [But] in Israel, a swelling chorus of anguished opinion is demanding an impartial judicial investigation to definitively establish the facts and assess responsibility. Prime Minister Menachem Begin, firing off broadsides of specious denials and vile accusations in all directions, is resisting this call and behaving very much like a politician with things to hide. But much remains to be revealed if this affront to Israel's honor and credibility is to be eased. It is in appreciation of that need that a number of Jewish organizations and leaders in [the United States] — B'nai B'rith, the American Jewish Congress, the American Jewish Committee and spokesmen for the Anti-Defamation League — have now broken with Mr. Begin to urge a full independent inquiry in Israel into the massacre. In overcoming their tactical reluctance to show less than full public support for the government of Israel, these groups are supporting the ethical imperative that justice must be done. They are saying that a people that has suffered so much while others hid their eyes must not hide its own eyes now.

— The Los Angeles Times.

SEPT. 28: FROM OUR PAGES 75 AND 50 YEARS AGO

1907: Marriageable Girls

NEW YORK - The Baltic has arrived with more than 1,000 marriageable girls on board, each wearing her prettiest dress with her hair beribboned and tied as bewitchingly as possible. Most had a definite idea that they wanted husbands, as they had heard that American girls were too high-minded and asked too much. Miss Clara Johnson, from County Mayo in Ireland, yearned to go on the stage and marry an actor, while Miss Agnes McGirr, from Scotland, wanted a man with dark hair, not a farmer. Miss Kate Donohue thought that any half good-looking man who did not wear red neckies would do, and two Weish girls said they wanted practical men. As most of the girls expect to go West, their prospects of marriage are flattering.

1932: Judge's Home Bombed

WORCESTER, Mass. - Judge Webster Thayer, who seven years ago became a bitter enemy of Communists throughout the world when he sentenced Sacco and Vanzetti to death, narrowly escaped serious injury and possible death when his home here was wrecked by a terrific dynamite explosion that shook neighboring houses and was heard throughout the city. The 74-year-old jurist who has been the target of repeated Red threats since the famous case, escaped unscathed. However, he was visibly shaken by the ordeal. "I hate to think that because a man does his duty before mankind and God, his penalty is this," he said. Later, he regained his equanimity and remarked, "They cannot kill me that easy."

JOHN HAY WHITNEY (1904-1982), Chairman KATHARINE GRAHAM and ARTHUR OCHS SULZBERGER, Co-Chairman LEE W. HURRNER, Publishe PHILIP M. POISTE ROLAND PINSON Executive Editor Editor WALTER WELLS ROBERT K. McCABE RENE BONDY FRANÇOIS DESMAISONS RICHARD H. MORGAN

International Herald Tribune, 181 Avenue Charles de Gaulle, 92200 Neuilly-sur-Scine, France Telephone 747-1265, Telex 612718 (Herald). Cables Herald Paris.

General Manager, Asia: Alata Lecour. 24-34 Hennessy Rd. Hong Kong, Tel. 5-28 56 18. Telex 61170.

S.A. as capital de 1.200.000 F. R.C.S. Nanterre B 713021126, Commission Paritaire No. 34231.

U.S. subscription: $256 yearly. Second-class postage paid at Long Island City, N.Y. 11101.

© 1982, International Herald Tribune. All rights reserved.

Questions After the Massacre

• 'If, Like Other Egyptians, I Feel Deep Pessimism ...

CAMBRIDGE, Massachusetts — It is perhaps somewhat unseemly to raise the issue of Egypt's predic-ament in the aftermath of the Beirut massacre, when hundreds of Palestinbodies are lying in mass graves. Egyptians must ask: Why? How

The anguished American Jewish community - and indeed the whole world - also asks these questions today. But there is this difference:

such a thing to happen?

could the Begin administration allow

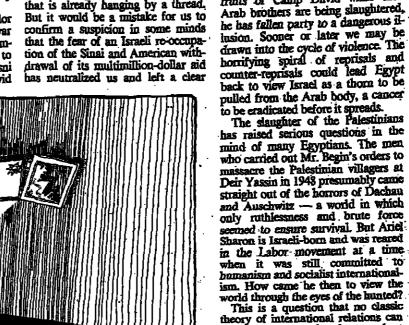

Egypt has signed a peace treaty with Israel. Inevitably, therefore, when we ask the questions, somewhere in the background an egotistical worry lurks: Why did they do this to us? Egypt has recalled its ambassador from Tel Aviv, For, clearly, if Anwar Sadat's initiative was of crucial importance in opening up an avenue to peace, the way for President Hosni Mubarak to salvage the Camp David accords is not through appearement. order not to jeopardize a peace treaty that is already hanging by a thread.

By Sana Hassan

Egypt, of course, must tread a thin fine, acting firmly but not rashly, in

This is a question that no classic answer, because what happened at the Chatila and Sabra camps has not only left an indelible moral stain on Israel but was, even by the standards of Realpolitik, patently opposed to the Begin government's interest in its own survival — not to mention Israel's interests, which were damaged by fruits of Camp David while their one's blood without a deep and permanent scar. I don't know. But I pretty much know what himfield for Mr. Begin and his military apparatus to wreak havoc. If anyone holds the view that Egyptians can sit back and savor the ened at Sabra and Chatila. And that it makes no difference whether the Begin administration was an accessory to the massacre or was merely. an acquiescent observer. These are not grounds for reneging on Egypt's commitment to the existence of Israel. But II, like other Egyptians, I feel deep pessionsm at is because we are troubled by this thought: If it was possible for the sons of those who suffered from Hitler's persecution to map out the plan for "pacification of Galilee" that led to the Chatila and Sabra massacres. what is to assure us that in a generation or two there will not arise another military leader with a psyche like. Mr. Sharon's who will decide once and for all to "pacify the entire area in the name of israeli survival?

Egypt's role was to ferry Israel across to the community of Middle Eastern nations to which it had sought admission. King Hussein's recent statement that he was willing to negotiate with Israel about West Bank's future was one of several signs that other Arab countries were on the verge of accepting Israel and granting it long sought legitimacy. Today I wonder which of them will want to follow Egypt's perilous course. Reflecting on the betrayal of Egypt, will they not think it a piniful fool for having mortgaged its fate to the good faith of the Israeli government?

The writer, a doctoral candidate in actions that enhanced the aura of the political science at Harvard University, Palestine Liberation Organization.

Perhaps we must turn for the answer not to political science but to psychology. Perhaps it is impossible to carry 2,000 years of persecution in articles calling for peace with Israel.

• What Are the Palestinian People Supposed to Feel Now?

DARIS — How many massacres, how many more men and women, babies and adolescents, Christians and Moslems, how many more Jews and Palestinians must die before the world awakes from its torpor, regains its senses and finds the courage to say what we Palestinians have said all along: that the orthodox Zionism religiously adhered to by Israel's rulers is a disastrous doctrine for us as well as for the Jews?

How could it be otherwise? How could the world have been duped into believing that this anachronistic ideology could ever succeed in creating a Jewish state in an already populated land, without bloody conflict?

Was it apathy? Perhaps. But the main reason was understandably that, after the horrors of World War II, the world was too busy scrubbing away the stains of shame from its recent history, not knowing meanwhile, not wanting to know, that another episode of human trage dy was systematically in progress elsewhere.

How many people even know the names of our villages and camps which make up the tragic litany of nightmares that our people have endured since the creation of Israel in the heart of our ancestral homeland: Deir Yassin, Kalonia, Qibya, Kafr, Qasim, Qalqilya, Nabi Elias, 'Azzun, Khan Yunis, Sammu', Tel al-Za'tar?

It was at Deir Yassin that Menachem Begin inaugurated his doctrine that any act can be 1948, while the Palestinian village on the outskirts of Jerusalem slept, 200 members of Irgun, the Zionist terror gang, attacked. House by house, the inhabitants were pulled into the streets, lined against walls and shot, regardless By Mohammad Tarbush of age or sex. Homes were dynamited. The attackers raped, tore earnings from women's ears and slaughtered some who were pregnant with carving knives. When day broke, corpses littered the streets. No one was allowed into the village except a Jewish policeman, who reported that one Palestinian had died.

It took a persistent Red Cross officer to unearth the truth. Besides the bodies in the streets, he found 150 corpses stuffed down a well. In all, 243 were left dead.

The survivors were stripped naked and paraded through a Jewish quarter of Jerusalem, to be mocked and spat upon. The then leader of Irgun is now the prime minister of Israel.

In October 1953, Ariel Sharon led a similar operation against the unsuspecting inhabitants of Qibya, leaving 75 dead and as many wound-ed. Now Defense Minister Sharon defends his authorization to let his allies enter Sabra and Chatila by claiming to have warned against killing, "especially women and children." Neither in their objectives nor in their morbid detail do the Beirut massacres differ from the carnage we have previously endured. Is not the mass murder of Palestinians consistent with the cold logic of Zionism, which dictated the destruction, expulsion or, at best, oppression of the indigenous people of the coveted land?

To us Palestinians, these dangers are not a mere abstraction. Ask the refugees who fled their homes in the panic of terror and war, never to be allowed to return. Or the young people who saw compatriots die under Israeli bullets for the crime of marching in peaceful demon-stration. Or the librarians who have watched helplessly as the contents of their shelves were ransacked by Israel's police. Ask the orphans of Deir Yassin, Sabra and Chania, who are unlike-by ever to lead normal lives again.

We Palestinians cried out against this threat from our mosques and our churches, from the playgrounds of our schools and the courtyards of our homes, and, when in your more reflective moments you allowed it, from the columns of your newspapers and your airwaves. The world ignored our warnings. Now, thanks to modern communications technology, the massacre has taken place under your noses.

In its implacable campaign against us, Zion-ist propaganda stopped at nothing to deprive us of what was ours — our literature (we were depicted as aimlessly roaming bedonins), our his-tory (Palestine, the most ancient country on Earth, ceased to exist in their historical narratives), our geography (the cradle of human civi-lization — which grew fruit trees centuries be-fore Europe, perfected irrigation and plant hybridization and was the first nation to produ such luxuries as wine — was presented to the world as strips of desert or malaria-ridden swamp). Thinking people everywhere should have known better: The world's ancient travelers and artists had testified otherwise.

As grim reports of the bloodbath in Sabra and Chatila flashed in and the flickering screen featured Israeli soldiers rounding up our civil-ians, the leaders of a nation of "ingathered ex-dull in comparison.

While he has proved his patience and stamina as opposition leader against a handful of livelier CDU

iles" disputed faciously in the Knesset over the fate of the the original people. As a Palestinian, I felt as if I had been punched all over.

Scores of mutilated Palestinian bodies were displayed tied together so the victims could not displayed tied together so the victims could not fiee, or slumped against a wall where they had been lined up and gmned down. As I looked on, vivid images of Deir Yassin and other calamities — both for the Jewish people and our selves — flashed through my mind; but above all, images of our people's lives caploding inder the shells and bombs of Israeli soldiers, or of West Bank settlers strolling arrogantly through our markets and ancient cities. .As I watched, I wondered: What are the intentions of these people? What are they doing to our country, with its ancient customs and traditions, mosques and churches, legendary lakes and rivers, mystical hills and mountains? When the debris of Sabra and Chatila me dug away, when the final toll of that Black Friday comes to light, let us also grieve for another victim—the smashed hope for coexistence between Israelis and Palestimans.

So much lost, so little left to lose ... Will anyone now be surprised if, in our despair, the voices of people who once believed it possible to live side by side with the Israelis are stifled: if there is a rebirth of Palestinian extremism indeed if there is an embittered, radicalized all in our part of the world?

The virtuer, a Palestinian living in Paris, is the author of the forthcoming "The Role of the Military in Politics: A Case Study of Iraq to 1941."

SPD or CDU? The Choosing Is Not America's Business

By Flora Lewis

PARIS — The collapse of West Germany's ocalition, with a new chancellor possible soon and elections contemplated, sharpens a backroom Washington debate that has been going on for more than a year. Would the United States be better off dealing with conservatives than it has been with Social Democratic Chancellor Helmut Schmidt?

Some Reagan administration officials felt strongly that Mr. Schmidt was too chummy with the Russians and too vulnerable to left-wing pressures in his party for America's com-fort. They think Helmut Kohl's Christian Democratic Union would be more in tune with Reagan policy.

Mr. Schmidt was aware of that view, and it fed mounting strains in the alliance. But when it came to ideas of undermining him, wiser Washthat they will even try.

Technically, Mr. Schmidt and his Social Democrats could continue with a minority government for the rest of the present legislative period, that is, until autumn 1984. But in practical political terms that, too, is impossible, if only because they could not muster parliamentary majorities to pass pending legislation, including

The logical move is early elections

- in November - as Chancellor Schmidt proposed in his Bundestag speech 11 days ago. But the constitution does not allow the chancellor to dissolve parliament and call for new elections on his own. Such a move would require the support of Mr.

The Hesse elections demonstrated two things: West Germans take a dim view of the kind of political hanky-panky and disloyalty that Mr. Genscher and his Free Democratic Kohi and Mr. Genscher.

the controversial federal budget.

ington heads prevailed over what was at once a naive and an arrogant asnomic power with a mind of its own. won him new respect for his ability to U.S. strategic superiority has visibly be decisive. Mr. Kohl looks slow and U.S. strategic superiority has visibly disappeared and doubtless cannot be restored. There is as much concern in West Germany at being dragged im-prudently by America into an East-National feeling has revived. It is only anti-American on the edges of be taken into account. West Germans no longer look to Washington to find out what is good for West Germany.

West showdown as there is to make sure of continued U.S. protection. left and right, but it is a sensitivity to No doubt Boun's style will change if Mr. Kohl becomes chancellor. He is a ponderous, measured man with-out Mr. Schmidt's acid tongue and quick temper. Still, Mr. Schmidt's handling of the government crisis has rivals, some in his own party doubt that he has the political crackle to impose effective leadership. They wonder how long he would last. The centrist FDP, which provoked the change by switching sides from SPD to CDU, has lost credibility and may have a hard time staying in the Bundestag. If the CDU won an overall majority, Mr. Kehl would come under intense pressure from the Na-tionalist-minded "Bull of Bavaria," Franz Josef Strauss.

And if there is neither a clear win nor the parliamentary arithmetic to support a CDU-FDP coalition after elections, the rising anti-establish-ment's "Green" and "alternative" movements may hold the balance of power. They are heirs of the 1968 counterculture — against material-ism, authority, missiles, U.S. policies. The generation gap is large. It wornes all West German politicians.

More important for the United States, though, is the broad consensus underlying West German foreign pol-icy. There is no reason at all to suppose that the future government would be any more interested in re-newing the Cold War, cutting trade with the East or giving up detente than Mr. Schmidt has been. The big issues in West Germany now, as in the U.S. campaign, are do-mestic economic and social policies. There is no question of dismantling the welfare state, despite alarmed outcries from the unions. The debate whether growth can best be relaunched by federal stimulus or by cutting social costs and taxes. America's record, both before and since

Ronald Reagan, is no inspiration. Thus, U.S. West German economic quarrels about interest rates and protectionism are not likely to be eased by a change in Bonn.

For Washington, the key question is what West Germany will do about deploying Euromissiles if U.S. Sovier talks remain stalled, as looks probable. Both Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Kohl are committed to accepting them. But. there is an active minority in Mr. Schmidt's party which is likely to grow and could pull the whole SPD sharply to the left when it is our of power. This would polarize politics a way West Germany has not known for more than a generation.

Moscow is well prepared to use that to advantage. Valentin Falling the former Soviet ambassador in Bonn, is the spokesman for a Krem-lin faction which believes this is the way to drive the decisive wedge be ween Europe and America.
Responsible West Germans real. angrily when their country is charged with tilting to neutralism Yer that goal of restoring unity with East Germany is still there, and West Germans react as much when they led that America is intensifying the disk. that America is intensifying the disc. son. That may be unreasonable but it is a fact of modern Europe.

So Washington must understand that it can have no serious influence.

on West German elections, and fast any pressure can boomerang. A change in leadership is unlikely is change foreign policy much.
West Germany's basic stance a hand stretched to the East but feet planted in the West — is established now, even for Mr. Strauss; who has been flirting with Moscow. Over-estimating CDU sympathy for handline Reaganism or expecting Bonn to: pull away from Paris and line up with Mrs. Thatcher on East-West issues would bring disappointment

The New York Thnes.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Pipeline Slaves?

The alarm has sounded over the issue of the Soviet pipeline. "I saw the gas slaves. I spoke to them. I know for a fact that slaves are building the Soviet pipeline toward Western En-rope," a Soviet dissident, Yuliya Voznesenskaya, declared, as quoted by the Hamburg weekly Bild am Son-tag on Ang. 15. Other evidence, some from a KGB officer living in the Soviet Union, described a concentration no to the prospect of chesp Soviet gas of "camp centers" along the pipeline - refuse to buy of use it. route where 50,000 prisoners per camp toiled in abominable conditions

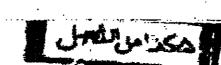

"sewing gloves for pipeline workers" and "laying down the rails."

While the dissidents have offered to show Western journalists the slave camps, a Soviet Oil Ministry spokesman has blandly denied the charges as "unrealistic," alleging that only "competent specialists could build such a modern pipeline."

Until the Soviet Union gives concrete evidence refuting the dissidents' claims, Western citizens should say

ANNE d'ADESKY.

sessment of American influence Now, without any push from Washington, Mr. Schmidt's years in power appear to be ending. Bonn is engrossed in internal political maneuvers. These are a minor matter for West Germany's allies. The main point is that after 13 years of SPD leadership, which brought an opening to the East, the pendulum may be swinging back to the party founded by the late Konrad Adenauer. But it is not the same West Germany as the one the CDU ran before. There is a worldwide economic recession, and while the government broke over the issue of how to deal with it,

Bonn now speaks for a world eco-

By John Dornberg

MUNICH — Now what, in West Germany's increasingly com-plex political drama? Even if Helmut Kohl, the Christian Democratic largely on the figures of the pollsters, not the voters at the polls. chairman, and Hans-Dietrich Hesse was supposed to have tested the public mood. The public replied that it does not want a change. Genscher, the leader of the Free Democratic Party, push ahead with their plan to topple Helmut Schmidt through a "constructive vote of no-confidence" Friday in order to make It did not want Hesse's Free Democrats to break their traditional alli-Mr. Kohl chancellor, it is increasingly ance with the Social Democrats and unlikely that they can muster the neccoalesce instead, as they have promised to do since June, with the essary 249 votes in the Bundestag which to do it. That being the case, it is also increasingly unlikely

Christian Democrats. Even less did it want the Free Democrats to walk out of their coalition with Mr. Schmidt in Bonn and make Mr. Kohl chancellor. Nor, by the way, did the Hessians want the Christian Democrats to win an absolute majority with which to govern Hesse alone. It is the growing realization today that the West German voting public in general feels likewise. And that is why the political crisis precipitated by Mr. Genscher and his friends is deepening this week.

Just how many friends does Mr. Genscher have? Within his party, resistance to his tactics has been growing since the breakup of the coalition in Bonn on Sept. 17. The party's scathing defeat in Hesse, where it was abandoned by more than half of its traditional supporters, has turned this intramural opposition into an indignant outcry, threatening a formal breakup of the party.

It comes from the Free Democrats' Genscher and his Free Democratic left and moderate wings — those lib-friends in Hesse have been displaying erals who, on the whole, agree with for the past few months; and the most of Helmut Schmidt's domestic "new majority" to which Mr. and foreign policies and who want Genscher and Mr. Kohl have repeat- the coalition to continue, if for no edly referred in recent weeks is based other reason than because it had an

After Hesse, Three Re-Dealt Hands overwhelming mandate from the peo-ple to do so in the last general election in October 1980.

That wing has already succeeded in calling a special party congress for next month, at which Mr. Genscher's political course and personal future will be on the line. For the past 10 days that wing's faction among the Free Democrats in the Bundestag has been judged strong enough to at least throw doubt on the success of the planned move against Mr. Schmidt. But the Hesse debacle has added a new element to the equation: Is that wing also strong enough, as the Social Democratic chairman, Willy Brandt, has hinted, to bolt from the ranks and forge a coalition on its own that would keep Mr. Schmidt in office? To many in the Social Democratic Party, it sounded like wishful thinking Sunday night, when the votes in Hesse were being counted. But the possibility cannot be ruled out.

Another wrinkle that has been proposed: Undo what was done on Sept. 17, annul the divorce and tie the leftliberal knot again as if nothing had happened. "If the Italians were able to do that in August, why not us?" some Social and Free Democrats are saying, alluding to Rome's short-lived werement crisis this summer. But West Germans are not Italians. The Hesse election reshuffled the deck and raised the ante, but Germans are not poker buffs. They prefer skat, a three-handed game whose object is to fulfill any of various contracts, with scoring based on strategy and on tricks won. It is the favorite relaxation in the smoke-filled caucus rooms of the Bundestag. International Herold Tribune.

instance in the matter of the culture of the people of Nicaragua, when a people is prevented from living in peace, and invasions are organized from the outside?

Culture, a human being, forms a

But he insisted that in no in-otectionist country in the world.

stance did he advocate cultural protectionism. "We are the least

Our protection is our will for development, the will to develop ourselves. We want there to be a cultural vitality in our country, and a very strong artistic vitality."

ture has begun a vigorous cam-paign to promote French cinema at home and abroad. The ministry has sponsored a series of accords for co-production and film exchanges between France and 28 other countries. Lang's stated goal is to double the export of French

He has also asked that copies of American films to be distributed in France be developed by French companies, and that American film distributors reinvest a portion of their profits in French film pro-duction. He helped negotiate an agreement between the French films by 1985.

Lang said the Ministry of Cul-

law, its political will."

ARTS/LEISURE

Jack Lang and His Cultural Crusade

By Louise Lief

DARIS — Ever since July, when Jack Lang called for a "crussde" against U.S. "financial and intellectual imperialism" at UNESCO's Second World Conference on Cultural Policy in Mexico, Socialist France's shaggy-haired minister of culture has been at the center of a storm of protest.

In his speech, "Culture and Economy — the Same Battle," he called for war against "a certain invasion, a certain submersion of fabricated images from the outside and of standardized music" that "level national cultures and want to impose a uniform way of life on the entire planet."

"Our destiny," he asked an enthusiastic audience of Third World delegates: "Is it to become the vas-

It was a strong charge from an distinguish between the two." extraordinary source. France, which has long considered itself the world's center of intellectual enlightenment, the vanguard of new movements in the arts, the ture. Lang's remarks — which were foreshadowed by his criticism a year ago of the Deauville American film festival as 2 publicity stunt by a foreign industry that needs no extra advertising in France — prompted complaints from the Americans, and criticism from French intellectual circles.

It was clear in a recent interview in Lang's sumptaous rococo office that the culture minister was trying to play it cool. "We don't want to defend ourselves against American art," he maintained. "American art is welcome here. And I repeat, on the contrary, our doors are open wider than ever."

What he meant in Mexico, he said, was that the bases of cultural exchanges had to be reconsidered with an eye to greater equity in fi-nancial relations. "Like, unfortunately if you wish, the audiovisusals of an immense empire of prof-an art and an industry. One must Lang, 43, a former professor of international law, had already stirred comment in French circles with his naconventional plans to In his efforts to bring culture to in the areas that he has singled out

Comedie Française perform in the Paris Metro, encouraged the relearning of French regional languages and more than doubled his ministry's budget to create new museums, regional culture centers and a new opera house in Paris at Bastille. A frequent theme in his speeches is the need to organize to tion of culture. He believes the United States controls too much of the market in radio, television and cinema. "I often say to the French, as I say to the British or to other peoples, 'Let's not be the passive consumers of standardized products. Let's manufacture ourselves, invent ourselves, create ourselves. Why be simply like a colony?

He sees France as playing a leading role in combatting the uniformity brought about by the spread of what he calls the impoverished language "Basic American." French language and culture. with its strong ties to many Third World countries, could serve in the fight. "Let us say that, facing the great powers, French culture in these countries appears as a source of liberation, to act as a counterweight to the hegemonic influ-Lang said that culture, at least

- popular music, television and film - has come to be treated as a Using as an example President Ronald Reagan's sanctions against the use of U.S. technology in the Siberian gas pipeline, Lang said: "You are surely aware that there are problems that arise today, for country which wants to impose on another country, in breach of the He also, somewhat contradictorily, sees culture as a political force, inseparable from its environment. "What is the culture of the Salvadoran people?" he asked. "Today, when armies, supported from the outside, come and de-stroy life in El Salvador? What is film company Gaumont and Columbia Pictures for the distribution of French films in the United

Culture Minister Lang of France: "Why be simply a colony?"

The ministry, with a film budget next year of 200 million francs ($28.5 million), will also concentrate on modernizing the French film industry, renovating the old Cinemathèque, and stepping up the national distribution of French

As for television and radio. which are under the supervision of a newly created autonomous au-Lang said he hoped they would be free "not only from political power, but also from financial power." He is not for reducing the number of U.S. films on French television, he said, but he advocates increasing the number of French and European programs.

and very good French programs," he said, "rather than buying mediocre television sub-series, which are not art but a blow for

He maintained that charges that he singled out the United States for criticism in cultural fields. while ignoring abuses in other countries, were unfair.

"Me, I could turn the question around. Why is it, when we act in favor of Poland, or in favor of other trampled liberties in the East, the press writes very little, and why, when I commit the sacri-lege of demanding more just economic relations, particularly with the United States in the cultural domain — straightaway, protests, complaints. Why? After all, he said, he only used "I prefer that in France very the word "imperialism" once.

Rare Jommelli Opera Revived in Amsterdam

By David Stevens

A MSTERDAM — What started as the Baroque revival has gradually expanded particularly in a started as the Baroque revival has gradually A expanded, particularly in opera, to a general filling in of the musical landscape of the 17th and 18th centuries so that it can be perceived as continuity instead of as a succession of isolated peaks.

Now comes Niccolò Jommelli, a Neapolitan who spent 16 years as the head Kapellmeister at the ducal court in Stuttgart. He has a tochold in history — as the "Italian Gluck," as the real inventor of the "Mannheim" orchestral crescendo, as the composer of some 70 operas — but his works have been virtually unplayed since his lifetime (1714-74). The prime mover of the lively production here of Jommelli's "La Schiava Liberata" is Alan Curtis, the University of California musicologist who has been a scrupulous reviver of early operas, from Monteverdi and Cavalli to Handel and Rameau, and who has a growing reputation in Europe as the conductor of his own performing versions. Jommelli as a candidate for musical exhumation did not occur to him, Curtis recalled, until a series of events that included the discovery of a "good and unique" piece of sacred music in a Toulouse library, coming across the ubiquitous Dr. Burney's judgment of Jommelli as the most distinguished composer of the librettos of Metastasio, and the acquisition by Berkeley of some Jommelli letters. With Marita McClymonds, then a graduate student and now a recognized authority on the composer, Curtis studied the operas and decided that "La Schiava Liberata," a

"It could not have been done in Italy, not even in Naples," Curtis said, "because the orchestra parts are much too difficult. The second violin part is difficult because his second violinist was Pietro Nardini, who was three-act serio-comico work produced in 1768 in Ludwigsburg, was "the later known as the composer of very difficult violin concertor "The orchestra is not so different from the Baroque, but the balance is different. The winds almost never double the strings, but add subtle punctuation, sometimes just with a single, well-placed note." As usual, Curtis's 26-piece orchestra uses original period instruments or copies.

This revival is a well-deserved early-season hit. The libretto has multiple points of similarity with that of Mozart's later "Abduction From the Scraglio," although it is far more complicated. Filippo Sanjust has provided an attractive and flexible Moorish setting. Rhoda Levine's staging is energetic and intelligent and, while favoring the comic over the serious, gets its laughs in the right places.

Musically, the work was every bit the delight suggested by the academic over the serious of the serious of ic research; varied, inventive and dramatically sensitive both in the or-chestra and the vocal lines. It was played with admirable verve and spirit by Curtis and his ad hor Complesso Barocco. The excellent, well-bal-anced cast included Sandra Browne in the castrato role of Selim, Rachel Ann Morgan as the Constanze-like Dorimene, the soprano Leena Kiilunen as her rival Elmira, Patricia Rozario and Martyn Hill as a splendid comic pair, Willard White a sonorous Albumazar, the light-voiced countertenor Andrew Dalton as Don Garzia, and Wouter Goedhart as Solimano, the basso monarch who unravels all with his magnanimity.

"La Schiava Liberata": Sept. 29, Oct. 3, Amsterdam; Oct. 9, Utrecht.

new movement of the control of the c film, "Killer of Sheep," currently showing in Paris, was awarded the international critics' prize at the Berlin festival and his short, "Horse," received first prize at Oberhausen, but he has yet to crack the shell of far-flamg distribution in the United States.

annug distribution in the United States.

He has just completed his second feature, "My Brother's Wedding," in Los Angeles. It will probably reach European audiences before being seen in its native land. Burnett's debut has been circuitous, but he is definitely a comer.

"Killer of Share"

is definitely a comer.

"Killer of Sheep" is set in Watts, the Los Angeles ghetto shaken by riots in 1965. Burnett grew up there.

The large property of the film examines the community more than 10 years after the turmoil that held the headlines. The backafter the turmoil that new the meaning after the turmoil that new the meaning that the provided by Den) and the commercial cinema, but inevitably to cheap melothe commercial cinema, but mevalury is in Burnett's dramatic ends. There is nothing of this in Burnett's honest, straightforward approach.

What he delivers is a sociological study on control which loid, free of the familiar trickeries. His protagonist is a sheep butcher who tries to instill in his children a sheep butcher who tries to instill in his children a sheep butcher who tries to instill in his children a sheep butcher who tries to instill in his children a sheep butcher who tries to instill in his children a sheep butcher who tries to instill in his children a sheep butcher who tries to instill in his children as Sense of solidarity as protection. One area and the daily existing the sters at their games and pranks, and the daily existence of the inhabitants. From revealing details the mood of the place and the people is conveyed, a mood set of infinite sadness, stressed by a blues accompanition. One is reminded of the Margaret Bourke-White and Erskine Caldwell photographic album of a tour in the Last of the deep South, "You Have Seen Their Faces." It is similar in its uncompromising realism and ring of U.S. films devoted to the black experience have a curious history. King Vidor's "Hallejulah" and "Hearts in Dixie," both with all-black casts, made in the early talkie days, were pioneering works. In 1968, Sidney Pottier was found in a poil to be the most toth. Passar popular American actor (he might still be, had he not and it is consist of the state Harlem and the like — proved to box-office taste. "Killer of the Sheep" may open a new chapter in the history of the genre with its firsthand, unadulterated information about black problems.

John Frankenheimer's "The Challenge," shot in Kyoto, is an especially violent melodrama, half gangster chase and half kung-fu acrobatics. The film (playing in Paris as "A Armes Egales") centers on a conflict between two brothers of warrior ancestry fighting for possession of two treasured family swords. One, sold for a carton of cigarettes to a GI after World War II, is discovered to be in California. A ne'er-do-well from Los Angeles is engaged to return the weapon to its owner. On arrival in Japan he finds himself menaced and undergoes samural training to battle the guards of an ultramodern industrial complex, the enemy's stronghold.

The action and the tale are nightmarish delirium. Frankenheimer's sharp sense of cinematic methods enlivens the combats, which are of startling ferocities that will make hypersensitive spectators squirm. The acting company, save for Scott Glenn as the American messenger, is Japanese and there are instructive lectures on the use of ancient arms, though a machine gun might have been better protection under the circumstances. When it enters into savage frays, the film has contagious vigor and excitement, but there are some languid passages between these ensemble num-

Also from the Far East comes "Jaguar," a 1980 suspense thriller of the Manila underworld, the work of the Philippine director-author Lino Brocka, His scenario is water-thin and transparent, but there is brilliance to his creation of atmosphere, his nimble editing and his photographic technique. The leading younger filmmaker of his country, he has here, as always, a distinctive personal style.

Serge Leroy's "Legitime Violence" appropriates the premise of Michael Winner's "Death Wish" and bungles it badly. It begins with an impressive explosion showing passengers in the Desuville railroad station being indiscriminately gunned down by a band of gangsters making a getaway. A man who loses his wife and daughter in the massacre is determined to bring the assassins to justice. Dissatisfied by the law's delay, he contemplates joining a self-defense league, but comes to regard its leader as a mad fanatic.

By this time, the basic situation has degenerated ice movie mu that the gaugsters were puppets mastered by a nefarious official and the news that violence b lence. Claude Brasseur is the bereaved family man and there is an interesting characterization by Roger movement, but soon after its shock start the film becomes entangled in its unlikely subplot and argues its serviceable basic situation out of its dramatic possi-

> the themes self-exploratory. However, despite his love of Russian and English 19th-century > fiction, "my whole history as a writer is in connection much more with American literature than any other kind." In his realistic treatment of the morally fabulous, he much resembles Hawthorne

Malamud is suddenly animated. "That's what Lionel Trilling said!"

and he is abruptly up and padding toward a bookcase. "Let me just

Ann Malamud appears, leaning through the doorway to tell her husband her schedule for the afternoon. He nods, stops, and with the self-conscious formality of a man for whom no emotion comes cheap, says, "I realize how dependent I've become upon you, and I'm grateful for all you're doing. I'm not ashamed to say it."

"Oh well," she says, eyes down.
"It's nothing. All in a day's work."

For a long, soft moment they look at each other, and then she gently closes the door. They have

Difficult Time

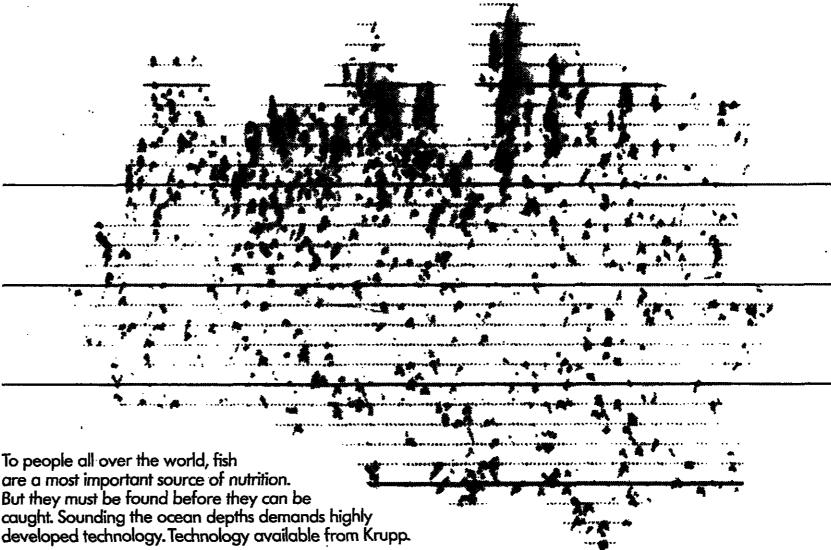

Farrar, Strans and Giroux is only printing 30,000 copies of the novel, down 20,000 from the press run for "Dubin's Lives." Malamud is resigned. "It's a very sad, diffi-been married 37 years.

get it here."

Harvest time at 50 fathoms.

We offer cost-effective fish detection systems capable of finding even individual fish at a depth of over 550 fathoms. Echo sounders to show where the fish are and catch indicators to show what has been caught in the net.

Krupp designs, builds and equips fishing vessels with the capacity to seek and exploit new fishing grounds to feed the growing world population.

Engaged in electronics, industrial plant design and construction, mechanical engineering, steel, shipbuilding and international trade, Krupp offers innovative technology and engineering worldwide that can help satisfy the world's appetite for future growth. Drop us a line.

For further information please write to: Fried. Krupp GmbH, StA Vertriebsförderung/Werbung, Altendorfer Strasse 103, D-4300 Essen 1.

Krupp. A tradition of progress.

Bernard Malamud's Nuclear Fable reflecting his admiration of George Eliot and Thomas Hardy;

1940 he entered Columbia University's graduate school, and after teaching high school at night for mine years, took a teaching job at Oregon State, still without a published book, "In many ways, I am a real child of the Depression. There was no money around, and ntil I could support my family, I de didn't know what to do with my art. That's the force of my strength of obligation. I am in many ways a strong-willed man." His son Paul, 34, an editor at the United States Information Agency in Washington, agrees. His father forbade television in the house unge til the late '50s to encourage Paul and his sister Janua to read. And be set an example of "incredible and absolutely consistent discipline," reading every night in his slow, methodical way, underlining frequently.

Malamud's work is infused with a baleful but robust humor, and Paul Malamud says his father "has a Swiftian streak in him" which leads to the "kind of acerbic, saturical quality" apparent in "God's

His subjects are as protean as his themes are universal. In his haseball novel "The Natural" (1952), he immed the soulless rapacity of an all-American lago in a thicket of symbolism, then turned to the world of poor Jewish shopkeepers for realism in "The Assist-(1957) and spare spiritual parables in his first story collec-tion, "The Magic Barrel" (1958).

Magic Barrel' first appeared," says Philip Roth, "I was a young uni-versity instructor, and the orginality of that imagination was a reve-lation to me and my friends. Malamud, like Bellow, was somebody we'd been waiting for."

"The Magic Barrel" carned
Malamud the National Book Award, as did the Dostoyevskian pathos of The Fixer (1967), based on the infamous Russian Beiliss case of 1913. His evocation of dogged dignity in the face of brutal anti-Semitism won the Pulitzer Prize for fiction. "The Assistant' should have gotten a prize too," Malamud says. "But it was the same year that Cheever wrote The Wapshot Chronicle' and I don't think anybody even looked at "The Assistant." Still, the awards considerably "strengthened my sense of my own worth and helped me to get into material I wouldn't have touched until then." He changed subjects radically again in 1979 with "Dubin's Lives," about the midlife crisis and sexual longings of a bookish biographer whose obsession with D.H. Lawrence helps him rationalize an affair with a Benningtonesque barefoot hippie named Fanny at the expense of his long marriage. The texture and structure were a

Stravinsky Stamp The Associated Press

WASHINGTON - Composer Igor Stravinsky will be featured on a new 2-cent stamp to appear Nov. 18 in New York City, according to When 'The Assistant' and 'The the U.S. Postal Service

U.K. Gallery Buys Poussin

ONDON — A painting by Nicolas Poussin that was commissioned by Cardinal Richelien, the chief minister of France under Louis XIII, has been bought by London's National Gallery for an undisclosed Art dealers estimated that the state art collection in Trafalgar Square raid about £1.3 million ($2.2 million) for the work, called "The Triumph of Pan," which depicts pagan revelers. It is the 11th work by the artist now owned by the gallery.

The purchase was a private deal with the Dent-Brocklehurst family, which kept the painting at Sudeley Castle in Gloucestershire, the home of King Henry VIII's south and last wife, Catherine Parr. Poussin, a Frenchman, painted the picture in Rome and dispatched it 70 Paris in 1636. A companion piece, "The Triumph of Bacchus," is in the Atkins Museum in Kansas City.

cult time for writers," he says, and an author can easily become dispirited from "the sale of his books, competition from television and the demands made on him to produce the kind of books that will sell in droves." Publishers, he says, often require depressingly little: "I want more than that, I want the publisher to come to the writer with joy and respect and a sense of the miracles he's engaged in." No matter what the reviews may say. "There was a time," he says, "when I was too much concerned with what people were saying about my writing" and "I learned that I must throw reviewers off my

> "But now," he says, and sudden-ly 30 years of discipline and hard-won pride are swelling his voice, lighting his eyes, "I've come to a point in my life - sacrificed my youth coming to it — where I know my work is strong."

Excellence is achieved only through consistency and innovation.

And subtlety.

Excellence, in any endeavour, is based on superior performance, day in and day out. And continued success is achieved only when like-minded professionals combine their experience and ingenuity in such a manner as to set them apart.

It is an accomplishment which requires common purpose sparked with rare determination. A special ability to conceive and execute complicated strategies with skill and finesse. Subtlety. These are parts of a real-life philosophy. A philosophy which yields handsome rewards.

Common purpose and teamwork: how they work for you.

In 1981, Renault found itself with highly specialised foreign currency needs: fixed rate, offshore Japanese yen. What they found at Bankers Trust was the experience and international reach to execute an extremely complicated multi-nation currency swap.

Bankers Trust fitted together the needs of Renault with those of a Japanese financial institution and a major Latin American borrower. The structuring of this unique arrangement required the ingenuity of our Corporate Financial Services swap teams in London and Tokyo. The expertise of our Resources Management professionals in New York and Tokyo. Our Corporate Trust specialists in London. The market knowledge and operations capability of our Tokyo branch. And that of our World Corporate bankers in Paris.

Highly skilled people from Bankers Trust's worldwide service network were brought together to work as one, carefully guided by one of our experienced relationship managers. Someone who realised the potential of people working diligently toward a common purpose. People inspired by the pursuit of excellence.

It is this kind of performance into which our philosophy translates. Performance which makes Bankers Trust stand out in our industry. And the kind of performance which helps make our clients first in theirs.

Worldwide An international banking network in over 35 countries
280 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017

Herald Eribune

BUSINESS / FINANCE

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1982

BUSINESS BRIEFS

British Airways to Drop 17 Routes LONDON — British Airways announced Monday it will cease flights on 17 North American and European routes and close seven overseas offices by next spring as part of its drive to return to profitability. The state-owned airline will save about $17.2 million a year from the cats, officials said. "The closures are a direct result of unrelenting world-wide recession in our markets," said Roy Watts, deputy chairman and group managing director. "But some sensible pruning now in markets where recession has hit us worst will ensure that the vast bulk of our network will be safe for the future."

Alexander Aims to Control Swiss Bank NEW YORK — Alexander & Alexander Services said Monday that it has taken steps to gain control of Banque du Rhône et de la Tamise of Switzerland, with the full agreement of the directors and management of Last week it was reported that Alexander's Howden Group of Britain sold its 83-percent stake in the bank in transactions in 1979 and 1981, prior to Alexander's purchase of Howden. The shares were sold to five former officials of the company who at the time of the purchase were Howden directors, but who did not disclose their interest in the pur-

An Alexander spokesman said the company is working with its Swiss attorneys to acquire control of the bank. Alexander said the five former officials, against whom the company has filed suit, had pledged to return their shares in the bank to Howden.

Plessey Buys U.S. Switching Unit

HARTFORD. Connecticut — United Technologies Corp. has announced the sale of its Stromberg-Carlson unit's central office telephone switching business to Plessey Co. of Britain for about $57 million.

Plessey said the acquisition fits in with its plans to expand its public switch activities outside Britain. The breaking up of American Telephone & Telegraph Co. is expected to create further opportunities in the U.S. market for telephone equipment.

United Technologies said it will retain Stromberg-Carlson's distribution organization, which includes 51 offices in the United States, and the private branch exchange section. Toray Sets Goals in Venture With Elf

TOKYO - Toray Industries of Japan has announced terms of its agreement with France's Société Nationale Elf Aquitaine to set up a joint venture in France to produce carbon fibers.

The new company, to be set up late this year, will build a factory with annual production capacity of 300 metric tons at Lacq in southwest France by 1984, Toray said. Capacity is expected to be doubled by 1986

The joint firm will be capitalized at the equivalent of about 10 million yen ($37,300), of which 35 percent will be owned by Toray and the rest by Elf, it said. The accord was first announced in April.

2 Alsthom Units Win Sumatra Bids

PARIS — CGEE Alsthom and Cogelex, two subsidiaries of Alsthom-Atlantique, said Monday that they have won contracts valued at more than 300 million francs ($42.2 million) from the Indonesian state electricity agency. The contracts cover construction of an electricity grid on the island of Sumatra.

Court Grants Wienerwald a Delay

SCHWYZ, Switzerland — Wienerwald, the financially troubled international restaurant chain, will be able to keep operating under a court decision made public Monday that gives it time to work out payment

A spokesman said a cantonal court here agreed to free Wienerwald from having to pay interest or principal on its debts until Jan. 15. Creditors now have until Oct. 18 to submit their claims. First estimates suggest the company will be able to meet about 60 percent of its obligations, the spokesman faid.

Wienerwald which operates more than 1,500 outlets worldwide, owes an estimated 260 million Deutsche marks ($103.6 million) to 24 West German and Swiss banks. It sought protection from the court here after a debt agreement broke down earlier this year and some banks started trying to seize its property.

LONDON - William Duncan, deputy chairman of Imperial Chemical

Rolls Says Duncan to Be Chairman

Industries, has been named chairman of Rolls Royce effective in April, the company said Monday.

Mr. Duncan will replace Lord McFadzean, who retires in April.

Financial Analysts Meet in Mainz

MAINZ, West Germany — The European Federation of Financial Analysts will open their four-day biennial conference in Mainz Tuesday. The theme of the conference is "Forecasting Investment Decisions in a Rapidly Changing World." Otmar Emminger, the former president of West Germany's Bundesbank, is to be the featured speaker on Friday. About 600 analysts are expected to attend.

Compiled From Agency Dispatches

Algeria, Italy Sign Gas Deal

Rome — Italy signed a long-term agreement Monday to buy natural gas from Algeria, ending a two-year pricing haggle that de-layed the flow of gas through a trans-Mediterranean pipeline for nearly a year.

The agreement, negotiated by Italy's foreign trade minister, Nicola Capria, and Energy Minister Belkacem Nabi of Algeria, was initialed by the two ministers at a ceremony at Premier Giovanni Spa-dolini's office.

The accord sets a price of $4.41 per million British thermal units delivered — above the $4 Italy reportedly had offered but below the $5 to $5.50 the Algerians were be-lieved to be seeking. The price will be linked to a basket of crudes and will be reviewed periodically.

Gas-trade analysts said Algeria had managed to bring the price up well above the $3.50 specified in a 1977 agreement with Italy, but they said the contract still fell that the said the contract still fell short of Algeria's objective of pricing gas at parity with crude oil, in terms of heat delivered.

25-Year Pact Under the 1977 contract between the Italian state energy group ENI and Algeria's Sonatrach. Algeria is committed to supply Italy with 12.5 billion cubic meters of gas (about 437.5 billion cubic feet) for 25 years. Italy is to buy four billion cubic meters of gas beginning in 1983, rising to its

The gas should start to flow to Sicily through the $3.5-billion undersea pipeline in November. Under the 1977 accord, the gas final level by 1986.

should have started flowing last October when the pipeline was completed by the two countries. But in September Algeria demanded a higher price.

Italy estimates the current market price at around $3.80 and has accepted a higher Algerian quote on the understanding that Algeria will use the difference to buy Italian goods, Trade Ministry sources said in Rome. Italian newspapers said that, under the accord, the Italian government will pay the difference be-tween the market price of the gas and the price agreed on between Mr. Capria and Mr. Belkacem.

Officials said pressure for a settlement increased because of uncertainty over alternative supplies from the Soviet Union through the controversial Siberian pipeline and because Algeria had blocked imports from Italy in order to in-crease pressure during the gas ne-

The Algerians have led a producer campaign to price gas at par-ity with crude oil. But largely because of projected Soviet sales, generously supplied in the late 1980s. Soviet officials have agreed to sell West Germany gas from the Siberian pipeline using a 1981 base of $4.70, close to the new Algerian-

Italian price.
In a continuing effort to reduce dependence on crude oil and diversify sources of energy supply, the Rome government itself hopes to sign new gas supply contracts with Moscow. Last month, the govern-ment joined France and Britain in defying the embargo ordered by President Ronald Reagan,

Hungary Gets NYSE Prices Advance Standby Loan On Blue Chip Buying

From West Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches BASEL, Switzerland — Western central banks granted Hungary a $300-million standby credit Monday to help it meet debt repayments and cope with other finan-

The credit was extended for six months in the expectation that Hungary will during that period become eligible for assistance from the International Monetary Fund.

The agreement on granting the credit was reached at a regular monthly meeting of Western central bankers at the Bank for International Settlements, which acts as a sort of central bank for central

The Hungarians have been feeling the effects of the financial problems in Poland," one central

Liquidity Squeeze

Hungary suffered a severe liquidity squeeze earlier this year be-cause of the withdrawal of about cause of the withdrawal of about $800 million of short-term commercial bank deposits. The country already has received $210 million of short-term finance from 13 central banks. Those funds were provided in two parts, in March and April. The country is also reported to have drawn down an existing $300 million line of credit with the BIS carry in the year. In August, Hungary received a $260-million, three-year loan from Western commercial banks. Hungary's request for further financing was discussed at the last meeting of central bankers in Basel July 12. The bankers postponed their decision until Hungary started talks on a standby credit with the IMF, which it did earlier this month. Hungary joined the IMF last May. Hungary's agreement on a loan from the IMF is expected to be ready in about a month, according to a financial source quoted by

Dollar Values
S Currency U.S.S Gentle Correccy
Geothe Streethers 5
0.862 S. African road
0.004 S. Korean was 0.008 Spoulsh passin
0.552 Swadish kroed
0.8251 Tolven 5
0.8254 That labb
0.2722 U.A.E. dirbum

units needed to buy one pound. (*) Linits of 100. (x) Units of 1,000.

NEW YORK - Prices on the dence that the bull market still has upward momentum because buyers have been consistently re-New York Stock Exchange railied in the final hour of slow trading Monday, closing narrowly mixed to end a three-day retreat from a entering the market when prices go

Analysts noted that institutions are still sitting on large amounts of Analysts said buying of blue-chip issues was spurred by traders taking advantage of the recent cash, which prevents that market from making any significant downward moves

The Dow Iones industrials average, which fell 15.27 points over the three previous sessions, rose Woolworth was very active and climbed 1% to 24%. The company announced Friday that it would close its 336 U.S. Woolco stores. K the three previous sessions, rose 1.38 to close at 920.90. The blue-chip average had been down nearly mart, a competitor of Woolco, was 5½ points earlier in the day.

Declines led advances by a seven-to-six margin, and volume shumped to a very low 44.84 milalso active and rose % to 22%. Volume leader Carolina Power fell one to 19% and Duke Power lost one to 21%. Analysts attribu-ted the drops to an unlavorable Nov. I by Noel Phillips, a former rate decision by North Carolina against Carolina Power.

The Value Line stock index fell 0.07 to 134.06, and the stock-index futures contracts ranged from up 0.95 to up 1.10. The Standard & Poor's 500 index rose 0.30 to 123.62 and the futures contracts ranged from up 1.10 to up 1.20.

CURRENCY RATES

lion shares from Friday's 54.60 million. The volume was the lowest since 44.72 million shares changed hands on Aug. 13, principally be-cause of Monday's observance of Yom Kippur, the Jewish holiday. The end of the Bendix-Martin

Marietta takeover battle resulted in huge price moves for those com-

(Stertion: 1.25%) rish L

Interbank exchange rates for Sept. 27, excluding bank service charges. D.M. F.F. PL. Gidr. B.F. S.F. 109.44 24.755 0.194 -- 5.657 127.59 5 193.229 48551 3.4455 17.646 -- 22.755 1.425 127.59 5 1.425 127.75 127.75 1.425 127.75 1.425 1.427 1.427 1.4266 127.742 2.420.57 4.711 123.25 2.4714 1.427

Aftermath of a Takeover

For Allied, a Hodgepodge That Confuses Observers By Barnaby J. Feder

NEW YORK - Even before it acquired Bendix, Allied Corp. had convinced Wall Street that the company's decision last year to drop "Chemical" from its name made sense.

With a growing oil and gas business and major acquisitions that plunged it into electrical and electronic products, instrumentation and the health field, Allied clearly is not the old chemicals, fibers and plastics company it used to be.

But what is it? Although Edward L. Hennessy Jr., Allied's acquisitive chairman and chief executive officer, has often outlined Allied's long-range goals, analysts said the changes have come so fast that investors have had a hard time figuring out how to assess Allied's current performance and near-term prospects.

On Friday, Allied acquired Bendix for nearly $1.9 billion, or $85 a share, ending a complex takeover battle that started in August when Bendix announced that it wanted to take control of Martin Marietta. Under last Friday's accord, Allied retains about (Continued on Page 11, Col. 1)

For Bendix, Freedom Lost In a Negotiated Surrender

New York Times Service

DETROIT — What began as an all-out assault ended as a nego-tiated surrender for Bendix Corp. and its chairman, William M. Agee. Unsuccessful in its attempt to take over Martin Marietta, Bendix is to become a subsidiary of Allied and Mr. Agee an em-

The decision by Mr. Agee to drop his bid for Marietta and accept a takeover by Allied would appear to end a tumultuous two years for Bendix, once a relatively obscure producer of automotive parts and aircraft equipment. Although Mr. Agee will remain chairman of Bendix and become president of Allied, the ultimate decisions affecting the company will be made in Morris Township, New Jersey, the headquarters of Allied.

"I expect things will begin to subside" once the takeover is completed, said William C. Roney 3d, a securities analyst with Wm. C. Roney & Co., a Detroit brokerage firm. "I suspect,

(Continued on Page 11, Col. 1)

William M. Agee

For Marietta, Heavy Load Of Debt and Cut in Equity

By Isadore Barmash New York Times Service

NEW YORK — Martin Marietta Corp. appears to many analysts to have been battered and bloodied by its costly victory to retain its independence. They believe its scope has been reduced, its equity cut, its debt load inflated and its earnings potential dimmed. Its future appears cloudy, they add, and the giant aerospace-aluminum-cement producer may bear lasting scars.

But the company is saying in effect: Wait, things aren't quite what they appear. "The analysts' perception that our independence came too dearly is a very narrow concept," said William D. Keough, Marietta's director of investor relations.

"It's like looking at one frame in a movie film," he said, "not even an indication of what's coming until you see many more frames. Because of a combination of tax deferrals, a cyclical turnaround in non-aerospace divisions and aerospace programs coming to fruition, our near-term and long-term futures are much brighter

(Continued on Page 11, Col. 5)

U.S. Trade Deficit Widened in August To Record Level

WASHINGTON — The U.S. merchandise trade deficit widened to a record $7.1 billion in August as the American appetite for for-as the Author appendix to for-merce Department said Monday. The August deficit followed a $2.3 billion deficit in July and a $3.4 billion deficit in June and was the largest monthly deficit ever recorded, officials said.

The value of imports jumped 20.2 percent in August to $24.6 billion compared with the previous month, when imports declined 8.1 percent, the department said. The value of exports was down 2.9 per-cent in August to $17.5 billion compared to July when the value of exports was down 4.2 percent. Impressed by Rise

Trading patterns so far this year have suggested that the 1982 mer-chandise trade deficit could exceed last year's $39.7 billion shortfall, Commerce officials said.

"It's not hard to envision" a larger annual deficit, David Lund, a department trade specialist, said. Mr. Lund said the import surge alone may have also set a record.
"I'm impressed by the breadth of that rise," he said. He said it was not a statistical abberation.

Mr. Land said the increase in imports "was what you might expect to see if demand were firming," perhaps an early sign of ci-ther a recovery from the recession or anticipation by dealers of a strong Christmas season. He said the increase in imports was confirmed by the fact that the Customs Service reported process-ing a record 470,000 import documents in August.

The U.S. current account, which includes purchases and sales of services as well as goods, showed a $2.1 billion surplus during the second quarter and a $3.2 billion surplus through the entire first half of the year. Although trade in services, from banking to insurance, has been growing at a slower rate than trade in goods, it has consist-ently shown a surplus offsetting merchandise trade deficits.

Oil Inflow Climbs

The cost of oil imports in August increased 8.6 percent to $6.2 billion in August, partially a reflec-tion of the approaching winter heating season, Mr. Lund said. Oil imports climbed in value by 8.4

perceat in the previous month.

The volume of oil purchases climbed 8.6 percent to a level of 6.14 million barrels a day in August, compared to 5.65 million barrels a day in July.

The trade deficit with members of the Organization of Oil Export-ing Countries was $1.35 billion in August, compared with $1 billion in July and $568 million in June.

But far more striking than the expected increase in oil purchases was the $3.6 billion increase in the value of imports other than oil, a category which had dropped by $2.4 billion the previous month. The increase in the nation's appearance in the nation's appearance. tite for imported products other than oil was generally across the board and set a record for that category as well. The increases affected textiles, clothing, footwear, office machines, communications equipment, tires, and paper. However, imports decreased for metal ores; scrap metal and iron and steel mill products.

In line with an increase in domestic production, Canadian auto imports showed an increase of 57 percent to $758 million for August.

Mr. Lund said another significant factor fueling the August deficit was an increase in imports from Mexico, where goods have become relatively cheaper because of devaluation of the peso. At the same time, exports to Mexico, made more difficult by new controls on currency exchanges, have de-creased. Exports to Mexico that had been at a level of about $1.2 billion in May and June slipped to $1 billion in July and to $795 million in August.

Manufactured

Still another factor was the decline in the August figures of a sizable amount of exports that were attributable in the previous two months to the sale overseas of floating oil-drilling rigs, Mr. Lund

The trade in manufactured goods showed a deficit of $2.8 billion in August. In July the same category had moved to a surplus of $1.1 billion after a deficit of $875 million in June. The deficit for the first eight months of this year was $25.5 bil-lion. All of the figures were adjusted for normal seasonal variations in trading.

To Our Readers

Closing U.S. stock and futures prices will appear in all editions for the next five weeks due to Western Europe's return to standard time last weekend. The United States will return to standard time on Oct. 31, restoring the sixhour difference with Europe. At that time, some editions will restock prices and day-old futures

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

THE WESTON GROUP

VW's McLernon Resigns as U.S. Chief

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches
DETROIT — The president and chief executive officer of Volkswagen of America, James W. McLernon, resigned Monday in a move the company termed a "great surprise" but which industry ana-lysts had been predicting for weeks. The company's sales are off

Thomas G. Pownell

sharply this year. The announcement came a few days after officials with the parent company in Wolfsburg, West Germany, expressed concern over developments in the world automobile market, attributing their negative outlook partly to the poor results in North America.

The departure of Mr. McLernon, who led the company through some of the most difficult years the U.S. auto industry has known, had been rumored for weeks because of slumping sales of the company's once-popular Rabbit. The VW statement said that Mr. McLernon "gave no indication of his future plans." According to a VW spokesman, deliveries in the United States in the first eight months of this year totaled 145,964 units, 36.6 percent less than in the same period last year. The U.S. company was marginally profitable in 1981, earning slightly more than $500,000, after registering losses in 1980 of $38.1 million.

Mr. McLernon, a former Gener-

GRAND HOTEL

A house of tradition an outstanding reputation for the very highest standard

VW executive vice president, the company said. Mr. Phillips, 48, currently is managing director in South Africa of the McCarthy group, an automotive products Mr. McLemon joined VW in 1976 as president of Volkswagen Manufacturing Corp. of America, which then oversaw VW operations in the United States. He became president of Volkswagen of America in 1978 when the manufacturing and sales and marketing companies were merged. Poliback in North America Earlier, John Tagliabue of The New York Times reported from Slumping auto sales in the Unit-ed States are causing Volkswagen to pull back sharply on its North American plans, delaying indefinitely the start of production at two new plants in the United States and Canada.

A company spokesman reached Friday in Wolfsburg would not confirm reports that the company had a buyer for one of the new plants, the $300-million facility in Sterling Heights, Mich. But the spokesman said the company would consider a sale if an interested party made a serious offer."

Volkswagen purchased the plant in 1980 and refurbished it to manufacture 180,000 units a year of its

Rabbit and Jetta models to meet what it thought would be growing Last year, the company announced plans to invest $82 million to acquire and equip an auto parts plant in Barrie, Ontario. The goal was to have the Canadian plant supply the plant in Sterling Heights and a Rabbit assembly plant in Westmoreland, Pennsylvania, with such items as axles and engine parts.

Under a U.S.-Canadian automotive trade agreement, Volkswagen would have been allowed to export parts to the United States or to import finished Rabbit models to Canada duty-free. EXTERNAL U.S. $ BONDS

Enquiries to: CH-1003 LAUSANNE 2 Rue de la Paix. Telex: 25869. Tel.: 021/20 17 41.

This announcement appears as a matter of record only.

$57,997,024

Pan American World Airways, Inc.

Safe Harbor Tax Benefit Transfer Lease Three Boeing 727-221 Aircraft

The undersigned arranged the placement of this transaction with an institutional investor.

Lehman Brothers Kuhn Loeb

new york · Atlanta · Boston · Chicago · Dallas BOUSTON · LOS ANGELES · SAN FRANCISCO · LONDON · TOEYO

September, 1982

Ю

Grumm Grum Guardi Giffinal Guffinal Giffstu 1.40 pr2.80 .36 .75 2.80 1.54 pr4.40 pr4.40 1.32 f. 1.78 是2000年, 1000年 7年的外状以外的线线线,特性特殊的特殊的特殊的特殊的,并不是一种的特殊的,并不是一种的特殊的,并不是一种的特殊的,并不是一种的特殊的,并不是一种的特殊的,并不是一种的特殊的,并不是一种的特殊的,并不是 19th Liver of the construction of the construc 2.26 pf 3.50 1.92 1.13 pf 1.36 pf 2.16 pf 2.76 pf 2.76 pf 2.76 pf 2.76 pf 2.25 pf 2.25 pf 2.25 pf 2.54 pf 2.54 pf 2.54 pf 2.54 pf 2.54

74 infract 224 inft 7 74 infract 225 inft 7 78 infract 225 inft 7 28 inft 7 28 inft 7 28 infract 225 i 2.66 pt 2.52 pt 4.50 p 14% JWT
19% JmssF
13% JRNer
7% JanspF
22% Jefferilt
50 JerC
43% JerC
44% JerC
44% JerC
11% JerC
11% JerC
22% JewsC
23% JewsC
23% JewsC
25% JewsC
27% JewsC
2 1,48 40 1 .92 1,40 — 314 KDI
2914 KLM
1916 K Mari
1114 KotsrA
1115 KotsrA
115 KotsrA
116 KotsrA
116 KotsrA
117 KotsrA
118 KotsrA
118 KotsrA
119 KotsrA
110 KotsrA
110 KotsrA
111 KotsrA
11

STATES THE TAKE TO SERVE THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY THE TAKE TO SERVE THE PROPERTY THE PROPERT

23 Lorei 67s LaGeni 1996 Lolland 1996 Lolland 1996 Lowenst 1995 Lowenst 1995 Lowens 1995 Lowens 1996 Luckys 1996 Luckys 1996 Luckys 381/2 91/2 2014 2014 2014 1816 1816 1816 1816 2744 1944 1954 2055 1827 1844 1844 1844 THE MACOM

ACCOM

ACCOM 是是这种,我们是这种,我们是是这种,我们是这个人,我们是这个人,我们是这个人,我们是这个人,我们是这个人的,我们也是这种,我们也是这种的,我们也是这种的,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是这个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人的人,我们也是一个人的人的人,我们也是一个人的人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也不是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个人的人,我们也是一个 1.505 3.4 (4.200 m) 2.50 m)

1754 NBC 1154 NBC 1154 NBC 1154 NBC 1154 NBC 1154 NBC 1154 NBC 1155 NBC 115 46 40 72 120 111/2 Ooking
177/2 Ooking
177/2 Ooking
177 Ooking
17 Ooking
17 Ooking
16 Ooking
18 Ook 17½ PHH
7% PNBM
29 PPG
17% PSA
9 POCAS
20 POCGE
22½ POCLUM
16¼ POCPW 74 1,25e 2,36 ,40 1,40 2,76 3,76 2,16

Rate of Contribution to Increase Rate of Wholesale Price

Month-to-month increase rate of wholesale prices (left scale)

July AS ON Dec. Jan. FM AM JJ

Note Yendollar exchange rate is and quotations. Source: Bank of Japan

It is still premature to pass judgment as to how long this trend will sustain itself. Labor

Ministry surveys show that both this year's gain in summer bonuses and wage settlements are smaller than the comparable percentages for last year. Prospects for winter bonuses are dim. It is likely, therefore, that disposable income this year will not grow as

Moreover, the percentage of non-consumption expenditures like tax and social insurance premium) to net income has been fast growing --- 15.3 per cent in the first half of 1982 compared with 14.1 per cent a year earlier and 10.9 per cent live years before. This is turning out to be a major drag on Mining and manufacturing production in June rose 1.7 per cent from the preceding month after continuous month-to-month decline since last November, except in March.

However, manufacturers are expected to continue to cut back production for the time consumption expenditures.

Slow production

fast as it did last year.

250

L 210

Export

经营业社会记忆,那是这门工法中下营业会已经创发了。2017年7月中,以现实工作了历史工作之后,这种主义是自己的人,是自己的人,是是一个人的人,是是一个人的人,也可以是一个人的人的人,也可以是一个人的人的人,也可以是一个人的人,也可以是一个人的人的人,也可以是一个人的人,也可以是一个人的人的人,也可以是一个人的人的人,也可以是一个人的人,也可以

230 5 86 120 5 86 120 5 86 120 5 86 120 5 86 POCP PRINTED TO THE PROPERTY OF PRINTED TO THE PRIN .12 1.74 $1.08

Restand
Resylin
Resylin
Resylin
Resylve
Resylv

(Advertisement)

MIC REP

severely limited for policy makers in Japan per cent decline in the April-

With exports falling and domestic demand staying slow, there appears to be no immediate solution to a host of problems besetting the Japanese economy. In addition, concern has emerged that the weakness of the yen could eventually start affecting price levels and corporate results.

While the yen has been responding nervously to the developments in the U.S. monetary policy and international financial situations, including Mexico's trouble, it is yet to shake off its weakness. Given the extreme sluggishness of domestic markets, the ven's weakness will not immediately translate into a rise in prices of domestic goods, but its prolonged weakness will eventually start affecting them.

It already is putting a serious squeeze on energy-related enterprises, like oil refiners and power generation companies, through increased costs of raw materials and fuels.

At the moment, domestic prices are very calm. Wholesale prices rose 0.2 per cent in June and 0.6 per cent in July, but the rise was almost exclusively attributable to higher import prices, especially those of crude oil and coking coal. The rise of domestic product prices in July was a marginal 0.2 per cent. Prices of basic materials rose 1.9 per cent, intermediate products 0.5 per cent, and finished products 0.2 per cent. These trends indicate that the impact of the yen's weakness is still limited to the upstream of the production

Consumer prices are also exhibiting an unusual calmness. The index for June remained unchanged from that for the preceding month and was up only 2.2 per cent from a year earlier. In July, prices grew even more subdued, with the index dipping 0.8 per cent from June and its year-to-year margin narrowing to 1.9 per

Exports slow

Network in Europe

Exports in dollar value on a customs basis dropped 1.3 per cent in July from the previous month after seasonal adjustment. The drop followed a 6.5

June period from the preceding quarter. Likewise, imports in July fell 0.9 per cent from June following a 10.4 per cent drop in the April-June period. Both exports and imports fell for the sixth consecutive month in a year-to-year comparison, with the decline being particularly precipitous after May.

The slump of exports has been caused by a combination of stagnant overseas economies, trade frictions, and dwindling foreign currency holdings of oil-producing coun-

By product category, electric appliances and automobiles continued to be sluggish, while ships dropped sharply by 32.6 per cent from a year earlier due to the depressed shipping market. (They were down 26.3 per cent during the May-July period from a year earlier. Low imports were attributable largely to a sharp drop in crude and raw oil. For the first seven months of this year, exports declined 5.0 per cent from a year earlier. So did imports by 6.2 per cent. Export letters of credit received, a leading indicator of exports, also dropped 7.3 per cent in July from a year earlier. It is increasingly likely that the total value of exports and imports during 1982 will end up behind the 1981 figure.

Capital investment dwindl-

With the business outlook growing in severity, corporate capital investment is estimated to grow by a marginal 1.7 per cent during the six months to June, and fall off by 1.8 per cent in the following six months, according to an Economic Planning Agency survey announced August 6. It also noted that variances in the rate of growth of investment according to the size of firm are bound to be enlarged: it is only big corporations, especially those with capitalization of ¥5 billion or more, that are slated to mark a steady increase in capital investment. However. as economic stagnation gets protracted, capital investment is cooling not only at smaller firms, but at big ones as well,

Head Office: 1-5. Uchsawarcho I-chome Chwoda-ku, Tokyo 100 Japan Tel (03) 596-1111 Brenches and Agency at: New York.

Los Angeles, Chicago, Panama, Toiper, Seoul, Singapore Representative Offices at: Houston, Toronto, São Paulo, Meveo Criv. Caracas, Buenos Aires, Bahran, Jakarts, Kuala Lumpur, Banghok, Sydney Subsidiaries at: Los Angeles, Toronto Hong Kong, Sydney Associated Companies at: Rio de Janeiro, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, Jakarta, Mania, Melbourne.

Capital expenditures are generally slack in the manufacturing field. So are they in the non-manufacturing sector, with the exception of power generation, construction, banking and insurance, and services.

(%) 0.6 - 0.5 •

0.4

0.3

0.2

-0.1

-0.2

-0.3

-0.4

-0.5

three years.

Orders for machinery

Private orders for machinery. a leading indicator of capital investment, dropped 13.7 per cent in the second quarter from the prior period. Orders placed by power generation companies fell 52.8 per cent in reaction to a sharp 112.8 per cent rise in the preceding period, while orders for ships continued to fall, by 52.5 per cent following a 11.7 per cent decline in the preceding period. Private orders, exclusive of those placed by power companies and those for ships, dipped 0.2 per cent for two consecutive quarters. The machinery industry forecasts a continued decline in private order awarded in the third

Personal consumption up While most indicators continue to move downward, personal consumption seems to be on a path of moderate recovery. But there is a major problem noted at the same Sales at big retail outlets (like department stores and supermarkets: in June marked a 6.6 per cent rise over a year earlier, but those at depart-ment stores in Tokyo in July ended up with a marginal 1 per cent gain because of slack sale of summer goods due to unusually cool weather preceded by a longer-than-normal rainy season. During the first six months of 1982, disposable income after inflation grew 2.9 per cent from the preceding six months. The gain took place after two periods of drop - 0.8 per cent in the first half of 1981 and I.I

per cent in the second half. An important factor behind this gain was an increase in income, averaging 7 per cent, counled with a calm trend of consumer prices. As a result, real consumer. spending in the first six months of this year registered a gain exceeding 3 per cent for the first time in being, as indicated by a decline Talk it over with DKB.

DAI-ICHI KANGYO BANK

The next DKB monthly report will appear Oct. 28.

Franc 4% - 4% 4% - 4% 5 - 5% 5 - 5%

Floating Rate Notes

SA AFFIGUR OCC 69-45
SULE 54-85
SULE 54-85
SULE 54-85
SK Warries 594-85
SK Warries 1994
SFCE 649-80
SFCE 649-80
SFCE 649-80
SFCE 548-84
SFCE 548-84
SFCE 548-85
SF

in May) or 1.42 million persons. Stalemate in policy Beset by a multitude of problems, policy-makers are finding options severely limited virtually nothing seems to be immediately effective. Japan can do nothing about the slowdown of overseas demand. At atime when two major areas of final demand - exports and personal consumption - are bereft of strength, it looks doubtful if augmentation of public works investment, which is strongly urged by some quarters, can work as pump-in capacity utilization and aggravation in seasonally-adjusted unemployment in June to

2.48 per cent (from 2.35 per cent

priming, leading the Japanese economy out of the doldrums. One of the prime factors for the policy stalemate is the massive shortfall of the treasury revenues. The virtually bankrupt fiscal rebuilding program should now be put to an exhaustive review so that the Government can come up with a more practical and workable schedule to lay the foundations for the restructuring of the Japanese econo-

The international bank that listens.

U.S. $6,800,000.-

processor, weather faximile, etc.

2000 YOUR OWN LUXURY YACHT 1880 TO

EUROPEAN PRINCE SELLS

WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFUL

big yacht in this class of full-safety. Built in Holland to Lloyd's 100-Al highest class. Luxury cabins with bathrooms for 12 guests. Livingroom, diningroom, study. 2 kitchens, 2 messrooms, aft.-deck for parties, sundeck, fly-bridge-deck Satellite navigation. 2 radars, telex with word-

Telex 25581 LINAC NL. (HOLLAND).

Closing prices, Sept. 27

Non Banks: Aziender Sta-99
Aziender Sta-99
Aziender Sta-99
C.P.D. e Etectr Sta-98
C.P.D. e Etectr Sta-98
C.P.D. e Etectr Sta-98
C.P.D. e Etectr Sta-98
C.P.D. e Etectr Sta-99
Leading Sta-99 Leading

Herald Tribune Wine as you like it convertible European contencyequivalent for each topy; oneside Europe, please add $6: chuivalent for each copy.

Book Division, 181 avenue Charles-do-Gaulle,

Please send me. WINE AS YOU LIKE IT.

مكداس للمل

Herald Tribune wine columnist Jon Winroth brings you facts, tips and tales in this great new wine book.

Jon Winnoth lists half-a-degen substitutes for champagne then with wit and imagination, tells you when (and when not) to serve them! Just one example of the useful information which fills this beilliant and beezy book Dedicated to the proposition that we can all get more himout of buying, serving and donking wine WINE AS YOU LIKE IT reflects the anti-snob approach of a true professional, who believes that wine societs are to be shared and not hoarded. A marvelous book to own or to give (or both!). Order today. A publication from the back division of the U.S. $18 or equivalent in any Burger, please add $1.50 or Complete and return this coupon with your check or money order to: International Fierald Tribune, 92521 Neally Cedex, France.

Allied Turns Into a Confusing Conglomerate (Continued from Page 9) chemicals, and fibers and plastics are the two segments representing stock, but will allow it to remain independent. chemicals, and fibers and plastics mized after the purchase last fall of Fisher Scientific Products for $330 million.

"Ed Hennessy has put a lot of stuff together since he took over in 1979, but what has he got? asked Martin Ziegler, a long-time chemical industry analyst who has followed the company for Moseley, Hallgarten Estabrook & Weeden Inc. "The jury is out and f don't know when it will come back. It could be five years before we find ont whether the way he has altered the profile is worth it."

Allied has been restructured into five main business segments under Mr. Hennessy; chemicals, includ-ing agricultural and specialty

Oil and gas operations, the lead-ing income producer, were expand-ed by John T. Connor, Mr. Hened by John T. Comor, Mr. Hennessy's predecessor. After an unsuccessful $6.5-billion bid for Marathon Oil Co. and consideration of an offer for Cities Service, Mr. Hennessy added his own imprimatur this year to the development of the energy segment by acquiring 50 percent of Supron Energy Corp. for about $400 million.

Allied bought Eltra Corp. in 1979 for $592 million and Bunker Ramo in 1981 for $358 million to Ramo in 1981 for $358 million to form the core of the electrical and electronics group. The health and scientific products group was orga-

A sixth business group covers a hodgepodge of embryonic efforts in fields such as lasers, amorphous metals and powdered metals.

It all seemed to be coming together smoothly enough until the oil market slumped and the reces-sion cut into the performance of both new and old businesses. During the first six months of this year, net income dropped 15.2 percent, to $145 million, or $3.39 a share, while sales rose 1 percent, to $3.21 billion.

The problem in the minds of some analysts is that paying for ac-quisitions such as Eltra, Bunker Ramo and Fisher at a time when the poor economic climate is limit-ing their contributions to earnings could be penalizing shareholders by as much as $1 a share.

The Bendix acquisition at such a time is expected to create doubts among investors concerned with near-term prospects. Even those enthusiastic about the company, such as Jay Harris, an analyst who follows Allied for the institutional research arm of Balis & Zorn Inc., expect the move to exert down-ward pressure on Allied's stock.

"I think the company is well-positioned," Mr. Harris said. "If an error is being made, it is in not al-lowing enough time for the earlier acquisitions to prove themselves before embarking on this one.

Bendix Loses Freedom; Agee Loses Power

(Continued from Page 9) though, this outcome was not Bendix's ultimate objective when they set out on this adventure."

If the high adventure is over for Mr. Agee, it may not be for Bendix month as various divisions of the corporation were rumored to be candidates for trading away as part of yet another complicated transaction. Edward L. Hennessy Ir. Allied's chairman, indicated at a news conference Saturday that while he had no immediate plans for Bendix, "some restructuring of our balance sheet will have to be

Nor is Mr. Agee's own future

Agec will not be involved in acquisitions, Mr. Hennessy said. "We have not determined what Mr. Agee will do as president of Allied," Mr. Hennessy said at the

Mr. Agee put the most positive interpretation on the end result in extensive interviews over the weekend with local newspapers. "I have no doubt in my mind that this was the best deal for Bendix and its shareholders," Mr. Agee told The Detroit Free Press.

He did, however, acknowledge entirely clear. Mr. Hennessy has said that Mr. Agee, despite his title as president of Allied, will be limited to administering Bendix. Mr. Age will not be involved in account. he had hoped all along that the takeover could be on friendly terms and added that he would have been willing to concede the chief executive post of a combined Bendix-Martin Marietta to Thomas G. Pownail of Marietta, but he said the subject was never raised. He said Bendix officials had considered the possibility that Marietta might begin a coun-teroffer, but assigned it a low probability because the company did not have sufficient financial muscle. Marietta enlisted the assistance of United Technologies

Corp. in its counterattack, some-thing Bendix planners had not an-ticipated. (On Monday, United withdrew its offer to buy Bendix shares, as expected in light of the Allied-Bendix-Marietta accord.) "The big losers in all this are the corporations themselves," said Alan Benasuli, an analyst with New York. "The fact is that $2 billion has been paid out and it's irreversible. Companies that were financially strong are now a lot more leveraged and they will have to issue stock at a significantly lower price than they paid for the shares acquired to put their bal-ance sheets back in shape."

Other Markets Hong Kong 9.50 10.10 97.50 7.52 7.53 11.80 12.85 11.80 12.85 12.

BAT INDUSTRIES

Group Results	Half ye	ars to	% change
(unaudited)	30.6.82	30.6.81	over	31.12.81
			June 1981
Turnover	4768	4226	+13	5039
Trading profit	323	265	+22	369
Interest paid less received	31	28	+11	9
	292	237	+23	360
Share of associated com- panies' profit before tax	34	. 32	+ 6	55
Profit before taxation	326	269	+21	415
Taxation	134	124	+ 8	157
Profit after taxation	192	145	+32	258
Minority interest	22	16	+37	24
Net profit attributable to B.A.T Industries	170	129	+32	234
Dividends The Directors declared.	 	16	· Nasaanba	- 1000 an interim dividend out of the profit for the twelve months to 31 December 1982 at the rate of 12.5p per share on the Ordinary Shares.

Transfers received in order by the Registrar of the Company up to 18 October 1982 will be in time to be passed for payment of the interim dividend.

As explained in the interim report issued in September 1981, the dividend pattern has been simplified to one of a single interim and a final dividend with the declarations linked to announcements of Group results. The following is a summary of the interim dividends declared for the half years to 30 June 1982

Interim paid 1.7.81 Interim paid 4.1.82 12.5p Interim payable 16.11.82 12.5p 14.5p The final dividend will continue to be paid at the beginning of July.

The results of overseas subsidiaries have been translated into starling for the purpose of this report at rates of exchange ruling on 6 September 1982 (the latest convenient date), when sterling was at US $1.721 and Dm4.275. Comparative figures have been translated at rates ruling on 31 December 1981, and had the same exchange rates ruled on 6 September 1982 as at 31 December 1981, it is estimated that the figures would have been translated to the following: Turnoven £4558 million; Thading profit, and the same are translated to the following: Turnoven £4558 million; Thading profit, and the figures would have been translated to the following: Turnoven £4558 million; Thading profit.

£304 million; Net profit	attributab	le to B.A.	T Industries, £	59 million.
Industrial Analys	sis .
•	Half ye	ars to 30,6.81	% change over	31.12.81
Turnover	£ milli		June 1981
Tobacco	2696	2416	+12	2906
Retailing	1117	958	+17	1222
Paper	475	416	+14	415
Packaging & printing		233	+ 9	259
Other trading activit		203	. +11	237
	4768	4226	+13	5039
Trading profit		*
Tobacco	266	205	. +30	264
Retailing	. 6	. 15	· -60	57
Paper	` 39	26	+50	21
Packaging & printing	7	- 8	-12	-12
Other trading activit	ies 5	11	-55	. 15

Sir Peter Macadam, Chairman, comments:

"Our businesses in general have performed well in difficult circumstances, although improvement was not at the same excellent rate as in 1981."

"The results for the first half of this year reflect our ability to continue to grow despite worldwide recession, with turnover up by 13 per cent in sterling terms, pretax profit up 21 per cent and attributable profit by 32 per cent, when compared with the same period last year."

"There was some decline in total Group cigarette volume, but improvements in margins in some major markets contributed to a satisfactory increase in tobacco profits."

"The US retail industry entered a phase of harsh competition with much higher promotional activity...the hard going has temporarily arrested BATUS Retail's high rate of profit growth... Retailing in the UK has continued to be difficult but International Stores made a modest profit in the first half of the year."

"Appleton Papers in the USA performed well...Wiggins Teape improved its results in the UK. There were good results from the carbonless copying paper business in Europe."

"This is not any easy time to predict the outcome for the year with any precision. The second half of the year will not show the growth in profit reported in the first half but, subject to any adverse changes in exchange rates, I expect the year as a whole to demonstrate a real advance on last year."

B-A-T Industries p.l.c. - Windsor House - 50 Victoria Street - London SW1H ONL

Debt Grows Ominously At Marietta

(Continued from Page 9)

than the present. And, given those and other points, who is to say that our stock cannot rise to $75 a share from the $48 a share Bendix paid for it?"

Maybe so. But Marietta, which suffered a 44-percent drop in its net income for the first half despite a 6-percent gain in revenue, this week has the aspect of a trailer-truck jackknifed between two bigger trailer-trucks.

After Bendix attacked last month with a purchase of 25 million Marietta shares at $48 each for a $1.2-billion investment, Marietta bought about 10 million Ben-dix shares for $750 million, borrowing heavily. Last Wednesday, Allied Corp. stepped in with a $2.3 billion offer to acquire both Ben-dix and the 30 percent of Marietta stock not already owned by Ben-dix. Separately, Allied dickered with Marietta to swap the Bendix stock owned by Marietta for the Marietta stock owned by Bendix.

The result was to give Marietta its independence but at a cost of $450 million — the gap between Marietta's and Bendix's stock purchases. It also left Marietta with debt of about $1.3 billion, up from about $500 million.

"Marietta is now a company with only about $400 million in equity, down from $1.2 billion, while its debt has sharply expand-ed," observed Alan Benasuli, aerospace analyst for Drexel Burnham Lambert Inc. "That makes it a financially crippled company after having added a lot of debt to stay unbought. Now it has to increase its equity and maybe issue new stock, but how much and at what price? Who will buy the stock even at $48, the price Bendix paid? It's all a very mixed bag - and rather Marietta shares, which stood at $43.50 when trading was halted last Thursday on the New York Stock Exchange, sank to $34 when trading reopened early Monday. The shares were trading at around $24 in early August. Guy P. Wyser-Pratte, an arbitrageur for Bache Halsey Stuart Shields Inc., said Marietta may be independent but that it has become financially bereft.

U.S. Aide Says Leading Indicators Fell in August After 4-Month Rise

By Alver Carlson

Resters
WASHINGTON — The index of leading indicators, a closely watched measure of U.S. economic trends, will show a decline for August after rising for the previous four months, according to Robert Dederick, the Commerce Depart-ment undersecretary for economic

The index is to be released Thursday by the department.
"It has been evident for some time that the index would be down for August," Mr. Dederick said "But there is nothing to suggest that the recovery has not begun or nothing to suggest we are not going to have a recovery," he add-

The index had been on the rise in April, May, June and July after declining for about a year. In July, the index went up 1.3 percent, and Commerce Department officials said brightly that "recovery is on Calling the index a "volatile se-ries," Mr. Dederick said the Reagan administration stood by its position that the long-awaited re-covery was at hand. When we look back, I believe we will see that the economy began to recover in the spring," he said.

While closely watched by Wall Street and other economic centers, the index and other economic indicators released by the government have become more important politically as the United States ap-

Brazil Widens Limits On Imported Products

RIO DE JANEIRO - The Banco do Brasil has issued a communiqué widening the list of products that cannot be imported into Bra-zil. The move is aimed at stopping imports of products that are produced internally in sufficient quantities to meet demand, a senior of-ficial of the central bank said Monday.

imports for the chemical, petromical and pharmaceutical sectors, as well as industries that depend on imported machinery comproaches the Nov. 2 congressional In a weekend radio address,

President Ronald Reagan defend-ed his economic policies, which he said had substantially reduced inflation and interest rates. Mr. Dederick said the index suggests that the economy was mov-ing along irregularly and that the upturn was more modest than in ome previous recessionary peri-

He declined to estimate the size of the index's contraction in August, saying data were not yet com-plete on the 11 indicators it mea-

ders for consumer durable goods, the length of the factory work week, new home construction per-mits and new orders for capital

Another indicator is the direction of the stock market, which has recently been on a rally. This figure, however, will not show up in the index until the September re

Selected Over-the-Counter

All of these Securities have been sold. This announcement appears as a matter of record only

U.S. $100,000,000

Bank of Tokyo (Curação) Holding N.V.

13%% Guaranteed Bonds Due 1989

Unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed as to payment of principal and interest by

The Bank of Tokyo, Ltd.

BANK OF TOKYO INTERNATIONAL S.G.WARBURG & CO.LTD.

ALGEMENE BANK NEDERLAND N.V. CHASE MANHATTAN CAPITAL MARKETS GROUP

COUNTY BANK

DEUTSCHE BANK AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT

AMRO INTERNATIONAL

BANQUE PARIBAS

DG BANK

ORION ROYAL BANK

CAISSE DES DEPOTS ET CONSIGNATIONS

GENOSSENSCHAFTLICHE ZENTRALBANK AG

GOLDMAN SACHS INTERNATIONAL CORP.

HANDELSBANK N.W. (OVERSEAS) LTD.

KUWAIT INVESTMENT COMPANY (S.A.K.)

MERRILL LYNCH INTERNATIONAL & CO.

SAMUEL MONTAGU & CO.

PK CHRISTIANA BANK (UK) LTD.

SPAREBANKEN OSLO AKERSHUS

SANYO INTERNATIONAL LTD.

TOKYO FINANCE (ASIA) LTD.

KIDDER, PEABODY INTERNATIONAL

MORGAN GUARANTY LTD

BANK BRUSSEL LAMBERT N.V.

CREDITANSTALT-BANKVEREIN

SOCIETE GENERALE DE BANQUE S.A.

CREDIT LYONNAIS LLOYDS BANK INTERNATIONAL NOMURA INTERNATIONAL

SOCIETE GENERALE UNION BANK OF SWITZERLAND (SECURITIES)

MORGAN STANLEY INTERNATIONAL

BANKERS TRUST INTERNATIONAL

CITICORP INTERNATIONAL GROUP

CREDIT SUISSE FIRST BOSTON

BANK OF AMERICA INTERNATIONAL

BANQUE EUROPEENNE DE TOYKO S.A.

YAMAICHI INTERNATIONAL (EUROPE) ARAB BANKING CORPORATION (ABC)

BANQUE FRANCĂISE DU COMMERCE EXTERIEUR

BANQUE NATIONALE DE PARIS BERLINER HANDELS- UND FRANKFURTER BANK BARCLAYS BANK GROUP CREDIT COMMERCIAL DE FRANCE COMMERZBANK

> DAIWA EUROPE DRESDNER BANK

THE DEVELOPMENT BANK OF SINGAPORE GIROZENTRALE UND BANK DER OESTERREICHISCHEN SPARKASSEN GULF INTERNATIONAL BANK B.S.C.

JARDINE FLEMING (SECURITIES) LTD. KREDIETBANK S.A. LUXEMBOURGEOISE

KLEINWORT, BENSON KUWAIT FOREIGN TRADING CONTRACTING & INVESTMENT CO. (S.A.K.)

KUWAIT INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT CO. s.c.k. MANUFACTURERS HANOVER

MITSUBISHI TRUST & BANKING CORPORATION (EUROPE) S.A. NATIONAL BANK OF ABU DHABI MORGAN GRENFELL & CO. THE NIKKO SECURITIES CO., (EUROPE) LTD.

PIERSON, HELDRING & PIERSON N.V. SALOMON BROTHERS INTERNATIONAL RABOBANK NEDERLAND SCANDINAVIAN BANK · SAUDI INTERNATIONAL BANK

SWISS BANK CORPORATION INTERNATIONAL TORONTO DOMINION INTERNATIONAL BANK WESTDEUTSCHE LANDESBANK GIROZENTRALE

ZENTRALSPARKASSE UND KOMMERZIALBANK, WIEN

WOOD GUNDY September 22, 1982

J. VONTOBEL & CO.

NORDIC BANK PLC

mo sside in the second is the cy:

.or
.t t n w
.ula
.ich
.go
.ns
.rei
.ent
.ws
.He.

var eat

one sis sta ind in it is in it um IT.

np: ed. You idg e n with of htir

nne ed Ea ich ich vic vic

y y y t in ives at it ives at it is a real it is it is a real it is a

RISS special single state on the second seco

2.60 A10 pf2.16 3 n1.44 1.10 4.10 pf2.40 pf2.87 2.12 2.65 2.16 2.5 3.0 2.54 1.80 pf2.86

For advertising information contact: New York. New York 10022

Tel.: (212) 752.3890. or your local IHT representative.

If it's your business to do business with Turkey, there's one thing you need more than anything else: A source of regular, accurate information. With Turkey's economic recovery now well under way, this is even more important than ever. That's why you should make sure you get a copy

It's a highly informative month-by-month guide to the underlying trends in the Turkish of these numbers: economy, and we'll be happy to send it New York 751 1135, to you regularly, free of charge. Zurich 211 9322, We can also let you have any of our Frankfurt 23 33 95, other English-language publications about London 628 2907. specific aspects of Turkish business and law.

everything you'd expect a major commercial bank to know about its home country. And withoffices in New York, London, Zurich and Frankfurt, we speak your language as well as ours.

Please write to Dr. Metin Berk, Vice President, Yapı-Kredi Bank, Korsan Çıkmazı, No. 1, istiklal Caddesi, İstanbul.

of the Yapı-Kredi Monthly Economic Letter. Telex 24279 yaum tr. Or call YKB at one Yapı-Kredi is one of Turkey's largest private banks, with 592 branches all over the country. We can tell you The Turkish Bank that speaks your language.

50 800 54 56 56 56 .101 244 250 250 .10 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 12.75 40 .12 wt AB n n 11.02 cm 11.02 92177.22 = 590 816.22 10 — HA EUROY.

J. PG1
TAL FRA
10% Februar
10% Februar
5% Februar
14% Februar
11% Februar
17% FineGE
33% FineRet
13% Flucks
13 35 16 29 14 60 60 6 6 6 21, 12 23, 12 53 26 28 12, 11

Open High Low Settle Che.	U.S. Futures Prices	Sept. 27	FRENCH FRANC Sper france 1 point syams 18,000 Loc 13450 13730 13450 13450 —8 1000
WHEAT 5,000 bu minimum; dollars per buthel 5,000 bu minimum; dollars per buthel 10c 2.39% 1.41% 1.34 2.34%0.5 Mor 1.46 170 1.44 2.44%0.94% 1.01 1.69% 1.71% 3.44% 1.44%0.94% 1.01 1.76 2.79 1.75 1.79 1.79 Sep 1.76 1.79 1.75 1.79 1.79 Dec 1.95 1.95 1.90 2.970.29% Prov. soles 12.39%, 1.95 1.96 2.970.29%. Prov. dov's open int 51.14%, up 742.	Open High Low Settle Cas. FRESH BROILERS SAME But Crists per to Oct Open High Low Settle Cas. Frey day's open ind 10. FOOD MAINE POTATORS SAME But Comits per to.	Oct 457.00 459.00 452.10 452.10 -13.70 Dec 67.50 455.00 450.00 452.00 -14.50 Feb 455.00 477.50 462.70 462.70 -14.50 Apr 451.00 452.00 462.50 462.50 Jun 451.50 462.50 462.50 462.50 Prev. scies 52.76. Prev. day's appen in 113.886. off 811. Finsincial	Jun
CORN 5,600 be unbifum; desirers per buntel 5,600 be unbifum; desirers per buntel 5,600 be unbifum; 25 22% 25% 25% 25% 4.00% 4.00 26% 25% 25% 25% 25% 4.00% Micr 24% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 4.00% Jul 245% 245% 245% 246% 246% -00% 25% 276% 273 273% -0.00% 276% 25% 25% 25% 25% -0.00% 276% 25% 25% 273% -0.00% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 273% -0.00% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25	New 4.26 4.27 4.38 4.27	UST. BALLS SI MBHon; pts of 180 pct, Oec 90.34 90.34 90.71 90.89 +.51 Ner 90.45 89.23 87.45 87.89 +.85 Jum 99.86 89.23 87.45 87.78 49.90 Lum 99.86 89.23 87.34 87.78 48.90 Dac 81.73 80.73 80.74 4.20 Dac 81.74 81.64 81.74 81.74 42.74 Lum 10.78 41.74 81.64 81.74 4.74 Lum 10.78 41.74 81.64 81.64 81.64 81.64 Est. waters 16.357. Prev. soiles 21.185. Prev day's open int #8.774, off 87.	JAPÁNESE YEM openis siláness; Sper Yess I speint openis siláness; Dec SEUTOS SEUTOS SEUTOS SEUTOS DES JARON SEUTOS SEUTOS SEUTOS SEUTOS JARON JARON JARON SEUTOS SEUTOS SEUTOS JARON JARON JARON SEUTOS SEUTO
SOYBEANS 5.000 be interiment; delitars per benkei 1.000 5.41 5.400 5.41 +.001/2 1.000 5.41 5.400 5.41 +.001/2 1.000 5.41 5.40 5.50 5.50 +.001/2 1.000 5.40 5.72 5.401/2 1.000 5.600 5.40 5.72 5.401/2 1.000 5.700 5.700 5.700 5.700 1.700	Mary 125.60 196.76 195.15 185.60 195.76 195.	GRAMA SIRMANS princy pits & 320mds of 100 pric SIRMANS princy pits & 320mds of 100 pric Dec. 67-10 67-10 67-10 67-10 67-10 Moor 67-10 67-10 67-10 67-10 Jun 67-10 67-10 67-10 67-10 Dec. 67-20 67-10 67-10 Jun 67-10 67-10 67-10 Jun 67-10 67-10 67-10 Jun 67-10 J	Prev. pulses 9,684 Prev. day's count hat M.(F), 100 (2011). Industrials LIMBER TRANS NA. 15 107 (1078) 102 (1071) 102 (1071) New HATS 16470 16
SOYBEAN MEAL 100 tons: delians per for 194.50 153.30 154.30 154.20 —.78 Oct 194.50 155.30 154.30 159.50 158.64 —.50 Dec 164.00 164.30 165.30 165.30 165.30 —.30 Jon 164.00 164.30 165.30 165.30 165.30 —.30 Mory 167.50 167.50 166.50 167.30 —.30 Jon 170.30 170.30 169.30 169.30 —.30 Jon 170.30 170.30 169.30 169.30 —.30 Aurg 170.30 170.30 169.30 169.30 —.30 Cod 170.30 167.30 169.30 169.30 —.30 Cod 170.30 169.30 169.30 169.30 —.30 Cod 170.30 169.30 169.30 169.30 169.30 —.30 Cod 170.30 169.30 169.30 169.30 169.30 —.30 Cod 170.30 169.	Prev day's open int 47,455, off 262. COCOA No matric tass; 5 per tea Dec 1540 1554 1469 1512 -21 Dec 1640 1422 1577 1590 -19 Mary 1645 1640 1630 1632 -16 Jul 1685 1685 1680 1690 -13 See 1720 -13 See 1770 -13	Juni Prav. scies 5.514. Prav don's open int 45,187, up 362. US TREASURY BONDS ($\text{gc.}\stanta\text{scies}\text{ats}\text{scies}\text{ats}\tex	Actor 172.50 172.50 172.50 171.50 — 6 181.50 — 174.00 174.
Prev. soles and int 50,853, up 668. SOYBEAN OIL 68,890 Rbs; delicer; per 168 Rbs. Cot 1756 17.15 17.56 17.54 + 40. Dec 1756 17.52 17.62 17.67 + 40. Jon 17.63 17.52 17.64 17.77 + 50. Metr 18.55 18.26 18.25 18.05 18.05 18.05 Mov 18.05 18.45 18.45 18.45 18.45 Jul 18.45 18.45 18.45 18.45 18.45 Sep 19.20 19.20 19.25 19.25 - 50 Oct Prev. soles 7.533. Prev day's open int 44,282, off 36.	Est. soles 2400. PTeV. SERVA (2004.) PTeV don't de 17/063. ORANGE JUNCE 15/06 Re.; Cambr per lb. 15/06 Re.; Cambr per lb	To 16 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10	Prev. dom: 100 int 1.222.06 7. COTTON: 2 COTTON: 2 CH. St. St. St. St. St. St. St. St. St. St
Prev. soles 771. Prev. day's open int 44,262, off 349. OATS S,000 bu minimum; dollars per beakel Dec 1.57 1.57/6 1.62/6 1.52/4	Jen Prev. soits TRL Prev day's open int 5.674, off th. Metals COPPER 25.00 Rs. J contis per Rs. 25.00 Rs. 37.00 Rs. 37.	Sep Prev day's open int 11,00, off 90. CERT. DEPOSIT 11 mailtien; pits of 100 pcf Sep Dec 81,25 80,47 89,57 + 48 Dec 81,25 80,48 81,25 80,42 - 40 Mac 81,25 81,45 82,5 81,42 - 44 Jun 101,25 81,45 87,35 87,37 + 47 Prev soies 4,331 Prev day's open int 10,340, off 170.	Prev. miles 1977. Prev. doy's open by 24.467, off 118. PREATISES OIL #2,889 gai; cassis per ear Oct 99.65 197.95 197.25 197.48 —UR New 190.16 160.95 190.16 100.40 —DB, Cec 191.10 167.95 190.0 107.45 +.06 Ion 188.90 197.55 180.00 197.25 +.02 Fesh 191.00 167.05 100.00 107.25 +.02 Fesh 191.00 167.05 100.00 107.25 +.02
Livestock CATTLE 64.98 Rs.; cmts per lb. Oct 64.00 60.32 93.0 93.2 -35 Oct 64.00 60.35 60.20 60.37 -35 Fab 64.00 60.35 60.25 60.37 -35 Jun 64.0 60.35 60.25 60.37 -35 Jun 64.0 60.35 61.25 61.37 -35 Jun 64.0 60.35 61.25 61.37 -35 Jun 64.0 60.35 61.25 93.0 93.0 Oct 64.0 61.35 61.25 61.35 93.0 Oct 64.0 61.35 61.25 61.35 93.0 Oct 64.0 61.35 93.0 93.00 93.00	Sep 6.20 6.70 999 999 999 990 000 000 000 000 000 0	EURODOLLARS SI million;pits of 160 pct. Dec	Marr. 91.2 103.10 97.2 108.00 +.30 Apr. 97.5 97.50 97.50 97.50 97.50 Apr. 97.50 97.50 97.50 97.50 Est. soles 1,9% Prev. soles 5,7% Prev. dov's eyes int 21.63.1.up 130. Stock Indexes sapromp. INDEX. polats ond casts Doc 122.40 134.20 121.50 134.25 +1.10 Marr 122.12 134.71 122.15 134.25 +1.10
Est, soles 14,331, Prev soles 22,341. Prev dov's open int 44,528, up 381. PEEDER CATTLE 44,009 fbs.J cents per fb. Oct 64,55 64,70 64,05 64,1535 Nov 64,10 64,55 63, 67,5536 Nor 64,06 64,50 64,06 64,0735 Nor 64,06 64,06 67,06 67,06 67,06 Nor 67,70 67,70 67,15 67,3030 Nor 67,70 67,70 67,70 67,70 67,70 Nor 67,70 67,70 67,70 64,5535 Description of 15,564, 91,493. Prev dov's open int 8,584, 91,493.	Sep	1725 - 305- Jun 124.00 124.00 124.00 125.00 +1.10 Sep Prov. soles 15.626. +1.10 Prov. doy's open int 11.500, ort 257. VALUE LINE points and contra Sep 124.00 125.55 134.00 +1.55 Sep 124.00 125.00 134.00
HOGS 34,888 bs.; cents per lb. 2.50 61.95 62.15 - 55 Oct 62.90 61.95 62.15 - 55 Oct 62.90 61.95 62.15 - 55 Oct 62.90 61.95 62.97 62.90 62.95 62.	Prev. sales 11.653. Prev day's geen let 27,165, up 74.	Market Guide Chicage Beard of Trade: Wheez, corn, soybeans; soybean med. soybean all, calls, frish brollers, T-bonds, GNAMA, 18-yr T-notes, phywood, Chicage Mercontile Exchange: Cuttle, feeder cuttle, host, sork betiles, lumber, S&P composite index, Here York, Mercontile Exchange: Maline potatues, platinum, heating oil. Coffee, Super- and Cocca Exchange, New York: Coffee, Super- cocca. Cottee Exchange, New York: Orange	Prev doy's open int 3.5%, up 77. NYSE COMP. INDEX points and cants Sap Dec 71.15 71.25 99.5 71.15 +45 Mor 71.45 71.25 99.5 71.15 +45 Jun 71.00 71.00 71.00 71.55 +45 Jun 71.00 71.00 71.00 71.55 +45 Sep Dec 72.55 +45 Prev day's open int 5.244, off 201. Commodity Indexes
PORK BELLIES 38,600 fbs.; cents per lb. 38,600 fbs.; cents per lb. 48,70 fbs.;	GOLD 108 hrey or.; delicat; per troy ez. 108 hrey or.; delicat; per troy ez. 108 hrey or.; delicat; per troy ez. 100 or. 100	cocoo. Christ Recomment was one or of the condition and Yerk Comment Copper, Silver, ook in it American Market: T-bille, CO's. Eurodellers, British pound, Comodien dellar, French franc, German mark, Japanete yen, Swiss franc, Kassas City Beard of Trade: Volume Line. New York Futures Exch.: NYSE composite Index.	Close Previous 98.70 98.80 98.70 98.80 98.70 98.80 98.70 98.80 98.70 98.80 98.70 9

Paris Commodities Gold Markets Gold Options (prices in $/02.) 1.500 1.500 1.515 1.445 1.445 1,600 1,522 1,466 1,394 1,362 1,257 1,366 1,196 1,185 1,142 1,115 1,140 1,113 1,677 1,539 1,396 1,268 1,199 1,106 1,106 1,106 Valeurs White Weld S.A 1, Quai da Mont-Blanc 1211 Geneva 1, Switzerland Tel. 31 0251 - Telex 28 305 Highs and Lows

U.S. Money Rates

Cash Prices

THE TOTAL PROPERTY OF THE PROP

A CARACTER AND A CARA

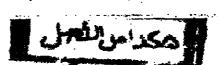

Sony Sees Profit Decline

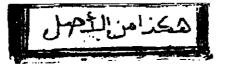

TOKYO — Sony Corp. expects group profit in the year ending Oct. 31 to show a decline of 15 to 20 percent from a year earlier, a company official said Monday.

Last year's profit was restated at 66 9 billion year ($251 million) 66.9 billion yen ($251 million) from 61.76 billion yen to reflect adoption last Nov. I of a new accounting standard, the company

Inflation Rate Slows in EC

BRUSSELS — Consumer prices in the European Community rose 10.7 percent for the year ending Aug. 31, down from 11 percent in the 12 months to July and the lowest rate in three years, the EC sta-

Monday's AMEX Closing Prices Tables include the nationwide prices up to the closing on Wall Street.

~

.76 .20 .72 .72

212 26e 972.25 54f .10e .17 7.48b

15% 15% 15% 15% 15% 15% 15% 15% 16% 16% 16% 16% 7868 SENSON (1944) 1573 6 BENEVICE TO SENSON
in the state of th 104 SGL 1 1 SSAD SGL 1 1 SAND SGL 1 SAND | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 134 | 13 ,18e pt ,90 pt ,90 pt ,90 pt ,90 pt ,46 pt , 25 49 25 13 22 13 25 19 25 19 .41 .70 .70 .50 .50 .40

24 14.54 15. p1.25 24 wf ... 9. 24 wf ... 9. 24 wf ... 25 ... 26 13% 33% 76 11% 24 106 3 44 76 4-16 116 76 64 9 - 年記記を作っ AND 14 AND 15 AN

U.S. Tool Orders At Lowest for '82

New York Times Service

New YORK — New orders for machine tools fell in August to the year's lowest level, according to the National Machine Tool Builders' Association.

The $82.9 million of new orders placed in August was 22 percent below July's rate and 61 percent below that of August 1981, the association said Sunday. But shipments of new machine tools rose slightly during the month, the association said. August's total of $257.2 million was 3 percent above July's rate, although it was 21 percent below August 1981.

Total orders for the first eight months of 1982 were 51 percent below those placed in the corresponding 1981 period, while shipments were 20 percent lower.

James A. Gray, the association's president, said the August order rate was "hardly heartening to our recession-beleaguered industry."
But he noted that machine tool makers were somewhat encouraged by activity at the International Machine Tool Show in Chicago, which closed Sept. 17.

He said that while attendance at the trade which closed Sept. 17.

He said that while attendance at the trade show was below 1980's record, the association was impressed with the turnout of 96,000, which he called "remarkable in light of the economy." Mr. Gray said the trade show was evidence of "a high level of interest in the technology and the productivity offered by modern machine tools. Unfortunately, the state of the economy is dictating reluctance on the part of otherwise eager machine tool buyers."

At the end of August, the industry's backlog stood at $1.7 billion, representing about seven months of work at current shipment rates.

.40 .40 .45

International Herald Tribune We've got news for you.

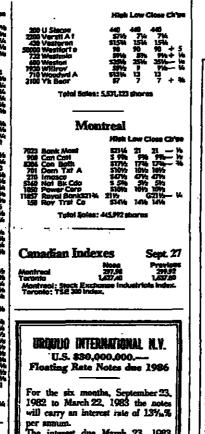

Canadian Stock Markets

WETH P. THOSE

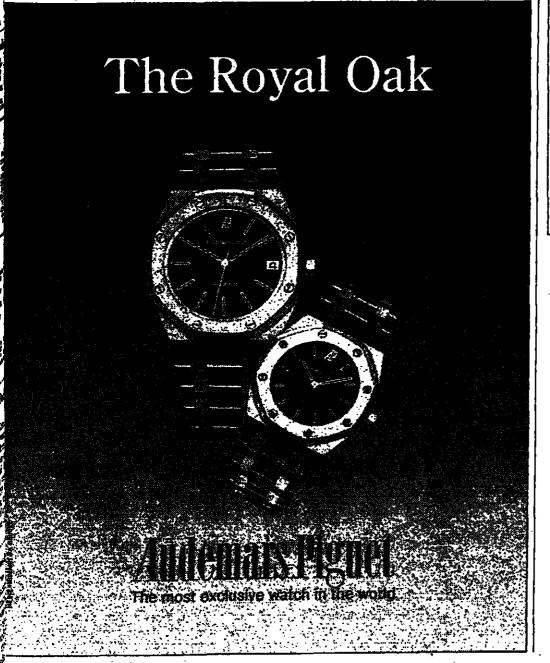

LET M. I. IN HIGH

TO THE M.

International Herald Tribune ads work

The Principal Paying Agent SOCIÉTÉ GÉNÉRALE ALSACIENNE DE BANQUE

WestLB

Headquarters; P.O Box 1128 D-4000 Düsseldorf 1 Tel. (211) 826-01 Franklust Office, Tel. (611) 25791 Branches London, Tel 638 6141 New York, Tel. 754-9600 Tokyo, Tel 216-0581 Luxembourg, Tel 44741 WestLB Asia Limited, long Kong Tel. 5-259206 Representative Offices hepresentative Offices, Laun-America Office New York, Tel. 754-9620 Rio de Janeiro Tel 2624821 Toronto, Tel 8691085 Tokyo, Tel 213-1811 Melbourne, Tel. 6541655 Participations
Banque
Franco-Alternande S A Paris, Tel 5630109
Banco da Bahta Investimentos S.A.
Bio da Janearo

We channel your resources into sound investments.

Government bankers, portfolio managers, trust administrators and other institutional investors have come Germany's top three interto appreciate WestLB's broad range of sophisticated investment instruments.

In addition to its own DM bonds and Schuldscheindarlehen, WestLB, one of national banks, offers investment opportunities in fixedinterest securities in major international currencies. Advice on equities is also part of the Bank's professional counselling services.

When next reviewing your investment strategy, benefit from WestLB's multiple facilities.

Westdeutsche Landesbank

A strong force in wholesale banking

Inc. Signature of the second o

/WÉ

Cy OI I t

w. ula ich igo usk reij ent ws He; var eat

Го

; p

por

ЖD

one stad to the stad of the st eve ivel outs equ ean tail

st

t o nm IT, li t

a c

npi e d Voi idg e ii

10

nic

ed Es neli vic nal t re rali in res v p

y y Ted 1 ives e al liar los ise ise ise ise in most y di se ti be

079

RISS specials as: in the rt, the thy the the tree!

3, S

างณี

ALT OBE IMU ARL

CROSSWORD

ACROSS 1 Forearm bone 5 Fuel from vegetable 9 Sin city 14 Make a (flub or succeed)

15 Monster 16 Oleoresin 17 Fountain 20 Saturate 21 "----well!" 22 O.R. personnel

23 Scorch 26 Sermon code 28 Clammer's delight 31 Make a god of 35 Explorer

Johnson 36 "The Apartment" 40 Perry's creator

41 Fountain treat 44 Supplements, with "out" 45 Оссиру

47 Traffic-control device 49 Dormer window 51 Baste 54 Cruising 55 C.P.A.'s

ALGARVE ALGIERS AMSTERDAM

BUENOS AIRES

CHICAGO COPENHAGEN COSTA DEL SOL DAMASCUS

FRANKFURT

GENEVA

HARARE

HELSINK

HONG KONG HOUSTON ISTANBUL JERUSALEM LAS PÁLMAS 'LIMA LISBON

CAPE TOWN

ARKARA

ATHENS

58 City in Belgium

60 Lariat 64 Fountain treat 68 Anklebone 69 Hollow out 70 European volcano 71 Delusion's

28 Novelist

29 Japan's

Samuel

greatest port

34 Saudis' divided

37 Russian plane

38 Florida resort

heart a rake":

В

9-28

30 Decreased in strength 32 Goddess of 33 Aptitude

neighbor

39 Sweet, but 42 "But every woman

drink

43 Et-

48 Having

50 Saluted

53 Talent

52 High pass

55 Book of the

56 Fictional sleuth

59 Musial

57 Fountain treat

61 Westernmost

63 Neighbor of 61

Down 65 Candidate for a

62 Vols' state

pound 66 Three-faced

67 Common gull

Claudy Claudy Fair Fair Overca Overca Overca

Overcos

Other Funds

woman

Aleutian island

branches

partner 72 Comprehended 73 Dip, as a doughnut

DOWN 1 Cries of disgust 2 Swag 3 Fix in the mind 4 Feign 5 Small herd of whales 6 Humpty Dumpty, e.g. 7 Region 8 Designer of Niagara power system

9 Became aware

10 Outworn 11 Precious 12 Portent 13 Overlook 18 Laborious

19 Einstein's birthplace 24 An Astaire 25 Send fresh

WEATHER

LOS ANGELES MADRID MANILA MEXICO CITY

MIAMI MILAN MONTREAL MOSCOW MUNICH

NASSAU

MEM DELIK!

NEW YORK NICE OSLO PARIS

REYKJAVÍK RIO DE JAMEIRO ROME SAO PAULO

SEQUL SHANGHAI SINGAPORE

STOCKHOLM SYDNEY TAIPEI TEL AVIV

ADVERTISEMENT

INTERNATIONAL FUNDS

SEPTEMBER 27, 1982

DM 1747*

$1,1465 $1,0046* $1,6671 $1,7775* $21,13*

$ 31.30

INTERNATIONAL INCOME FUND
28-34 HII St. St. Heiler, Jersey
— (d) Shorf Term 'A' (Accum) ...
— (d) Shorf Term 'B' (Accum) ...
— (d) Shorf Term 'B' (Accum) ...
— (a) Shorf Term 'B' (Distr) ...
— (w) Long Term.

ROTHSCHILD ASSET MGTM (CI): — (r) O.C. Dir Commodily T(....

PARISBAS - GROUP

SWISS BANK CORP

ALL THINGS BEING RELATIVE, I PERCEIVE "TIME" TO BE THE LEAST RELEVANT OF ALL!

U

WELL, ANYWAY, HE AN' CHUCK ARE ON THEIR WAY OVER .. COME ON INSIDE, AND WAIT ...

DO YOUREALIZE IT TOOK YOU 9.5 SECONDS TO SAY THAT?

SO YOU'RE "MARBLES"

YOU WON'T BE HUNGRY

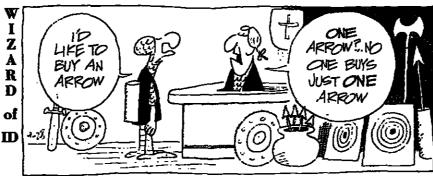

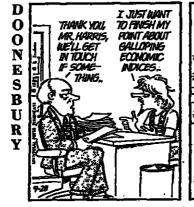

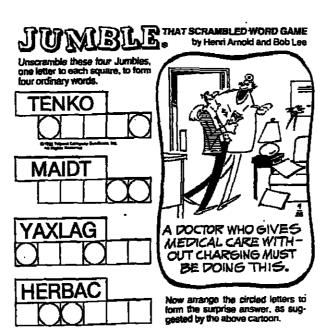

Print answer here: (Answers ternerrow Jumbles: RIVET TEASE ANYWAY DROPSY Answer: What the guy who made a pass at the wrong girl got—INTO DEEP WATER

Imprimé par Offprint, 73 rue de l'Evangile, 75018 Paris

DENNIS THE MENACE

"Does your Mom put Garlic in the ICE cream, too?"

THE TORCH IN MY EAR By Elias Canetti. Translated from the German by

Reviewed by John Leonard

TF YOU thought you had heard

I more than enough about Elias

Canetti's mother in the first volume of Torch in My Ear" - a most unfortunate title for any book -deals principally with Canciti's weaning of himself away from her in the direction of Veza, the literary young woman who

To be sure, we are reading as well about postwar Vienna en route to fascism; about Karl Kraus, the Viennese critic whose lectures and whose magazine. Die Fackel (The Torch), made such a lasting impression on a surpassingly impressionable young Caneth; about George Grosz Beriolt Brecht and Isaac Babel, all of whom he met on a visit to Berlin, and about his grappling at the writing table with mass psychology (in his "Crowds and Power"), obsessional neurotics ("Auto-da-Fé"), red-haired Mormon beggars, ogres, dwarfs, crystals, ter-mites, "acoustic masks," metamorphosis and the Oedipus complex.

But Mother, who was never the same after she came back from the sanitarium, is the spider of his web. He would not agree. She was good for him, up to a point. A case could be made that suggests he turned to fic-tion before "Auto-da-Fé," in his letters to her. She was in-Paris, furning at his infatuation with Veza. From Vientain Mother with stories about them."

These women, about whom Mother had many opinious, didn't exist, but at least they weren't Veza. No wonder his earliest influences, before Karl Kraus, were Strindberg and Gogol. No wonder, to this day, he despises Freud, who was reduced to a single footnote in "Crowds and Power." No wonder Veza, full of Tolstoy and Heine, "a person who had found characters in great literature and inserted them for her own multiplicity," teased him for being "an inveterate misogyn-ist." If you think of yourself as Sam-

And no wonder, finally, that the image of Thomas Marek, the philoso-pher who so powerfully haunts Canet-ti at the end of this volume, also paralyzes him. Marek, with the eyes of Mesmer, was a brilliant, disembodied brain, a paralytic who had to be pulled around in a wagon. Who pulled the wagon? Marek's mother.

he reduces Freud. All I know of him is what he tells me, and his attitude toward Frend, like his attitude — which is extremely hard to find — on

Marx is of a piece with his broad rejection of any determinism. Even as he studies himself for any sign of spontaneity, he will insist: "No one has ever succeeded in explaining

Solution to Previous Puzzle

I don't mean to reduce Canetti as son, most women look like Delilah.

"I had to invent women and enter-would become his first wife.

Joachim Neugroschel. 372 pp. $16.50. Farrar Straus & Girowc, 19 Union Square West, New York 10003.

something away for me; and neither have L

And yet he wrote about crowds because he was part of one when Vienna's Palace of Justice was stormed on July 15, 1927, and "it was the most his autobiography, "The Tongue Set Free," think again. The 1981 Nobel Laureate for Literature will never be done with this difficult woman. "The unambiguous day that I can remember, "the most crucial day of my life after my father's death." And of the wagon-wheeled Marek, he reports. "In some ways, he was like one of the characters I had invented: when you knew the condition on which he depended, then everything that hapened with him was definite and consistent, nothing could be any different from what it was."

Revolutionary Socialism

Perhaps he is fearful of the freedom implicit in a riot or in formulations as gut tuining and mind bending as psychoanalysis and revolutionary socialism. Canetti is famous for his "indignation against death," and yet no important writer I know of who has spent so much time in Paris, London. Vienna, Frankfurt or Berlin, is less 'existential." Inside his "rhetoric of accusal" he will not forgive his accusal," he will not forgive his mother for removing him from Switzerland. Today, with a second wife and a first child, he lives in Zurich.

At least Nabokov, on disdaining Freud, was witty, and Jorge Luis Borges plays with the Oedipus complex as if it were a kitten. Kafka, too, cracks a lovesided smile. If are not to the control of cracks a lopsided smile. (I am mentioning major writers who were, like Canetti, immune to what Susan Sontag calls "the temptation of the left.") Canetti prides himself on "the earnestness of my frame of mind."
"Comedy of character," without a larger context, embarrasses him. "I don't care for jokes."

There are no jokes in "The Torch in My Ear," nor much irony except at the chilly expense of others. He willed himself to a Nobel Prize, after looking at Brueghel and contemplating Gilgarnesh. He likes Isaac Babel because "both of us were illed with the digni-ty of learning." He doesn't like Brecht because Brecht wrote an advertisement for an automobile in order to get one. He disposes of the critic Krans a very disappointing portrait — because Kraus liked Brecht too much and, besides. Kraus was a surrogate

But he wears the reader down and wins a weird approval. At age 20, filling his notebook with a list of his mother's insults, he knew he'was very good; if the world didn't admit it, so much less for the world. His solemn stamina astounds. "The true book," he says, is "each individual bound up in himself." He has been, bravely, WIODg.

John Leonard is on the staff of The New York Times.

U.S. Art Show Touring West Europe Museums The Associated Press

WASHINGTON - A first major showing of American art from the nent known as "new realism" will be be shown in Portugal, Spain and West Germany, the U.S. I tion agency has announced.

The exhibition of some 160 works will be at the Museo Fundacion Gulbenkian in Lisbon Sept. 29 to Oct. 24, in the Salas Bajas de Recoletos in Madrid from November to January, and at the Kunsthalle in Nuremberg from February to April.

CHESS

By Robert Byrne

OLD traps never fade away — they Just go on claiming new victims. By now there are so many that have been discovered over the years that hardly anyone remembers them at all. And, as a practical matter, that isn't necessary. One usually counts on being alerted to a possible trap by spotting an incipient tactical danger in a position.

This is supposed to bring about re-call of the trap, and it almost always does. But there are times when the demon of euphoria enters to prompt the thought, "If I were to alter the placement of one key piece, I might refute the whole thing and win an easy

It can happen, but most of the time, beware of the oldies, because they are even more treacherous than they look Take, for example, the one that came up in the game between Tigran Petrosian of the Soviet Union, a former world champion, and Jan Timman, a Dutch grandmaster, in the first round of the Bugojno (Yugoslavia) International Tournament.

In this quiet, positional Rubinstein variation (5 N-K2) of the Nimzo-Indian Defense, the development 9...B-KB4 is most natural, placing the black queen bishop on its best diagonal — and yet, it's wrong. The Buhman-Tal game in the U.S.S.R. Championship of 1967 illustrated the right defensive plan: 9. P.QR4: 10 O-O, N-R3; 11 Q-Q3, N-B2; 12 P. R3. P-R4. anticipating White at B3. P-B4, anticipating White's attempt to get the upper hand in the center with P-K4.

As long ago as the Kluger-Florian game in the Hungarian Championship of 1957, it was known that direct methods to stop P-K4 fall into a trap: 10 . . . R-K1; 11 P-B3, B-Q3?; 12 P-K4!, PxP; 13 PxP, BxKP; 14 RxN, BxB: 15 RxB wins material.

Perhaps Timman thought that his slightly different piece placement with 11 . Q-K2? would break the trap, but Petrosian quickly showed otherwise. His 12 P-K4! still came with deadly effect because after 15 RxB, the far-ranging white rook was sur-prisingly capable of escaping a countertrap.

Thus, 15. B-B6; 16 B-B4, P-KN4; 17 B-K5, P-B3; 18 Q-N3chl, K-N2; 19 R-K6, Q-Q2; 20 BxN, RxB; 21 R-K3 gets the rook out a piece ahead. So does the alternative 15. B-R6; 16 B-B4, P-KN4; 17 R-R6, B-B4; 18 B-Q2, K-N2; 19 P-KR4!, P-B3; 20 PxP, PxP; 21 R-R2.

Consequently, Timman was forced to make the best of his situation with 15 ... QxR; 16 KxB, obtaining rook-plus-pawn for Petrosian's two minor pieces. Any kind of ending that would give him some drawing chances was cons away. as cons away. On 20 . . . KR-Kl, it would, et course, have been foolish to play 21 B-B77, RxNch, but the calm 21 N-KN1 obviated all trouble. After 24 QxP, Timman didn't even have the solace of a pawn. After the queens came off at move 32, Petrosian's knights showed their superiority over a rook in the ending. primarily by combining to threaten mating nets. Thus, on 36 N-R4, it would have been disastrons to play 36 R-N47; 37 N/B4-N6, R/6xPch; 38 K-B2, when Black would have to give up both rooks to avoid Timman played 40 ... R-K4 but saw that 41 P-N4, R-Q7ch; 42 K-N3, RxP; 43 R-B7, threatening 44 RxPch. K-R1; 45 N-N6mate, was hopeless and gave up without waiting for Petrosian's move.

Position after 11 . . . Q-K2

NINZO INDIAN DEFENSE 12 P-54 13 P-59 14 R-58 16 R-58 17 B-84 18 Q-N3 19 B-87

SPORTS

By Dave Anderson New York Times Service

America had survived the ab-round, not oblong.

for Sunday afternoon.

cague game was on display.

No Progress

No progress developed in Sunday's resumption of negotiations between the National Football League Players Association and

ing its second week, with another empty Sunday, if not several, looming unless progress suddenly develops.

For some people, alternatives exist — the countdowns in baseball's divisional races this week followed by the league playoffs and the World Series; college football, with games expected to be on television Sunday; the start of the National Hockey League season

next week and the approach of the National Basketball Association

But for the true NFL fan, there is no substitute. Not reruns of memorable games, not CFL

To the devoted, Sunday after-noon means NFL football. Noth-

City Turned On

meant only Saturday afternoon. Maybe you remember Saturday's heroes — the college football play-

But a quarter of a century ago.

New York was turned on to pro football when the Giants won the Ever since then in the New York area, football has meant Sunday,

The late Vince Lombardi once put Sunday in perspective. After his Green Bay Packers had won

Major League Leaders

Once upon a time, football

ing less and nothing else.

1956 NFL championship.

not Saturday.

Sunday's Baseball Line Scores

AMERICAN LEASUE Tingley (8); Comp and Sinstra, Owen (8). W—
Cleveland 83 00 000—4 7 0 Luczs, 1-10, L—Comp, 11-11, HR—Aftanta, ChamDetroit 820 010 800—3 8 3 - bilss (19).
Barker, Anderson (8), Givnn 19 and Heasey; Chicago 500 800 001—6 11 0
Wilcox and Penrish, W—Berker, 14-11, L—Wilcox, 12-9, HR—Detroit, Transmell (8).
See 200 200—2 8 0 Jankkes, Le-Smith (9) and Morestant RossmusNew Yark 600 002 000—2 8 0
Boston 922 000 126—5 9 2
Boston 922 000 126—5 9 2
Boston (8), 2 May (8

Krishi, Hou. Downer, Man.

SCASOIL.

the NFL Management Council. Tuesday, the strike will be enter-

Philadelphia Manager Pat Corrales, perhaps feeling the heat of the pennant race, was ejected from Sunday's game for arguing umpire Dutch Rennert's ruling that outfielder George Vukovich trapped a line drive by the Mets' Ellis Valentine. The Phils lost, 6-4; any combination of St. Louis victories or Philadelphia losses totaling two will give the National League East title to the Cards.

Orioles Close In on Brewers

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispancher
MILWAUKEE — Dennis Martimez pitched Baltimore to a 5-2 victory over the Brewers here Sunday, pulling the Orioles within two games of first-place Milwaukee in left, including set at B reading set at B Friday night.

Martinez
Brewers to the read set of t the American League's Eastern Division. The clubs have seven games left, including a four-game seasonending set at Baltimore beginning 14 70 Mg

one little for letter

The state of the s

With a real princip.

ここ の 会議員

ल ्याम्

----- Books 📭

* .: 1.FC

L.S. Art Sharks

2 4550NJON-18

A DESCRIPTION

The state of the s

المتفادين والمرادي

فطعمته يديدون

一年 のは、 はないのでは、 はないので

- Leet

- 25

Martinez (15-12) held the Brewers to three hits through seven innings before needing relief help

BASEBALL ROUNDUP in the eighth. Mike Caldwell (17-12) took the loss after winning his

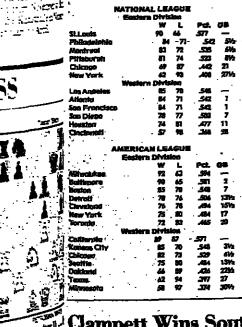

Gorman Thomas int ins league-leading 39th homer to stake league-leading 39th homer to stake league-leading Jylit manner to second inning, but Eddie Murray put a 1-2 pitch into the left-field bleachers to tie the score in the fourth. The Orioles went ahead an inning later on singles by Rick Dempsey, Rich Dauer and Cal Rioken.

- After Baltimore added a run in the eighth. Milwankee cut the defi-cit to 3-2 in its half of the inning. With the bases loaded and one out Robin Yount singled home Charlie Moore. But rookie outfielder John Shelby threw out Bob Skube, who attempted to score on Cecil Cooper's subsequent fly to short cen-

The Orioles added two runs in the minth on a triple by Dauer, Murray's sacrifice fly, two walks and Dan Ford's third single of the errib game.

Rangers 7, Angels 5 In Arlington, Texas, Larry Parrish hit a three-run home run and George Wright had three hits and

Major League Standings

A's 5. Royals 4 In Oakland, California, reliever

Dan Quisenberry gave up three straight two-out singles in the eighth, and the last one, by Mike Heath, delivered the run that defeated Kansas City for the A's, 5-4.

Indians 4 Tigers 3 In Detroit, Len Barker struck out nine batters through seven innings to notch his 14th victory and center fielder Rick Manning made a game-saving catch for the last out of the game as Cleveland de-feated the Tigers, 4-3.

Twins 2, White Sox 1 In Chicago, Gary Gaetti homered and Bobby Castillo scat-tered five hits to lead Minnesota to a 2-1 verdict over the White Sox. Red Sox 5, Yankees 2 In Boston, Jim Rice's seventh-inning triple scored Jerry Remy and lifted the Red Sox to a 5-2 triumph over New York.

Blue Jays 6. Mariners 2 In Seattle, Dave Stieb (16-14) pitched his league-leading 18th complete game and batterymate Buck Martinez drove in two runs with a homer and a single to spark Toronto to a 6-2 victory over the Mariners.

Giants 3, Dodgers 2 In the National League, in Los Angeles, San Francisco turned the estern Division race into a threeteam doglight by completing a three-game sweep of the Dodgers, 3-2. The victory moved the Giants into a second-place tie with Atlanta, a game behind Los Angeles.

Darrell Evans' two-run home run highlighted the winners' three-run rally in the fifth. Padres 3, Braves 2 In Atlanta, Joe Pittman singled home the tie-breaking run in the ninth to give San Diego a 3-2 squeaker over the Braves. Chris Chambliss homered for Atlanta.

Baseball Permant Races

AMERICAN LEASUE
Easters Division
ules (7 yearns to play): Sept. 28, 29, 30 of Oct. 1 (2), 2, 3 of Baltimers.
ore (7): Sept. 28, 28, 30 of Detroit; Oct. 1

Control and Action Control of Con

Eastern Division
W L Pct. GB
St.Louis (4): Sept. 27. 28 at Maximal; Sept. 29. 38 at Pittsburgh; Oct. 2,3 at Chicago, Philadalphia (2): Sept. 27, 28 Chicago; Sept. 29, 28 Montreal; Oct. 1,2,3 New York.

Algorithm (7): Sept. 27, 22 St.Lusia; Sept. 29, 20 of Philodelphio; Oct. 1, 2, 3 of Philodelphio; Oct. 1, 2, 3 of Philodelphio; Oct. 27, 26 Cinchnal; Sept. 29, 30 Algorito; Oct. 1, 2, 3 of Sept. Francisco; Sept. 29, 30 of Los Angeles; Oct. 1, 2, 3 of Sept. 20, 30 of Los Angeles; Oct. 1, 2, 3 of Sept. 20, 30 of Los Angeles; Oct. 1, 2, 3 of Sept. 29, 30 Houston; Oct. 1, 2, 3, Los Angeles.

Cubs 6, Cardinals 1 hit pitching of Charlie Hough and lead Texas past California, 7-5. In St. Louis, pitcher Ferguson Jenkins singled in two runs in a live-run first and pitched a sevenhitter through eight innings in leading Chicago past the Cardi-

> Mets 6, Phillies 4 In New York, Mookie Wilson's two-rum pinch single in the seventh broke a 4-4 tie and gave the Mets a come-from-behind 6-4 victory over Philadelphia. The Phillies were leading, 4-3, when New York rallied for three runs against Ed

Farmer (2-6). Pirates 3, Expos 0 In Montreal, Jason Thompson hit a two-run homer and Larry McWilliams pitched a five-hitter in sparking Pittsburgh to a 3-0 triumph over the Expos. Jim Morrison hit a bases-empty home run for the winners. Astros 4, Reds 0 In Cincinnati, Nolan Ryan allowed five hits and struck out 11 men through eight innings to pace Houston past the Reds, 4-0. Ryan (16-10) raised his career strikeout total to 3,484, leaving him 24 short of the all-time record of 3,508 held

Boston 822 000 200—2 8 0 sen. Lohff of Boston 822 000 12c-5 9 2 grid D.Ports Guidry, Mergen (8), R.Mey (8) and Cerone; b-2. Torret, B.Stonley (6) and Allengen, W.—B.Stonley, 12-7, L.—Guldry, 14-8, HR.—Boston, Evans Rygen, F

000 116 612—5 13 1 610 200 616—2 6 .0 T.Martinez (6) and Demosey;

031 000 000-4 11 1 001 001 21x-5 11 1

Coldwell, Bernard (1) and Summars. W-D.Mar tinez, 15-12, L—Coldwell, 17-12, HRS—Bottleron E.Marray (31), Milwaukee, G.Thomas (39).

Costro. Tufts (4), Guisenberry (7) and Wothon; Keaugh, Beard (8) and M. Heath, W. Beard, 10-4. L. Quisenberry, 87, Mrs.—Kansas, City, Martin (13), U. Washington (7), Ockland, Murphy (25), Armes (27).

Toronto

Sortile

101 006 000—2 9 2

Stieb and B.Aharikaz; F.Bannister, Musselman (9) and Sweet. W—Stieb. 16-14. L—F.Bannister, 12-12. HR—Toronto, B.Martinez (9).

Collifornia

100 209 210—5 5

Texas

402 001 905—7 10 0

Forach, Siehrer (3), Curlis (4), Kenka (4) and Boone. Perusent (8); Hough and Sundbery, W—Hough, 16-12. L—Forsch, 13-11. HR—Collifornia.

DeCinces (30), Lvnn (19), Re. Jackson (36), Texas. L.A.Parrish (16).

Philodelphia 200 200 000-4 8 7
New York 025 108 20x-6 10 2
Denny, Former (7), McGrow (7) and VirgilJomboy, Zachry (5), Pulso (7) and Hodges, WPulso, 2-9. L.—Former, 2-6. HR.—New York,

B.Smith (7), Recrifice (6), B.Smith (7), Recrifice (6), B.Smith (7), Recrifice (8) and Carter, W.—McWilliams, 6-1, L.—Leo, 12-10, HRs—Pilisburgh, J.Thompson (31), Morrhan (4)

001 000 101—3 6 7 020 001 000—2 7 2

by Walter Johnson.

the first two Super Bowl games, Lombardi spent a season concen-trating on his duties as the team's general manager instead of being the coach as well. NEW YORK — On the morning of pro football's Silent Sunday, the sun came up in its usual shape —

But the next year, 1969, he joined the Washington Redskins as both coach and general manager. sence of its Sunday diversion. In the New York area, a television doubleheader had been scheduled "I missed the fire on Sunday,"

This past Sunday there was no fire. There was only the ice of the But at I o'clock, when the Ginegotiations, the ice that was thickening day by day between Ed Garvey, the executive director of the players association, and the ants were to have collided with the Steelers in Pittsburgh, a view of empty Three Rivers Stadium was NFL club owners whose mouth-piece is Jack Donlan, the manage-And at 4 o'clock, when the Jets were to have played the Colts in Baltimore, a Canadian Football ment council's executive director. Ice may also be quietly thickening between Garvey and some of his 1,500 players, notably those on the New Orleans Saints. Get used to it. The impasse re-

Chastised Saint After the strike began last week, Russell Erxleben, the Saints' player representative, polled 40 team-mates and reported all of them favored that the union cease de-manding the fixed wage scale that has alienated the owners.

By late Thursday night, according to Erxleben, he had been stised over the telephone by

Packer Fans Give The 'Gate to NFL

United Press International GREEN BAY, Wisconsin — The Green Bay Packers did not play their NFL home opener Sunday at Lambeau Field, but that didn't keep roughly 7,500 fans from whooping it up at a communal tailgate party.

The gathering featured beer, brats and homemade signs commenting on the players' strike. A sign in a van window read "4 Tickets — 50-Yard Line — Negotiable." Declared another: "There Is Life After Football." Greg Eichmann, a Green Bay resident, said the party was meant as a rebuke to both the players and owners. "I believe in fair bargaining," Eichmann said, "but a strike in this situation is wrong. There's so much money. They should be able to settle this. The players are prima donnas and the owners are prima donnas. I think they take the fans for granted. I'm out

Julie Johnson and Jackie Kasten, both of Green Bay, prepared a turkey dinner on a grill. Their families sat down at a candle-lit table set with china and silverware and fell to --- using "Pack Attack" handker-chiefs as napkins. Garvey and two other union staff members for having conducted such a poll.

The NFL Silent Sunday: No Fire and Plenty of Ice

But if so many members of the Saints feel that way about the fixed wage scale, perhaps many other players around the league feel the same way. If they do, then Garvey should be listening to them, not scolding them.

The confrontation between Garvey and Erxleben poses an important question — is Garvey representing the players' wishes, or are the players, by striking, representing Garvey's wishes?

The answer will determine the length of a strike whose details most NFL fans not only do not understand but do not want to un-

When the strike is eventually settled, the fans won't even be interested in the minutae of the new collective-bargaining agreement. All they will want to know is when the season resumes, how well prepared their favorite team will be for its first game and what the betting point spreads will be.

Fan Factor But more than anyone else the fans, by their devotion to the NFL., have created the strike.

From the beginning of its cam-paign this year for 55 percent of the owners' gross income, the NFL Players Association has shouted: We are the game." But the players aren't the game; neither are the club owners.

The fans are the game. Without the fans, there wouldn't be television contracts worth $2.1 billion over five years and no sold-out stadiums — the bulk of the owners' income that has provoked the strike's financial issues. Essentially, the seeds for this strike were sown a quarter of a century ago when Giant lans in Yankee Stadium began chanting, "Huff, Huff, Huff," imploring middle linebacker Sam Huff to stop oncoming ball carriers. That's when the NFL suddenly emerged as a sport of stature, a sport born for television, a sport Madison Avenue could package.

When the Giants declined, Joe Namath joined the New York Jets as their quarterback and sex sym-

Then, in Super Bowl III, Namath and the Jets astonished the Baltimore Colts, justifying the merger of the upstart American Football League with the NFL establishment.

Other Pulpits

Ever since 1970, the NFL has prospered as never before. Until last season, both the Giants and the Jets had been disaster areas for a decade. But the NFL no longer preach its gospel. It was being preached on TV from Pittsburgh and Miami and Dallas and Oakland, whose teams reigned in the Super Bowl for 10 consecutive That's one reason why the Gi-ants, for all their horrendous teams and all their horrendous seasons season tickets. Win or lose, Giant fans were assured of eight parking-lot parties in the golden glow of gospel.

years until San Francisco won it last season.

The gospel also has been preached in the parking lots outside stadiums, where the fans gather for tailgate parties.

until last year, always sold all their

September and October, in the cloudy chill of November and De-

Even at $11, the basic price for a Giant ticket, those parties are a bargain. By the time the Jets could return to Shea Stadium on Sunday against the Houston Oilers, or by the time the Giants could return to Giants Stadium a week from Sun-day against the St. Louis Cardinals, perhaps the fans will, resuming their parties, be able discuss the NFL gospel for that Sunday.

On Silent Sunday, there was no

NBA May Open Camps Without Basic Contract

By David DuPree

Washington Post Service
WASHINGTON — Barring lastminute developments, the 23 National Basketball Association teams will open training camps this week without a collective-bargaining agreement.

This follows a 1981-82 season when NBA teams lost between $15 and $20 million.

The previous three-year contract expired June 1, and players and team owners are at an apparent impasse over a number of key issues in regards to a new contract. But there has been no talk of a strike, and both sides said the situation hasn't become critical. "There is a substantial gulf between us," said David Stern, one of the chief negotiators for the NBA. "As a league, the NBA lost, collectively, between $15 million and $20 million last season. The average loss per franchise was about $750,000."

Stern added that $64 million went to 1982 player salaries and that the average salary had been $218,000.

"I hope we don't have to start talking strike," said Larry Fleisher, head of the NBA Players Associa-tion. "We don't want one. As long as we can keep talking, things will work out and we're talking. The negotiations have taken an interesting twist. The owners, most of them beset by heavy financial losses, want the players to give back some of the benefits they gained in previous contracts — their contribution to the players' pension plan and their contributions to the medical insurance coverage.

The players don't want to give back anything and want increases in pensions and severence pay. The owners want to put a ceiling

Zurich - Geneva

Monique Escort & Guido Service Tel: 01 / 361 90 00

STUTTGART

VIOLETT ESCORT SERVICE TEL: 0711-6493106.

Escert Service Tel: 0221 / 124601

FRENCH CONNECTION t Service. Exclusive Londo Heathrow. Tel: (01) 286 6528.

TORONTO, CANADA Escort Service: 416-363-5463 Major predit cards accepted.

LONDON - CHELSEA GIRL Escort Ser vice, 51 Beaudyamp Place, Londor SW3, Tel: 01 584 6513/2749, 4:12 pm.

DUBLIN ZENOS ESCORT AGENCY Tel: Dublin 784567.

FRANKFURT SANDRA'S Excert Services. Tel: 0611-815957 / 06173-61610.

GENEVA-EXCLUSIVE Escort Service, Afternoon & Ev Tek 22/21 79 29

on salaries and the players want all contracts guaranteed.

The players also want a portion of cable television money, so the owners have asked for the money the players get for signing shoe contracts.

The league has taken the position of us giving back things we bargained for in the past and we aren't about to do that," said

Stern, head of the NBA's business and legal affairs department, said the proposals management is making are necessitated by the fi-nancial situation of the league. "Based on those figures, we think the players are better able to bear the cost of some of the benefits than we are," said Stern. "All we're trying to do is come up with a formula that will get the owners a return on their investment." The owners have given up their quest for a ceiling on salaries because a court ruled that it would violate the Oscar Robertson suit settlement of 1976, which cleared the way for the NBA and the American Basketball Association to merge.

No More Absurd . . .

"There are X dollars to be gotten out of this business," said Stern. "The owners get theirs from gate receipts and television and the players get theirs from salaries and

"They're asking for some of our television money, so we're asking for some of their endorsement money - the shoe contracts. One request is no more absurd than the The two sides met twice last week and have other meetings scheduled this week Both sides have agreed to operate under the terms of the old contract for the

HOTELS

AUSTRIA

SWITZERLAND

U.S.A.

DUSSEDORF & TRAVEL Service. Tel: 0211 - 672505.
MUNICH STAR Escuri Service. Tel: 1099; 3117900.

PRANKFURY ANNALENA ESCORT Service Tel: 0611/686562

SUSAN - FRANKFURT - Wiesbaden Mainz Esport Service, 0611-282728.

PRANCIER CANDY ESCORT SERVICE. Tel-0611 - 55 72 10. VENNA ETORE ESCORT SERVICE, Tel-56 78 55.

FRANKFLIRT LADY ESTHER Escort Service, 0611-9978032.

FRANKFURT-WIESRADEN Escort Service. Tel: 05171-73908.

RANKFURT - GEDA Escort Service Tal: 0611 - 684200.

ONDON JACQUELINE Scort Service. Tel: (01) 402 7949.

LONDON - JENNIE Escort Service. Tel: 01 724 2552 LONDON DANIELE Escort & Guide Service. Tel: [01] 486 0860.

LONDON BEONY Escart Service, Re-gents Park. Tel: 01-886 2294. EXECUTIVE CLASS OF LONDON Excert Servie. Tel: 262 2108.

LONDON PETTE FLEUR Escort Service London / Heathrow, Tel: 01 749 6270.

NEW YORK CITY, Mio & Rense Excert Service. 212-888-1666.

ORONTO - JASMINE Escort Service. Telephone 416-469-4279.

VERRIA-HARMONY Escort Service. Tel: Vienna area 02244-2418. LONDON CHANTELLE Escort Service. Tel: 01 582 2408.

chiefs as napkins.	needed a winner in	New York to
AUTOMOBILES	CLASSIF	ED AD
AT X19 SPORT COUPE 1978. Ex- cort madel, NY plotes, $2000. Paris 772 45 72 afternoons.	(Co	ntinued Fr
AUTO SHIPPING	AUTOS TAX FREE	AUTOS 1
ANSCAR: Europe's largest for Cors, sho baggage & household effects workfivide. Contact London E14, Duniese Worshouse, Three Colf St, let 515 684. Genevo 1219, 37/38 Avolutignon 19 65 511. Manuch 21, Londoberger ir 1910, let 57 20 77. Brussels 1000, AS aus du Mick set 51, A150.	SHIPSIDE	EUROPORT T/ All moles. Cell Box 12011, Rottend Tel: 010-623077. Th
684. Geneva 1219,37/38 AvduLignon el 96 55 11. Munich 21, Landsberger	TAX FREE CARS	Tel: 010-623077. Tb
02 100 00 1-10, 15 310 100		LEGALS
ANSCAR 20 rue Le Sueur, 75116 Paris, Tel: 500 03 04. Nice, 83 95 33. Antwerp 33 99 85. Comme 39 43 44.	European and worldwide delivery Insurance - Shipment	U.S. CHIMINAL LA
AUTOS TAX FREE	FREE MULTICOLOR CATOLOG SHIPSIDE BLILDING	in successfully ass cons arrested in B Robert M. Axelro
AUTOS TAX PREE	POB 7568, Ansterdom Airport - C Holland, Tel: (20) 152833 - Telex 12568	St., Meriden, CT. 203-238-0808. U.S. LAWYER - Vi
TRANSCO	DAME.	N. Scraya, 40 Jos City, New Jersey (5200, tel: (201) 796
TAX FREE CARS	BMW	US TAX, VISA Consultants USA, Paris 8e. Tel: 266 9
e keep a constant stock of more than one hundred brand new cars,	SERIES 3-5-6-7	l——— competitively priced. Send for free catalogue & stock list. Transco SA, 95 Noorderlaan,	1983 models available at 1982 rates	SERV
2030 Arthwarp, Belgium. Tel: 03/542 62 40, (10 lines). Th:: 35207 TRANS 8	AUTOMOBILES CH. POZZI Poris: (1) 574 91 64, Telas: 642625F	YOUNG LADY, will travel London YOUNG PR LADY once, Tel: Paris 54
ESCORTS & GUIDES	ESCORTS & GUIDES	ESCORTS
NTERNATIONAL	CAPRICE	CACHE
ESCORT SERVICE	ESCORT SERVICE	PSOORT 9 NEW YORK 212 212-87
U.S.A. Headquesters N.Y.C.	IN NEW YORK	Other major ci
212-765-7896 212-765-7754	TEL: 212-737 3291.	LONDON C
Chicago Breach 312-861-0465	LONDON	Tel: 01 5
scorts ovalable to travel anywhere nationally or internationally. MAJOR CREDIT CARDS	SLOANE	LONE
ľ	Person contact	Portmen Fee

TEL: 258633

FRANKFURT

TEL: 0611 - 68 64 82

GENEVA ● ZURICH ●

TEL: 0049 611 686482

#PANETER'S ESCORT SERVICE Escorts available to travel anywher

LONDON

BELGRAVIA

Escort Service. Tel: 736 5877.

Professional N.Y. Escort Service

P.E. SERVICES

(212) 772-7895/6 -

MAJOR CREDIT CARDS

AL KNIGHT

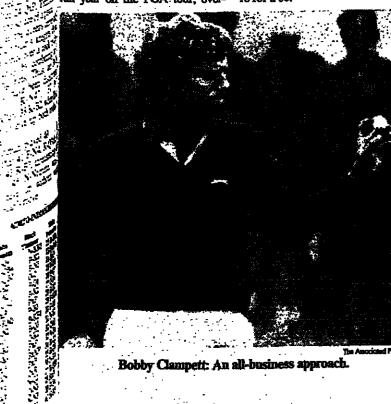

ESCORT AGENCY WEST BND & HEATHROW LONDON (01) 747 3304

Clampett Wins Southern Open for First Pro Tour Victory

COLUMBUS, Georgia - An intense Bobby Clampett went on a birdie binge on the back nine Sun-day to finish with a 6-under-par 64

usy to miss with a 6-under-par 64 and win the Southern Open golf tournament, his first Professional Golfers Association tour victory. Clampett, 22 and in his second won by two strokes with a 72-hole total of 266, 14-under-par. Hale Irwin, who shot a course-record 61 that included nine birdies, finished second at 268, while Burns fell to third at 269 when he bogeyed No. full year on the PGA tour, over-18 for a 68.

Bobby Clampett: An all-business approach.

took third-round leader George Burns at the 10th hole when the eventual winner began a string of four consecutive birdies. Clampett

Clampett began Sunday's round with a birdie on the first hole and had two others on a bogeyless front nine to draw even with Burns, who by the turn had three birdies and a bogey. Clampett then turned it on, taking a three-shot lead over Burns after 15. Irwin started the day six strokes off the pace --- "not an enviable position," he said after bettering the tourna-ment record of 62 set by Bobby Mitchell in 1971.

In fourth place was Hal Sutton (a 66 Sunday for a 270 total). Andy Bean's 66 left him alone at 271, while Gary Hallberg and Jim Thorpe were at 272 after respective final rounds of 67 and 66.

Clampett had taken an all-business approach on the course, but after his initial victory as a pro he said, "It's a great feeling. I've felt feelings like this before but never as strong as this."

> Transactions HOCKEY

HOCKEY

Netteed Hockey League

NEW JERSEY-Signed Pat Verbeck, center.
Assisted centers Rey Sommer, Pout Miller and Larry Florid; right whos Sob Jancet and Miller
Vitson; left wings Paul Fulcher and Miller Lekin; defensemen Gres Hubick, Darryl MacLead, Brad Knelson, Owen Lleyd and Mille Konoke and soditenders Rick LaFerriers and Sieve Janazzak to Wichiba of the Central Hackey League. Returned Dan Geoffrion right wirs, to Winsipes.

It was Clampett's first triumph since joining the tour in August 1980, although he has had six sec-onds and three thirds. He finished third in the U.S. Open this year and 10th in the British Open after leading for the first two rounds.

The Associated Press

Meanwhile, top-seeded Ivan Lendl of Czechoslovakia overcame a 3-0 deficit in the first set to defeat seventh-seeded Kevin Curren of South Africa, 7-6, 7-5, 6-1, and win a World Championship Tennis event in Inglewood, California.

> EASTERN DIVISION British Cimb Colgary Edmonton Sestatichwo Senday's Results British Columbia 46, Toronto 14 Edmonton 36, Cologry 17

Les Angeles 500 901 105—2 8 6 Brahhing, Holland (6) and May; Hoston, Wright (5), Stewart (6), Howe (7), Niedentuer (9), W—Braining, 11-5, L—Hoston, 3-7, HR—Son Francisco, Evens (16). G AB R H Pct. 153 590 87 199 337 151 565 92 188 319 Herne Rans Kingmon, N.Y., 37; Murphy, Atl., 34; Schmidt, Rises Betted In Offver, Mon., 167; Murphy, ANL, 107; Hendrick, St.L., 103; Clerk, S.F., 102; Buckner, Chi., 100. Pitching P.Mistro, AH., 154, 790; Breining, S.F., 11-5, 481; Rogers, Men., 17-8, 480; Cartion, Phl. 21-11, 454; Candioria, Phl. 12-7, 432; Reuss, L.A., 17-18, 430; Fersch, St.L., 15-9, 425; Seen, N.Y., 11-7, 411. Herse Runs G.Thomas, Nil., 39; Winfield, N.Y., Re.Jackson, California, 36; Oglivie, Mil., 32; E.Murray, Bal., McRoe, K.C., 126; Cooper, Mil., 115; Thornton 34., 113; G.Thomas, Mil., 112; Yount, Mil., 107. Pitching (14 Decisions) Poimer, Bol., 13-4, 789; Vstavich, Alil., 18-5, 780; Burns, Chi., 13-5, 720; Sateliffe, Ca., 14-6, 798; Zohn, Coi., 17-6, 480; Peirry, Det., 15-6, 452; Renko, Coi., 11-4, 467; Koogmon, Chi., 11-4, 467. ACCEPTED CONTACTA INTERNATIONAL (Escot Service in Europe: AMSTERDAM

USTRIA: Vicena 060-6103-86123

TALY: 0049-6103-86122 Rome-Milas

ELGRUM: 0049-6103-86122 Brossels - Antwers

NGLAND: London 01-628 7969

OTHER FEC CAPITALS
Tel: Germany 0-6103-86122

A-AMERICAN ESCORT SERVICE

ESCORTS NY &

YOU ARE--OR GO

America-Transworld

212-591-2934

212-461-6091

212-961-1945

Telephone write POB 176, Fresh Meadows, NY 11365, USA

EVERYWHERE

Over Connors in U.S. SAN FRANCISCO — John McEnroe routed Jimmy Connors, 6-1, 6-3 to win a professional tennis tournament here Sunday. U.S. Open champion Connors sprayed balls wide, long and into the net and was broken the first five games he served. McEnroe, unininspired, played only well enough to win for the ninth time in 20 career meetings with Connors.

McEnroe Easy Winner

litornica, 36; Oglivie, MIL 32; Thornton, Cle_31, Rons Botted in CFL Standings .

VERTISEMENTS NIGHT CLUBS rom Back Page) VIENNA Batzenhousel Dr. Karl Lueger King 12 Austrian & Int'l Specialities SERVICES TAX FREE CREAT BRITAIN IAX FIRSE CARS I for free catalog. Jam Airport, Holland In: 25071 EPCAR NL PR/INTERPRETER & TOURISM GLED BURNS HOTEL, Barteton Gardens, London SWS. Established 1946, Tel: 07-373 3151. Talesu 2985. 100 roass with both / toller, radio & color television. Grootly radiused terms. For reservotions, write, phone, teles, or coll. est Presentation, English Paris: 562 05 87. ARIS BEINGUAL personal assistant business executives. Tel: 500 58 17. SERVICES PR YOUNG LADY, trilingual, excelle appearance. Paris 527 01 93. LUCERNE - GRAND HOTEL BUROFE, Lorge price ronge - 5very confort, Tel: 041730 11 11. Th: 72657. PARIS - YOUNG LADY P.E. Compan ion. Excellent appearance, 553 62 62. LOW COST FLIGHTS TUDOR MOTEL, 304 East 42nd St., New York City. In fashionable, East Side Manhatran, If black from UN. Single from $50; doubles from $66. Teles: 422951. Tel: 800-522-7558 WORLDWIDF ECONOMIC 7ESFS. Fights: Paris-New York return F 2700. Fights: Montreal return F 2700. By biss: Paris-London F 120, Althens F 354 We can solve all freight problems. To 266 10 33, 6 rue de l'Arcade, Paris 8th. GRATION EDUCATION VICES NEW YORK one way $220 confirmed saots from London. Tel: 01 437 5492 UK DANCE CLASSES IN ENGUSIA. Shape up, Asrobic & modern deace detains for adults. Children's ballet & credit amovement. Instructors from the University of Colifornio. Peris 702 15 94. & GUIDES ESCORTS & GUIDES ESCORTS & GUIDES T U.S.A. LONDON WEST GENEVA V.L.P. Service, Noon to midnight, Tel. 41 20 36. | SERVICE |2-242-0838 cr |4-1310 E.E.C. CAPITALS ervices. Germany 0/7851-5719. eldoliovo seitis AMSTERDAM * ANGEL * ESCORT Service. Tel: 852259; Regio Airport, tel: 186164, Credit Cards Accepted ■ ZURICH - GENEVA OXFORD ST Omega Escort Service Germany NO. 190104, CHOIT CARDA ACCEPTED ROME EUROPPE Cub Secort & Guide Services, Tels 06/589 2604 - 589 1146 (10 cm. - 10 pm.) VERNA - EXCLUSIVE Escort Service. Tels 47-74-61. SERVICE TEL: 0049-6103-82048 582 2408 HEATHROW AMSTERDAM BRUSSELS MARTINE Escort Service. Tel: 428 01 42. ESCORT GUIDE SERVICE SINCE 1973 Tel: 247731. EDON SRUSSELS DIAMA Excert Service. Please tel: 640 49 31. BRUSSELS, CHANTAL Excert Service. Tel: 347 02 07. Portman Escort Agency 161: (01) 437 8702 OR (01) 437 6629 67 Children Street, London W1 TEL: 486 3724 or 486 1158 160: 347 UZ UV. BLUSSELS AMANDONE Escort Service. Please tel: 267 45 29. ZURICH MADESD RUTH Excert Service. Tel. 2422792 OPHE ESCORT & GUIDE SERVICE TEL: 01 / 202 68 93 DONNA EVITA MADRID LIA Escort Service. Tel: 7660580-2509472. Credit cards. LONDON ESCORT SERVICE FRANKFURT-WIESBADEN-MARKZ. Dione Scort Service. Tel: 06190 4488. HAMBURG ESCORT SERVICE. Tel: 040 / 4 10 52 38. KENSINGTON

ESCORT SERVICE 10 KENSINGTON CHURCH ST, WA TEL: 937 9136 OR 937 9133

ZURICH

Vanessa Escort Service

TB:: 01/47 02 12 - 69 22 45

AMSTERDAM

SHE * ESCORT SERVICE Tel: 222940

EVASION

MADRID

Multilingual Escort & Guide Service. Tel: Madrid 261 41 42 - 261 43 35.

ARISTOCATS

LONDON

Escort Service Tel: 437 4741 12 noon - midnight

AMSTERDAM

"NOETH - EUROPE" ESCORT & GUIDE AGENCY TEL: (0) 20 - 645687 (9) 20 - 645688

ZURICH, VIP ESCORT SERVICE Tel-057/33 18 76; 11:30cm-Tpm & ct 6pm owners, the toll in human tragedy among the fans is far greater than anyone imagined. Here is just one of the scenes that was played out last Sunday in a suburban Washington home. Sam Spilsky found himself sitting in front of his 25-inch TV set, a six-pack by his side, a bag of potato chips in front of him. His wife said, "What are you going to do, Sam?"

"I'm going to watch the Redskins-Cardinals game." "Sam, there is no Redskins-Cardinals game. The players are on

"You're just saying that because you don't want me to watch televi-"It's in all the papers, Sam."

* * * Sam looked up at his wife. "But ich

nsı igo

eve |ve| |uti

her nic

ed Ez

ìchi

vic nal

me t r

rali

in in ne

mre

ıu

y v y 7 od ; ı ic

ivei asea e ai rds; tiar

ng. or ami

ne;

use ise he nce y ď

se t I be

07

RIS

SPS II

ın t tly

rse

on the and es.

3, S 1015

ALT SEC JML JRL

ener S.A.

it's Sunday. They always give us football on Sunday. "They can't this week. There is nobody to play."

"It's in the Constitution. They have to give us football on Sun-days, and Monday and Thursday nights."
"Don't get mad at me. I'm not

"But in your heart you were hoping something like this would happen. You always resented me "I never resented it. I knew what

Japanese Verbalize Pedestrian Warnings The Associated Press

TOKYO — Japan, which has ovens that tell cooks when the meal is ready and autos that remind drivers to buckle up, has now come up with talking traffic lights. The city of Urawa, near Tokyo, has installed lights with speakers over which a taped woman's voice politely tells pedestrians to wait or

According to the police, traffic lights displaying the message please wait are difficult to see and often ignored. The new signals, in addition to red and green lights, say "please wait a moment" and "please cross carefully."

AMERICA CALLING

RBB96NS. Trovelers' messages. Write Box 6262, Olympia, WA 98502, USA.

"But what am I going to do?" "Why don't you rake the leaves or wash the car or take a walk?" "I can't do that, It's Sunday. You're supposed to get four foot-ball games on Sunday," Sam said, twisting the TV dials madly.

"Maybe we could have some friends over," Sam's wife said ner-

"I don't want to see anybody. I want to see football. The Redskins are on a streak. We're 2 and 0 now. We could go all the way to the Super Bowl."
"Sam, would you like to see a movie?"

"I'm going to stay right here. Maybe they'll settle the strike be-fore kickoff time." They won't have time to put on their uniforms." "So they can play in their street clothes. We used to do it as kids." "Please, Sam, you've got to face reality. There aren't going to be any games this week. Why don't you go out and play touch football with the children?"

"They don't know the plays. How can you play football without a game plan?"

"I wish I could do something for you. Tomorrow you'll feel better."
"How can I feel better tomorrow? There won't be any Monday Night Football. What am I going

Sam's wife nuzzled up to him. We could make love." "Are you crazy? Nobody in America makes love on Monday night."

"Sam, we've never talked this long before on Sunday afternoon, but since we are, I think I should tell you that there is more to married life than watching pro football

The hell you say. "I'm serious, Sam. Every fall I'm lonely and I feel I've lost you. This is a good test of our marriage. If you can get through this week without having watched a football game, it means that we have something going."
"Like what?"

"It will indicate I mean more to you than Howard Cosell." "Of course you mean more to me than Howard Cosell. But don't ask me to choose between you and Frank Gifford."

Bernard Malamud: A Ticket to God

By Curt Suplee

Washington Past Service

OLD BENNINGTON, Vermont — How to explain it — the agony and obligation of the thing? "Well," says Bernard Malamud "let me tell you a joke." A good and pious man falls on hard times. He goes to the synagogue, beseeching God to let him win the lottery in exchange for his years of faith. He leaves optimistic, but after nothing happens, he returns and pleads again. Still God remains silent. Finally he goes back a third time, infuriated now, railing at Jehovah, "Why don't you give me a break?" Suddenly the voice of God arises in a wind, and says to the man, "Why don't you give Me a break? Why don't you at least buy a ticket!"

Malamud isn't laughing. After all, man's abdication of virtue and inhumanity to God are the subjects of his new novel — the most unusual and certainly the riskiest he has written. But at 68, after 11 books including "The Magic Barrel," "The Fixer" and "Dubin's Lives," after the Pulitzer Prize and two National Book Awards, he has outfaced fear. "And that's why in 'God's Grace' you see a man who is not afraid to write about God's role in the universe.

Comforting Percussion The apocalyptic gloom of his subject seems hopelessly out of place in this cheery, sun-washed house, a rambling white-frame idyll near Bennington College, where Malamud has taught for 20 years. A comforting percussion of cooking sounds comes from the big kitchen where his wife, Ann, a chipper dynamo of a woman, is devising lunch. And Malamud himself — still frail from a recent illness first appears an improbable Isaiah. With his tidy demeanor, incessant self-editing ("No, wait, there's a better word") and deadpan, scrupulous style, he could be the most successful CPA in Westport. He is uneasy with talking about himself ("That kind of stuff, it's not up his alley," says his friend Philip Roth) and seems reluctant to start. He pauses to choose among several pairs of glasses, then sits down carefully, long fingers knitted in his lap. Finally, with the anxious geniality of a brave man settling in for root canals, he says, "Now then, I think we can begin."

"God's Grace" combines a Miltonic ambition of theme with the vernacular crackle of comic dialogue. It begins with the de-struction of mankind by nuclear horror and global flood, leaving one accidental survivor, a Jewish scientist named Calvin Cohn, adrift on a ship in the ocean. Cohn and a shipboard chimp named Buz drift onto an Edenic island, where they discover a variety of other monkeys, and Cohn attempts to rebuild civilization by educating them, issuing seven Admonitions in lieu of commandments. Topics familiar from Malamud's earlier fiction — racial hatred, moral despair and the hope of trans-ethnic understanding — here find simian counter- speaks."

parts. In the end, bestiality proves intractable and the fledg-ling society convulses in predatory lust and blood sacrifice.

The idea for the book arose when a colleague at Bennington arranged for a private printing of Malamnd's two previous animal fables, "The Jewbird" and "Talking Horse." "I thought, why not go at a novel with animals as the major characters." Ever since Ae-sop, he says, it is "the ultimate imaginative act to create a creature - no, wait, there's a better word — a living being who is not burnan and yet can talk, giving you the opportunity of presenting a miracle in every sentence he mind for years, "the sense that I had that man was in trouble," that "man in many ways was a disappointment to himself." Not simply the nuclear nightmare, al-though "the fears that have arisen through 20th-century technology are horrendous. They've scared many of us out of our shoes. We're running even when we're not running."

He researched the book by reading Jane Goodall on chimps, and evolutionary treatises from Darwin to Stephen Jay Gould, and concludes that Cohn's efforts are "within the realm of possibility - so much is being done, new experiments on animals, on language in animals, in a sense I'm just taking the next step." And if the book's gore-sodden denouement seems bleakly pessimistic, Malamud leaves a note of hope in George, a gorilla named slyly after one of the human precursors whose skeleton was discovered by Louis Leakey. "The reader, if he's looking for a positive view, has to look around that."

His parents were Yiddish-speaking Russian immigrants who had a small grocery store in Brooklyn. Malamud says he was the beneficiary "not of having happy parents, but of having good parents," who instilled in him the necessity of "doing well by others." He might never have become interested in language but for a bout of pneumonia that nearly killed him. When he recovered, his father in a fit of joy bought him a 20-volume "Book of Knowledge." In elementary school Malamud wrote stories, mesmerized by exotic words like "Sargasso Sea," regaling his friends with lavish recountings of movies "to save them a dime."
Malamud recalls the neighborhood as "unexciting." It did not contribute to his widely esteemed. ear for ethnic dialogue - "That's a gift, that's where I was lucky. We had a lot of musicians and actors in the family" — and left him only with "a hunger to be in the country" (which he satisfies six months of the year at Bennington before wintering in a rented apartment in New York.) He had decided to be a writer well before enrolling at City Col-lege of New York in 1932, but spent his 20s in a series of factory and retail jobs and worked as a clerk in the Census Bureau. In

(Continued on Page 7, Col. 1)

PEOPLE Stephanie Goes Home

has been discharged from the hospital where she was treated for injuries suffered in a car accident in which her mother, Princess Grace, was fatally injured. Stephanie suffered a hairline fracture of a vertebra in the Sept. 13 accident, in which the car, being driven by her mother, left the road after Grace suffered a stroke. Grace died 36 hours later after a second stroke. The palace issued a statement saying Stephanie's injuries would not cause permanent damage but would take weeks to heal. The statement, quoting her doctors. said the 17-year-old princess would "continue her convalescence at the

Henry Herford, a 35-year-old nalace."

Scottish baritone living in London, won the 1982 International American Music Competition at Camegie Hall in New York. Herford is the first person from outside the United States to win the event in its five-year history. The competition, which rotates yearly among vocalists, pianists and violinists, stresses the performance of 20thcentury American music. Herford, singing an all-American program, was chosen over two other finalists, Margaret Cusack and Diana Walker-Leuck — both American sopranos. Herford's prize includes a $10,000 cash award, $35,000 in career promotion funds, a recording contract with New World Records valued at $25,000, a Carnegie Hall appearance with the American Symphony Orchestra and a New York recital. * * *

Prince Philip of Britain arrived in Australia for the start of a visit during which he is to open the Commonwealth Games in Brisbane Thursday. Queen Elizabeth II is to join her husband in Brisbane on Oct 6.

Rosalind Runcie says it's not easy being the wife of the spiritual leader of the Church of England, particularly because of the fishbowl existence and sometimes because of the boredom. Mrs. Runcie, 46, wife of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Robert Runcie, told the London News of the World, "I think one of the things about it has been being on show. I am expected to live up to something, people's ex-pectations, but I don't know what they are." Mrs. Runcie also confid-

Princess Stephanie of Monaco ed she hates "speeches and sermons that last more than 10 minutes."

> Two Dutch windsurfers became the first persons to cross the North Sea on stand-up sailboards, according to yachting officials in Scheveningen. Stephan van den Berg, 20, and John van der Starre. 21, made the 125-mile crossing from Lowestoft, England to Sche-veningen in the Netherlands in eight hours, Officials who followed the voyage said the two sailed separate boards and touched speeds of up to 33.5 miles an hour.

John Lennon was a househoeband, caring for baby Sean while his wife, Yoko Ono, took over his affairs and ran his life according to the rules of her "magick." That's the picture Chet Flippo paints in the chapter of the book. The Ballad of John and Yoko," written by the editors of Rolling Stone and excerpted in the current issue. He describes Yoko turning up at legal conferences wearing an ancient Egyptian robe and headdress. while John cared for Sean and learned to bake bread. According to Flippo, Yoko "made no decisions without consulting one or several of the circle of astrologers. psychics, readers, spiritual consultants, numerologists, direction experts, interpreters of I Ching, seers and the like who made up an unofficial cabinet of advisers." Lennon was killed in December 1980.

More than 100 sun-kissed maidens from the San Fernando Valley hovered around the cameras during a weekend television search for the ultimate Valley Girl. But even Moon Unit Zappa, who inspired it all with her hit record "Valley Girls," agreed the Valley Girls craze and trendy mutilated syntax spawned by the runaway hit have gone too far — enough to make her "barf out." "It is like a nightmare," the teen age daughter of Frank Zappa said as about a thon-sand people drawn by the klieg lights shouted "Awesome! Totally awesome!" while the cameras zoomed in on the contestants. "It's ridiculous that anyone would consciously try to imitate this style, dress up, and be proud of it, said Moon. "As far as I'm concerned. it's a bad idea. At each interview, I just get angry because I'm identi-fied with this thing."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

YOUR LONDON TICKET AGENT Sidi for CATS and all major events. LONDON 242 8748.

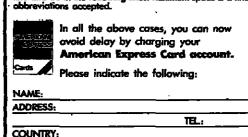

HONG KONG traior-made suits sent anywhere from Hong Kong. Mr Leung, 71 Zurbana, 1st floor, No. 16, Madrid. 11 to 2 & 3.30 to 7.30 Tel: 4414250. ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS English doily, Paris: 634 59 66. PORTUGAL SEE Holidays and Travel.

QUICKLY AND EASILY BY PHONE: Call your local IHT representative with your text. You will be informed of the cost immediately, and once prepayment is made your ad will appear within 48 hours.

BY MAIL: Send your text to your local IHT representative and you will be advised of the cost in local currency by return. Payment before publication is necessary.

PLACE YOUR CLASSIFIED AD

BY TELEX: If you have an urgent business text, telex us, and it will be published within 48 hours in our INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS MESSAGE CENTER. For your guidance: the basic rate is $8.45 per line per day + focal taxes. There are 25 letters, signs and spaces in the first line and 36 in the following lines. Minimum space is 2 lines. No abbreviations accepted.

Please charge my ad to my American Express Cord account number: VALIDITY SIGNATURE:

PLACE YOUR CLASSIFIED AD at our office nearest you PARIS (HEAD OFFICE) For France and all countries not listed below:

181 Ave. Charles-de-Gaulle, 92521 Neuilly Cedex. Tel.: 747-12-65. Telex: 613595. UNITED KINGDOM: For sub-scriptions contact the Paris office, For odvertising only con-tock: Emmorikasch, LHT., 63 Long Acra, London, WCZE9JH, Tel.: 01 836 4802. Telen: 262009. 紀束OPE

AUSTRIA: McKim White, c/o OWG, Wokreie 16, 1010 Vien-nc Tel: 32 63 97. Telen: 113427 OWEGE A. SELGRUM & LUDEMSOURG: OTHERS Arthur Mokener, 6 Rue Louis Hymens, 1060 Brussels. Tel.: 343,18.99. Teleon 23922 AMX. HONG KONG: C. Chency & Associates Ltd., 506 Car Po Commercial Building, 18-20 Lyndhurst Terrora, Central, Hong Kong. Tel., 5-420906 Teles: 63079. SAS. ISSY: Teleon 23722 AMS.
GERMANY: For subscriptions contact the Paris effice. For advertising contact: Heidi Jung or Signid Konrod, U.I.T., Friedrichshosse 15, D 6000 Fronkfut/Main. Tel.: 726755. Teleon. A16721, INTD. ISRAEL: Don Errich, 23 Mossado Street, P.O. Box 11297, Tel Aviv. Tel.: 229873 & 242294. Telesc 341118 8007 IL EXT 6376. GREECE & CTPRUS: 1.C. Rennesson, Princhron 26, Athers, Tel. 3618397/3602421. Telex: 218344 BSGR.

JAPAN: Todoshi Mori, Medio Soles Jopen Inc., Tenturacho Building, 3-3-14. Shimboshi, Minoto-lat. To-layo 105. Teles: 25666. Tel.: 504 1925. 218344 IBS GR.

IFALY: Antonio Sombrotto, 55 Vio della Marcade, 00187 Rome.
Tel.: 679-34-37. Telest: 610 161.

NETHERIAMDS: Arnold Testing/
Alfons Grup, Prof. Tulpstraol 17, 1018 GZ. Anssterdom. Tel.: 020-263-615. Telest: 13133.

PORTUGAL: Rito Ambor, 32 Ruo dis Janelos Verdes, Liston. Tel.: 672793 & 662544.

SCANDINAVIA: For sebscrip-LERANON, JOEDAN, SYRIA, RAQ & EGYPT: Wolid Azz, TAMAM SAL P.O. Box 11.688, Beint. Tel. Harmy 341457, Tel.: Sursoct. 335252, Teles: 20417 U.E. SINGAPORE MALAYSIA: Stor-ley Ton, CHENEY TAN ASSOCI-ATES, Suite 508, Nelsons Bidg., 24 Feck Sooth St., Singapore 0207, Tel.: 748 21 56 8. 748 71 83. Tx.: 35983 (CTAFMS). 672/73 & 662344.

SCANDRAN/IA: For subscrip-tions contact the Paris office. For advertising only contact Emmo Rosch in London: Tel.: 01836 4802. Teles: 262009. 01 834 4902, Telesis 262007.

SPANE, Affredo Unicoff Sormiento, Ibeno Mort 1, 6D, Retiro Tesseiro 8, Modend 2D, Tel.

455/2891 455/33 06, Tbs.: 46172 COYAE, 46156 COYAE, 46156 COYAE, 46173 COYAE, 46156 COYAE, 46173 Cord Marshell Wicher, "Les Vignes", 15 Chemin Devel, 1009 Fully/Louisine. Tel.: (221) 29:58-94. Telesis: 25722 GVT CH. SOUTH AFRICA: Robin A. Hommond, International Media Representatives, PO Box 4,145, Johannesburg 200. Tel.: 29-8217, Telest. B-4013. U.S.A.: Sandy O'Hara, International Heroid Tyribune, 444 Madison Ave., New York 10022, Tel.: 212-752-3890.

MOVING ALLIED VAN LINES INTERNATIONAL

THE CAREFUL MOVERS GERMANY: INT'L MOVING SERVICES Frankfurt, 0611-781006. Munich, 089-142244. Dusseklorf, 02102-45023/24.

FRANCE: 14 r. de la Vega, Paris 12 Contact: Mr. McBain. Tel: 343 23 64.

BAGGAGE Sea/Air Freight, remo vals. TRANSCAR, Paris. (1) 500 03 04.

PRENCH PROVINCES BEAUTIFUL 18TH CENTURY CASTLE In very good condition. PUBLIC AUC-TION, (final): Manday 4 October 1982 ct 2 pm in the Poles de Justice of Ar-penton, 61200 Orne. STARTENS PRICE: FI,430,000. Poyment within 3½ months. For all information, call: 747 50 06 Pors, or (33 67 32 48, or writs to: Mane Dangert, 109 rue de Longchamp, 97200 Neutly/Saine.

MOVING

CREAT BRITAIN LUXURY MAYFAIR APARTMENT near Berkeley Square. Completely re-novated. One bedroom. (01) 499 2104

PARIS & SUBURBS HEART OF PARIS
Superb view, south between St Germain 8. Seine. Immerse studio, chorocier, chourt 60 stun, fitted by architect.
Beams, fireplace, numerous cuptoands.
Top fisor, old building (XVII c.), restorate inconvent. Private-private.
Tel: 329 46 49, Tuesday 28th, 8-12 cm.

USA RESIDENTIAL

UNITED VAN LINES SECOND TO NONE Hoet International Maving 15 Rus Philippe de Dongeau 78000 Versailles Tel: (3) 950 77 44 - Talex: 696301F

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE Agents for:

AVENUE DE BRETEUR. Becustiful firted offic, 2/3 rooms, F500,000. Tel: 555-28 68 evenings.
NEURLY. Becustiful duplex, 135 sq.m. + 60 sq.m. terroca. F1,450,000. Tel: 540.78 09.

540 78 09.
ST GERMAIN DES PRES. Owner sells 3 rooms, both, kitchen, newly renovated, 65 sq.m., snnny. Tel. 326 87 35.
CHESNAY. 3-room Rot, 60 sq.m., pool, lennis, greenery, calm. 637 47 49.

NY CITY - E 72nd St off Fifth Ave. Magnificent unfurnished 14 rooms, 5% boths, 6000 sq.ft. completely restored old world co-op in prestige building, 6 firegloces 6 serventif outerters. USS3 million, 16t; 212 288 3022.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE USA COMMERCIAL & INDUSTRIAL

SHOPPING CENTER
AUSTIN, TEXAS
Anchor tenents: Revox Drug, Tordy, Sofeway, 10 shops, good location with annually increasing revis.
Cosh down; US$ 899,488
Mortgage: US$ 321,107 of 9% Central UNIVESTORS S.A.
30 Avenue lagrante

SWITZERLAND

FOREIGNERS Con buy APARTMENTS freehold on LAKE GENEVA, in Montreux near Lousanne, or all year round re sorts: St. Cergue near Genevo, Villors Verbier, Les Dobberest, Laysin, etc. Verbier, Les Dobberest, Laysin, etc. AT LOW INTEREST RATES

AT LOW INTEREST RATES
Also quality properties in France, Apartments in EVIAN on the Loke, approximately 35 mms. from Geneva, and learning vides. VERY NEAR THE BORDER OF GENEVA, but to your specifications, Advise ama preferred.
Write: Developer, c/o Globe Plan S.A.
Man-Repos 24, 1005 Louscare
Switzerford, Tel. (21) 22, 35 12.
The: 25185 MRUS CH.

TO RENT/SHARE CREAT BRITAIN CENTRAL LONDON - Executive service operiments in new buildings, contentably furnished and fully equipped. Doily mad service (Non. through Fin.) Color TV. Phone for brachure (01) 388 1342 or write Presidential Escales (Mayfatr) Ltd., 1 University St., London WC1E 6JE.

REAL ESTATE TO RENT/SHARE GREAT BRITAIN LONDON - For furnished flats & houses, the service leading US Corpora-fions use: Anscombe & Kingland, Tel-Landon 435 7122, Teles: 297660.

LONDON NEW LUCURY FLATS. Gardens & heated pool. Singles or families. Long/short lets from £120 per week. London 202 4868 or 886 4062 LONDON. For the best furnished flats and houses. Consult the Specialists Philips, Key and Lawre. Tel. Landon 839 2245. LONDON REGISTS PARK. Maisonette, 2 double bedrooms Long let. Tel: London 258 0537. No agents.

HOLLAND HOMEFINDERS INT. For your house or flot in Amsterdam. Beethovenstr.81 1077 HP AMSTERDAM 020/797956. PARIS AREA FURNISHED

Your Studio or 2-Room Apartment AT THE CLARIDGE 74 Champs Elysees 8th 1 month or more Tel: 359 67 97 Telex 290 548F

AT HOME IN PARIS PARIS PROMO 563 25 60

EMBASSY SERVICE 8 Ave. de Messine, 75008 Paris Your Real Estate Agent IN PARIS 562 78 99

INTERNATIONAL 551 66 99 1 st CLASS APARTMENTS
A HOUSES
FURNISHED & UNIFURNISHED

REAL ESTATE TO RENT/SHARE PARIS AREA FURNISHED AT SACLE STUDIO TO 7 ROOMS UNIFURNISHED OR FURNISHED. SHORT TERM ACCEPTED. To the de Naples 5008 Paris 5008 Paris

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

563 66 65 TOTEM: UNIQUE 4 ROOMS, LUXURY 29th floor, top security. F25,000 monthly.

K F R: 296 88 88 PRETTY MODERN VILLA RUELL Garden, Large Tiving, 3 bedrooms design furnished. F7000, Tel. 380 40 33.

MUETTE. Focing Bois, 3/4 room opert-ment, 10th floor, large terroom, F7500 + charges, Tel: 527 79 45. + charges, let 52/7 94.3 16th VERY SURNY, Recardly furnished & equipped, 125 sq.m. operament to rent for about 1 year. Tell 32/9 95 49. ST GERMANN des Pres, elegantly ap-pointed studio. No agent. 326 87 35 PARIS AREA UNFURNISHED reception 4 bedrooms, 2 bothwooms. F15,000. Tel: 563 68 38.

NEAR Moison de la Radio, 16th. Living, dining, 2 bedrooms, both, equipped kitchen. F5000 including charges. Justified key money. 538 73 33

NEURLY. Blegare modern flet with view. Double fiving, 3 bedrooms, equipped latcher, lorge bedconies, garage. 19500. 1et 720 37 99.

16TH TEOCADERO. Superb 6-room flot in perfect condition, 2 boths, completely equipped kitchen, maids rooms, parlang. F13,000, 720 37 99.

ARE YOU A HABRIED froum hunter? Lat us do your feetwork. CSU Paris 574 23 10. REAL ESTATE WANTED/EXCHANGE

AMERICAN EXECUTIVE, florily of 3, seeks furnished large luxury operament or house to rent in Paris 16 or west suburbs. Paris: [3] 451 62 62. Dr Gerber:

EMPLOYMENT REAL ESTATE WANTED/EXCHANGE EXECUTIVE POSITIONS AVAILABLE YOUNG American businessman & wife seek surny furnished apartment Paris, preferably 7th. Tel: 502 17 10 Paris FOR MORE EXECUTIVE POSITIONS LOOK UNDER "INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE OPPORTUNITIES" PAGE 4

EXECUTIVES AVAILABLE WELL ESTABLISHED INTERNATION EASILY SELF-RETIRED, international BASLY SELF-REID, internationally experienced procurement manager (British), ex-leading USA patro-chemical engineering/construction componies, seets interesting temporary occupation. Fluent French, German, Dutch, working Indian, Residence Paris, Traveling no problem, Box 871, Hendel Tribune, 92521 Neully Cadex, Frenca.
RESHICH RESIDENT, Netherlands not condity 55 wide just a service processing the procure of the processing of the property of the processing of well ESTABLES INVESTMENT INVALIGATION ALL company, Paris based, distributing its own wide rongs of office products ungently regions 2 solemen possessing good spoken French / English and secting of executive level in Paris and provinces. Permanent position offered.
Renumeration considerably higher from overage. Experience in specialty saling on asset, Full on the job training provided. Ring for appointment.

provided. Ring for appointments 233 16 40 Poirs.

NEMLY PORMED INTERNATIONAL (Benefits Rheinfamil Westfaller) and Director. Must be fully quotified in all aspects of personnel management including info recruitment, position designation, compensation administration, performance evolutions. Expiritions performance evolution. Expiritions with multimonal corporation or info organization desirable. Write
Write
Tractive compensation package.

HENCH ISSUMENT, resmentants re-tionally, 55, wide inst apprenate lowyer, negotictor, soles manager, general intender, sones esculive oil/gos. Fluent French, English, Gen-nen, Italian, sone Spanish, will travel, may relocate, Box 847, Herald Tri-burne, 9221 Neully Coden, France. NPT. TRADE GRADULATE, young & embitious, seeks challenging position in the intil staff of Finance Division of crty well-teaven banking or financing organization, (Paris, London, Zurich, which trader with developing coun-tries. Write Box 859, Harald Inburne, 92221 Neully Codex, France. YOUNG RESNOH WOMAN, bilingual French/American, University degrees, 10 years professional experience. Soles personal essistant post in any field if responsibility, Box 856, Herald Tribune. 92521 Neully Codex, France. GENERAL POSITIONS WANTED AMERICAN, 77, currently fiving & working in Poris, with wide experience in journalism, advertising & TV commercial production, seeks interesting position in any field. Energetic, ambinus, strong writing stalls, fluerifrench. Volid working papers. Write Box 862, Herald Tribune, 92521 Neurily Cadex, France.

EXECUTIVE POSITIONS AVAILABLE Distributor Wanted

EMPLOYMENT

Grolier International Inc Grolier International Inc.
World's foremest publisher of educational books, encyclopeans, pick, language courses and the new Grolier Business Library seeks contact with comparise or soles groups interested in high volume market potential and escalery profit margins soling to business, homes, schools, fibraries directly or by mail. Distributor agencies available for outstanding publications in French, Italian, Spanish and English, for all European countries, mid-East and Africa.

For full information, contach Marketing Messager, GROLIER SA 2 rue Velfin, P.O. Box 39, 1211 GENEVA.

Talea: 28 90 24. Tul- 31 23 30 or at Frankfurt Book Fair, Oct 611, Holf 5, Sand U924.

LOOKING FOR two girls or men speeking fairly fluent french to casist business women. One must drive end one must type. Possible room & board.
Good telephone voice. Sense of humour. I morth fred. Working popers necessary. Cell Paris 647 65 $3.

BILINGUAL SECRETARY for int photo opency. Some book-lessing, work permit Possipity part / full time. Seed CV to Box 857, Nevella Tribune, 92521 Neutly Coder, France.

SECRETARIES, IBM 82 CM operators, French or English mother tongue. Top solories. Foll pay soch week. Form 25 59 25. GR Interim, 39 Changes Byses, Poris Bth.

PROFESSIONAL LYBICIST.

O.C.I.-

Accountents

Accounting Secretaries (with experience of Anglo-Scottin occounting). Bilingual English, serious references required. Cost, with your professional reterences. 26 rue de la Pepisiere PARIS STRI. Site Roor, Bureau 11.

attractive compensation package inquire move: Bax 15605, Herak Tribune, 9252T Neutly codes, France

TEACHING POSITIONS
AVAILABLE EXPERIENCED TEACHER of English with cor required immediately. Paris 264 76 24. DOMESTIC POSITIONS AVAILABLE

MAINTENGUAL Italian lody, int's experience as executive assistant & PR. Excellent personality & appearance, artistivenity, hard-working, date to run small office, loves contact, free to travel, seets permanent position. Any field considered. Box 374. Herald Tribune, 92521 Neully Cedex, France.

couple: cook-housekeeper & gardener-hondyman, Hoste Sovoie chalcus. B-parisate preferred. France (50/08178 9885: HIGHEY qualified cook, serious references: required. Paris. Tel. Afere Persyn, Paris: 256 86 00 office hours.

ENGLISH GERL C.S.E. French, experience with children, can code. Seeks position in foundly as mothers' help for year, Landon 01-373 7066 between 10-ons to 5-pm, Monday - Friday, or write: Box 42267, HT, 63 Long Acre, London WC2.

DOMESTIC POSITIONS WANTED AMERICAN BABYSITTER outlieble Meture, experienced, Porte 380 15 94 ENGLISH NAMEY / governess, color, reliable girl, seeks post obroad, Bry Stoff Consultants, / High St., Alder-shot, Hants, UK. Tels 0252 315369. PRENCH WASHAN, 32, bilingual, ex-citient education, would look after children and lutpring, part-time. Tel. 535 50 34 Paris.

EMPLOYMENT

ENGLISH NANNES & Mothers' Helps frae now. Nash Agency, 37 Grand Po-rode, Brighton, UK, Tel: 682 666.

HOLIDAYS & TRAVEL

PORTUGAL 7 DAYS INCLUSIVE TOURS

FROM PARIS TO: LISBON F72700.00
ETIOREL/CASCAIS F72405.00
COSTA VERDE (OPORTO) F72490.00

Please Contact: Parts Tel: 742 59 81; 742 32 64; 742 54 97. The: 220550. FROM ZURICH TO:

Please contact: Chevra Tel: 28 31 44. Telea: 427130

For other programs and detailed information, ask your TRAVEL AGENT

CHARTER A VALIF YACHT in Source direct from owner of longest flesh in Europe. American monopelment fields and crews, service, profunctions, good bonded, Volet Yachts Ltd., Alls Steinberg, 2CC, Fromers, Copiec. Ed. 4529571, 4529485 Teleo 27-2001.

PAGE 15 FOR MORE CLASSIFIEDS

ATTENTION BUSINESSMEN: Publish your business message in the International Herald Tribune, where more than a third of a million readers worldwide, most of whom are in business and industry, will read it. Just telex us (Paris 613595) before 10 a.m., ensuring that we can telex you back, and your message will appear within 48 hours. The rate is U.S. $8.45 or local equivalent per line. You must include complete and verifiable billing address.

International Business Message Center

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES
Put your money to work
DUNN & HARGITT
Experts in International Portfolio Management Investment Opportunities COMMODITIES, CURRENCIES & GOU
- Proven track record of over 25%

 Proven track record of over 25% overlage hat profit per annum.
 Clants coopurts audient.
 All assets deposited with major international investment barid.
 Over 20 years experience.
 Monthly performance statements. ACT NOW Write for free brochure to: Dunn & Hargett Research S.A. Dept. A 239 Avenue Unyd George 6, Ste 5 1050 Brussels, Belgium. Tel: (02) 640 32 50 Telso: 44978 DUNIN-8

Restricted in Belgium. C.C.M 'The Company People' Formations in L.O.M. Liberta, Turks, Neth. Antilles, Cayman, etc. Full back-up provided including namines shareholden, directors, administration and secretarial services. Trusts, formed and administered. Contact us of 5 Upper Clurch 52., Douglas, L.O.M. Tel: Douglas (1624) 23733.

Tits: 627900 CCMIOM G BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES T-SHIRT PRINT ON THE SPOT WHILE-U-WAIT

Europe's No. 1 T-short print supplies offers you the chonce to copidate or this because market. Storking-up cost in closur £ 1000 (Sharing). Discover host to earn up to 200% profit margin from this sharing the state between IMAGINE TRANSFERS Ltd 17 Churton St., London SW1 Tel: 01-834 4597 Teless 987879

IMAGINE TRANSFERS FRANCE, SARL 41 Boulevard Beaumard 75003 Paris, France Tel: 1-274 43 55 Teles: 614806

DIVERSIFY YOUR INVESTMENT

A well known Swiss inturance comparis offering its life policies and amusin to non-Swiss residents at standard rather threat in the world's strongest current and errors Swiss security. Inquiries fro brokers and investors welcomed. Write in strict confidence: Globe Plan SA Av Mon Repos 24 1005 Lausanne, Switzerland 1005 L HONG KONG Corporations, US$ 500, ICS Ltd. GPO 8841, Hong Kong. Tel. 5-764313-6. Teles, 62159 TAX HK shirts, on oil-cosh business that can earn you $6000 - $8000/month. Color, B & W, now 8 used systems for immediate delivery. $12,500,$29,000. Kemo GmbH, Dept. $28, Postach 174082, 6000 Frankfurt, West Germany. Tel-0611-747808. Tbs. 412713, KEMA.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES SHAKEY'S PIZZA American fast food fronchise for all of Taiwon. Going consum includes oil outlets. $350,000, Teleuc 66112 MRI PN. PO Box 974, MCC, Makati, Philippines.

COTTON CANVAS - tents & torpoulins for crmy & civil uses available. Contact manufacturers and exporters: N.P. Waterproof industries I.Id., 207-P, Tautle Plaza, M.A. Jursoh Road, Karachi, Roisstan. Teles: 2428 WFRCP: PK - Cobie: Waterproof Karach. COMM: Westerproof Forders.

CANADIAN SILVER TRADEMARK [Hallmark] for sale. Will enable user to import & sell silver ortheles in Canada.
Contact. MSR 24, N. Umberland St.,
Toronto Canada. 416-534-4977. BUSINESS SERVICES BERKELEY SARE DEPOSIT CO. LTD., London. Confidential wall safes, or voluli space available monthly/yearly. Access up to 24 hours / 7 days per week. Apply: Manager, 13/15 Davies St, London WI. Tel. 01 409 1122. Teles: 918068 CLARNIT G. YOUR ORDICE IN INTRA YOUR. Fifth

BUSINESS SERVICES DON'T VISIT PARIS ALONE. Take high standard private guide with ca Call APOS: 541 01 89 / 539 55 75. FINANCIAL INVESTMENTS

Professional and consulting services, To advise, locale and manage your USA investments. Location and preselection of quality investment properties to meet your financial plans. Mortgage financing available. Allow experienced American to represent you in analyzing envestment appartunites. Business Services Consulting Corp. Kutholgosse 8 (beside Bohnhoharase) CH-8001 Zurich / Switzerkand Tek 01/211 95 68. The 813 062 BSCC

INVEST IN USA REAL ESTATE

OFFICE SERVICES London Regent St. Lucury serviced offices Prestige realing address 24 hour telephone answering Tolax, Secretarial, Fax, Xerex

Teleo: 918048 CLARNIT G.

YOUR OFFICE IN NEW YORK. Fifth Ave. address and / or phone numbers or your USA office. Mail, phone calls received & forwarded. New York Mail Service, 210 5th Ave., NYC 10010.
INTERPRETER LADY / Public Relations.
Your assistant in Paris. Tel: 500 31 08.

CHESHAM EXECUTIVE CENTRE

150 Regent Street, London W1 Tel: 01 439 6288. Teles: 261426

OFFICE SERVICES Zurich is Besti YOUR

FURNISHED OFFICE

IN ZURICH NEAR BANKING DISTRICT Mail, messages, orders taken and forwarded worldwide.

Trilingual secretaries hourly.

INTERNATIONAL OFFICE

fices, hours 10 c.m. to 7 p.t. Send detailed resume indicating present sufory and photo (returned to Mines Koloudayan at Paul, Wests, Riffied, Wharton & Garrison, 8 Place Vendome, 75001 Paris.

EXPERIENCED EXECUTIVE secretory, pilingual English-franch, English mother tangue, Send handwritten CV to SERIE Construction internationals, Tour Mains-Mortparnass, 75755 Paris Cadex 15, Atte Mar Plan.

LAW OFFICE seeks concurries bilingual secretary, fluent French, English shorthand, Experiences working in an interrolinal office. Applications with full CV to Box 673, Handld Tribons, 92521
Neully Codex, Francis Comments. 42 Rennweg, CH-8001 Zurich Tel: 01/211 29 15, Telex 812656 INOF YOUR FURNISHED OFFICE IN PARIS NEAR CHAMPS IL YSSES
Rentol with all office facilities Multilingual Secretories sacious, phone, teles, message service, donaclicions.
Meeting Rosess, projector and smultaneous translation equipment. UK BASED International Company seeking English-speaking or presentably bilingual English-Prench speaking sec-retural staff to fill temporary positions in the Paris area. Please contacts Paris 285 12 70, (10 - 12 cm).

YOUR OFFICE IN PARKS: TELEX, ANSWERING SERVICE, secretory, errords, molitors, live 26H/day. Tel. PAT. 609 95 95.

GEORGE V EXECUTIVE CENTER 30 AVE, GEORGE V, 75008 PARIS Tel: 723 78 08, Teleo:; 612225F,

EMPLOYMENT GENERAL POSITIONS AVAILABLE

for Immovery work with ANGLO-SAXON COMPANIES BASED IN PARIS AND SURVINES

Assistant Accountants

Caring & Loving Woman FOR TWO BABIES 4 days and rights alternating week with other nurse. NOT a live-in position Does include light child-related house keeping. Lorge N.Y., opertured in winter L.L. house till Nov., other help. Elevable good natured person soughs. Must have fine references. Top solary.

Tel: USA 212-225-0540. MARINE SURVEYOL. Fluent in English and Jepanese seels suitable position. Please contact Mr. A. Karim 3-2-2. Sakoeto, Higash Murayama 189, Jopan. Tel: 0423 94 0091.

raturessional LYRICIST, American seeks work in Paris. Box 867, Herak Tribune, 92521 Neutly Cadex, France.

DOMESTIC POSITIONS WANTED

International Secretarial Positions SECRETARIAL POSITIONS AVAILABLE SECRETARIES AVAILABLE

INT'L DOCUMENTATION CENTER seeks English enoiser tongun typestre-captions. Fettin per month - benin. It. Phone: 57 16 10 six 5062 Park. LOCKING FOR young and bright seometry, English mother longue. Coll. 723 of 48 focis. MINERVE SEEKS for AMERICAN FRAMS in PARS.
English, Belgian, Dutch or German secretories, Innovided of French required, English shorthand. Bilingual Islands. Write or phone: 136 Avesties Victor Hugo, 75116 Paris, Franca. Tel. 727 61 69. SECRETARIES AVAILABLE PARIS OFFICE OF AMERICAN LO RANDSTAD Bilingual personsel.
Leapparay work.
CAN HEP YOU. We're better.
Paris (1) 341 08 00. Firm seeks SECRETARY, perfectly trilinguols French-English-German, with a seast 3 years experience and short hond-typing. Excellent working conditions, hons 10 cars, to 7 p.m. Sent detailed resume indicating present sel

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, Huent French, Copiets, German, Swedish, top references. Seeks position Ports, Tek 267 07 07 Peris.

SECRETARIES AVAILABLE

FRAALE SECRETARY, 25, English, Franch, Swadeh, Firmsh, Germin, good presentation, dynamic 3 years reportence, seels challenging position.
From to travel and relocate, Address, 1
Roce Peors Senand, Apt 4. 1st floor, Casoblance, Moscoco.

US, 30, with sacallent administrating 8.
secretaries sale, seels full or perform work in Firm. Good, command of French, 4 years with large 155 fav.
from Box 872, Hendel Tribonis, 97521 Nacilly Carlon, France.
BELNGUAL SECRETARY, highly qualified, seels: port-firm job or replacement, 19th 651 95 13 Paris.

EXECUTIVE SELECTARY DOCUTIVE BEINGUAL SECRETARY, top skills, socks job French Reiera. Tel 73 43 3675 Francis. NEED A TOP SECRETARY? Col G.P. Interier. 225 59 25 Paris.

TOP LEVEL EXECUTIVE SECRETARY FOR PRESTIGIOUS INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION

Requirements:

Excellent shorhand typing in English
This position requires frequent trips abroad of short or long duration long duration security in the approach of long duration several years of proven securital appear monagement/executive levels.

Contract of unlimited duration Post vacant immediately.

Write to Society Jobel Ref. No 2072 5, rue Alexandre Dumos, 75011 PARIS, France.